1. This Agreement is made solely with respect to those of the Company's employees who are, from time to time, engaged at its Toronto Plant in manufacturing, maintenance, or warehouse (such employees are hereinafter called the "employees"), save and except the security force, office cleaning staff, office and technical staff, supervisors and persons above the rank of supervisor. Unless specifically stated to the contrary, and with the exception of the provisions for seniority rights and grievance procedure, this Agreement shall apply to probationary employees as hereinafter defined.
2. The Parties are committed to a jointly developed Philosophy and Values statement which enables them to continuously improve the competitiveness of the business, quality of life, and interests of all employees, by working together.

3. Departmental Agreements are a permissible and recommended practice, their purpose being to afford rules for departmental application of the terms of this Collective Agreement. To be valid, Agreements must be signed by Departmental Supervision, the Department Steward, the Chief Steward, and the Manager, Industrial Relations. All signatories will retain copies of the Departmental Agreement. These Agreements, or changes to these Agreements, must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of employees in the Department and must be ratified by the Union Executive and the Management Committee before going into effect. Also, all Departmental Agreements are to be ratified on a yearly basis at the regular monthly meeting in December of each year.

4. In the event that the Company relocates all or part of its existing operations currently carried on at 21 Don Valley Parkway, Toronto, to a location within the City of Toronto, and to the extent that it reduces the number of employees at the above-mentioned location by more than 5%, then the Company undertakes to transfer employees occupying those jobs being discontinued as a result of the relocation. Affected employees will be eligible for transfer only if they are qualified for the new job, and conditions at the new location permit. Similarly, if operations are relocated as above to a location in the Province of Ontario, but outside the City of Toronto, and to the extent that it reduces the number of employees at the above-mentioned location by more than 20%, the same conditions would apply.

Should the site of the new location be beyond the environs of Metropolitan Toronto, the cost of the move, of those accepting transfer, to be borne by the Company, will be confined to the transportation of the immediate family and household effects.

ARTICLE V

SENIORITY

1. When an employee has become a regular employee by completing the probationary cumulative service period of thirteen (13) working weeks (excluding absence or overtime), such employee shall be granted seniority dated retroactively to the date of that employee's last recall from temporary lay-off prior to the completion of such employee's probationary period.

2. (A) Temporary lay-off is defined as a period not exceeding twenty-six (26) continuous weeks.

Should an employee choose to exercise their rights under E.S.A. with respect to the lay-off no longer qualifying as a temporary lay-off, they may opt to take whatever redundancy settlement for which they qualify (Article V, Clause 3(B), or E.S.A.), understanding that, in this instance the employee forfeits their recall rights.

(B) In the event of an employee becoming surplus to requirements, temporary lay-off shall be in reverse order of seniority within the step, beginning at the lowest step and progressing to the LP-7 rate. Thereafter, the temporary lay-off would be in reverse order of seniority regardless of step.

(C) For purposes of lay-off (temporary or permanent), regardless of the job being performed, an employee who is paid for a certain step shall be considered as being on that step.

(D) For the purposes of layoff, temporary or permanent, nine (9) senior employees, who are being paid less than the LP-7 rate of pay, shall be considered to be on the LP-7 step. This clause shall only apply to employees who were full time and members of Local 132, as of March 15 1989.

(E) If, during the twenty-six (26) week period of temporary lay-off, the Company requires additional employees, employees laid off shall be recalled in the reverse order of which they were laid off. No change shall be made in such recalled employees' seniority dates. In the event any such person is overlooked, the Company shall be liable only for a loss of wages up to a maximum of four (4) weeks from the time the error was made, at their then prevailing rate. Their seniority entitlement will be restored.

3. (A) In the matter of reduction of personnel, as determined by the Company, to be of a permanent nature, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority starting with the LP-1 rate of pay, then the LP-2 rate of pay, then the LP-3 rate of pay, and then from either the Manufacturing or the Trades Group in reverse order of seniority.

For the purpose of permanent lay-off, the plant will be divided into the following Groups:

1. LP-1, LP-2 & LP-3 rates
2. Trades or Manufacturing

(B) Employees who completed their probationary period and who are designated by the Company to be laid off in accordance with Article V, Clause 3(A), will receive a redundancy settlement of:

- i) up to three (3) years of service - E.S.A. provisions
- ii) over three (3) years of service

- Four (4) weeks notice or E.S.A. whichever is higher, or pay in lieu of notice
- Two (2) weeks pay per completed year of service.
- Job search assistance for a period eight (8) weeks immediately following the lay-off.

Upon being so terminated the employee shall forfeit all seniority rights and other rights under the terms of the Collective Agreement.

- (C) Any employee who has received redundancy settlement as outlined in Article V, Clause 3(B), and is re-employed either on a temporary or a permanent basis, shall only receive separation entitlement under the terms of the Employment Standards Act.
 - (D) In the event of a lay-off due to a damage to plant facilities or equipment, beyond the Company's control, Article V, Clause 3(B) shall not apply.
 - (E) An employee will not be eligible for the redundancy settlement under the following conditions:
 - (i) Resigns voluntarily.
 - (ii) Is discharged.
 - (iii) Fails to return to work immediately upon completion of any Leave of Absence which may have been granted by the Company.
 - (iv) Attains 65 years of age.
4. Any regular employees laid off for any reason, who have been notified, in writing, by registered letter to their last known address to return to work, and who, within two (2) calendar weeks, have failed to do so without reasonable excuse, shall be considered to have resigned, and their existing seniority rights shall thereupon be terminated. When notice, as aforesaid, is sent to an employee, a copy thereof shall be delivered or mailed, concurrently, to the Chief Steward of the Union, or a designated alternate.
5. Job selections will be based on mutually agreed qualifications. Where more than one employee qualifies to perform the full requirements of the position, and where their qualifications are relatively equal, selections will be based on seniority.
6. Openings, as determined by the Company, which are expected to exceed thirteen (13) weeks, will be posted for ten (10) calendar days. Job class, rate, qualifications and Group will be stated in the posting. Interested employees may apply, in writing, using the form mutually agreed by the Job Selection Committee and supplied by the H.R. Department.

e) Should no applicant achieve the required test scores, the job will be re-posted following the provision of a training opportunity for those employees interested in upgrading to meet the test requirements.

f) Raw scores will be converted to percentage as follows:- a score of 19 correct answers out of 36 total questions would translate into 52.8%, a score of 18 correct answers out of 24 total questions would translate into 75%. For the balance of the tests, aggregate score will be calculated by totaling the number of correct answers from the tests involved and dividing that total by the total number of questions on the tests involved. The resulting number represents the candidate's aggregate score in percentage.

- g) Applicants meeting the agreed test requirements for that job will be considered relatively equal and the senior candidate in this category will be selected.
 - h) Sample questions will be made available prior to the actual testing dates, upon request.
 - i) Test results will be considered valid for three (3) years, unless an employee wishes to rewrite the test for a subsequent posting.

 - (D) For all posted positions, there will be a current job description which will be reviewed and updated every two years by the Job Selection Committee. The purpose of the review is to determine whether the description accurately reflects the duties being performed by the incumbents with the understanding that determining job content is a Management right and responsibility.
- 7. Where the Company's Chief Medical Officer and the employee's personal physician have agreed, with the assistance of an I.M.E. and/or a F.A.E. where necessary, that an employee is physically unfit to continue performing their job, the Chief Medical Officer and/or Occupational Health Nurse will provide an assessment of the employee's physical capabilities to the site Human Resources Manager. Should the restriction in capabilities be considered temporary, the site Human Resources Manager, the Health Centre and the Department Production Manager will review and assign appropriate modified work.

Should the restriction in capabilities be regarded as permanent, the Union Executive and the Management Committee shall, by agreement, be at liberty to place such employee in any job within the employee's own Group on the same step or below, or in the Resource Group. Such placement will be based on the recommendations of the Health Centre as to the employee's abilities and that such employee has more seniority than the employee displaced. Employees so assigned shall be permitted to accept promotion to jobs approved by the Company's Chief Medical Officer provided the criteria in Article V, Clause 6, are adhered to.

If, in these matters, dissatisfaction with the opinion of the Company's Chief Medical Officer exists, it shall become a matter for discussion between the Union Executive and Management, but shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

8. A promotion shall be defined as a move to a job paying a higher rate. A demotion shall be defined as a move to a job paying a lower rate. Employees have a special claim to a job which they have acquired through the provisions of this Article, and shall not be moved from it, except under the following circumstances:
 - (i) A further move in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
 - (ii) The creation of a new job resulting from the elimination of two (2) or more present jobs, provided that the elimination of such jobs occurs within thirteen (13) weeks of the creation of the new job. In such case, only the persons on the jobs affected will be considered for the new position, except as concerns any additional employee who may be required.
 - (iii) The creation of new jobs as a product of departmental restructuring, which results in existing jobs being divided or altered. In such case, only the persons on the jobs affected will be considered for the new position, except as concerns any additional employee who may be required.

 - (A) Except for employees who are under physical restrictions, any employee failing to satisfactorily perform in a job shall be demoted from the step and shall be paid the step rate immediately below that step, shall lose the right to be promoted back to that step for a period of one (1) year. The demoted employee may continue to perform any function for which they are qualified, up to and including the rate at which they are being paid.
 - (B) In the event that an employee withdraws from a job within twenty (20) days of assignment to that job, they shall be demoted from the step, shall be paid the step rate immediately below that step and lose the right to be promoted back to that step for a period of six (6) months. The employee may continue to perform any function for which they are qualified, up to and including the rate at which they are being paid.
 - (C) In both instances, the demoted employee's rate of pay shall be reduced to the LP-4 rate twelve (12) months after the date of demotion, unless the employee has acquired a posted job during that period.

10. In the case of job moves, including resulting from failure, other than the inability to perform in the job, where the Company has no reasonable alternative for training a replacement, it is recognized that the employee is under a moral obligation to remain in the job, unless extenuating circumstances make the employee's immediate movement necessary. Where such an employee is retained to train their replacement, it will be for a period of time to be specified in each case. The move will take place immediately on paper but the employee will retain the rate for the job.

11. If an employee, occupying a posted job, is absent for any reason, except parental leave as defined in the E.S.A., for longer than the periods listed below, such employee shall return to the Resource Group, maintaining the pay rate applicable at the start of their absence. The employee shall perform any function for which the employee possesses the ability and which is within any physical restrictions that apply. The employee shall maintain their pay rate under the terms outlined in Schedule "B" or Schedule "A" whichever is appropriate.

LP-9 and above	=	26 weeks
LP-8	=	22 weeks
Lowest posted job to LP-7	=	18 weeks

12. It is understood that a discussion may take place at any time during the periods referred to in Clauses 11, and, based on the information available at that time, it may be mutually agreed to declare the employee's position vacant and that it be posted.

13. If an absent employee returns to their job for all regular scheduled work days, including the Sundays and paid Holidays in the extended shift pattern, for a period of fourteen (14) calendar days within the periods referred to in Clause 11, such employee shall return to their job. - 15. A "suitable replacement" shall be defined as an employee who can safely perform to the Supervisor's satisfaction, the work of an absent employee.
- 16. The Company has the right to assign, to employees, other duties of a casual or general nature, such as painting, clean-up and minor repair, etc. This clause shall not apply to projects designated by the Company as capital expenditure involving outside contractors.

PROCEDURE FOR SETTLING GRIEVANCES

1. The parties hereto shall meet promptly, through their authorized representatives respectively, to discuss and adjust any dispute and/or grievance which may arise between the parties and such meetings shall be held on the Company's time.
2. Every effort shall be exerted mutually to adjust any and all grievances and/or disputes which may arise.
3. A Negotiating Committee (representing solely the employees of the Company), consisting of seven (7) members, all of whom shall be regular employees of the Company, shall be elected by the employees of the Company who are members of the Union, in a manner determined by the Union, and the Company shall be kept informed, by the Union, of the personnel of such Committee. At no time will the number be allowed to exceed seven (7). In addition, a member of the International Union of the Teamsters Chemical, Energy and Allied workers, I.B. of T. will be permitted to attend.
4. In any dispute or grievance arising out of this Agreement between the employee or employees and the Company, it is desirable that the employee or employees directly affected shall first discuss the matter with the Supervisor concerned. The Company may refuse a dispute or grievance unless the circumstances and conditions upon which it is based have originated or occurred within three (3) calendar weeks of its written presentation as a grievance.
5. If the employee or employees or the Union decide that the matter constitutes a dispute or grievance, it shall be settled within the designated times (i) - (iv) below, and by the following procedure:
 - (i) A first step grievance meeting will be held within three (3) calendar weeks following a request for such a meeting;

- (ii) A second step meeting will be held within three (3) calendar weeks following the receipt in Industrial Relations of the written second step request. In the event that the second step meeting is not held within the prescribed or agreed limit, the grievance will automatically proceed to the next third step meeting, unless the second step meeting can be held in the interim;
- (iii) A third step meeting will be held within six (6) calendar weeks following the receipt in Industrial Relations of a written third step request.
- (iv) These time limits may be extended by the written mutual agreement of the Manager, Industrial Relations and the Chief Steward.

First Step:

- (A) Subject to part (B), the aggrieved employee and such employee's Department Steward (or an alternate designated by the Chief Steward) meets with the Supervisor of the Department in which the aggrieved employee works and presents, in writing, such employee's grievance. The Supervisor shall deal with the grievance and deliver an answer, in writing, to the Steward not later than one (1) calendar week following the first step meeting.
- (B) When an incident that gave rise to the grievance, or the nature of the grievance is such that it can be more effectively dealt with by a Supervisor other than the Supervisor of the Department in which the grievor is working, then, with the agreement of the Manager, Industrial Relations and the Chief Steward of the Union, arrangements will be made to process the grievance with the more appropriate personnel.

Second Step:

If the decision of the Supervisor is not satisfactory to the employee concerned and/or the Union, a written request for a second step meeting shall be filed with the Supervisor within one (1) calendar week following the day on which the first step answer was delivered.

The second step meeting shall include:

- (i) The aggrieved employee.
- (ii) The grievor's Department Steward.(or an alternate designated by the Chief Steward)
- (iii) The Chief Steward.(or an alternate designated by the Union)
- (iv) The Supervisor of the Department in which the aggrieved employee works, subject to (B) of the First Step.
- (v) A representative of the next higher level of Manufacturing Management.
- (vi) The Manager, Industrial Relations or an Industrial Relations designate. The decision of the Company on the second step of the grievance procedure shall be delivered to the Chief Steward of the Union within one (1) calendar week following the second step meeting.

Third Step:

If the decision of the second step is not satisfactory to the employee concerned and/or the Union, a written request for a third step meeting must be lodged with the Industrial Relations Department within three (3) calendar weeks of the date on which the second step decision was delivered to the Chief Steward.

The third step meeting shall include:

- (i) The Union Negotiating Committee.
- (ii) The Management Negotiating Committee.
- (iii) May include additional Management representatives desired by Management.
- (iv) May include the Canadian Representative of the Teamsters Union or other representatives of the Teamsters Union, as desired by the Union.

Provided that the total number of Management representatives shall not exceed the total number of Union representatives.

The decision of the Company on the third step of the grievance procedure shall be delivered to the Chief Steward of the Union within one (1) calendar week following the third step meeting.

Fourth Step:

If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the decision rendered at the last third step meeting, and if the matter constitutes a difference between Company and the Union as to the application, interpretation or violation of the provisions of this Agreement, the Union shall notify the Company, in writing, of their dissatisfaction within one (1) calendar week of the date the third step decision was delivered to the Chief Steward. If no notification of dissatisfaction is received, the grievance shall be considered as being settled at the third step.

In the event that such notice of dissatisfaction is given within the prescribed time limit, the matter may, at the demand of either party, be carried to the next higher step, providing notice of such action is given, in writing, within three (3) calendar weeks of the date of the third step meeting. If no such notice is given, the grievance shall be considered as being settled at the third step.

Once notice is given by either party of the desire to proceed to arbitration, the process must be initiated, either by application for an expedited arbitration or by appointment of member for an arbitration board, within one calendar month from the date of the notice. Should the process not be initiated within this time limit, the grievance will be considered abandoned at the third step.

In the event of an application for an expedited arbitration, a discussion will take place between the parties, prior to the application, to attempt to coordinate schedules and prevent further delays.

If such notice is given, a Board of Arbitration shall then be formed to judge the issue as presented, but shall not modify, enlarge or amend the Agreement.

The Board shall consist of one member appointed by the Union, one member appointed by the Company, and a third member appointed by such two, who shall be the Chairman. In the event that either party fail to appoint their member within one (1) calendar month of the date of the fourth step notification, the appointment of such member shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.

The two members, appointed by the parties, shall appoint a Chairman within two (2) calendar weeks of the appointment of the second of them. If the two members, appointed by the parties, fail to appoint a Chairman within the time limits, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario, upon the request of either party.

The decision of such a Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties, but in the event that there is no majority decision of the Board, the decision of the Chairman shall be final and binding on both parties.

Each party shall bear the expenses of its own member and one-half the expense of the Chairman.

6. (A) Should Management fail to deliver their reply to the Union within the time limits prescribed in any step of the grievance procedure, the grievance will be presumed to have proceeded to the next step on the day following the expiry of the time limit in question.
 - (B) Should the Union fail to process a grievance to the next higher step in accordance with the prescribed times, the grievance shall be considered abandoned.
 - (C) In all instances, the time limits referred to throughout the grievance procedure, may be extended by the written mutual agreement of the Manager, Industrial Relations, or a specified designate, and the Chief Steward, or a specified designate.
7. Notwithstanding Section 48, Subsection 16, of the Labour Relations Act, the time limits referred to in Clause (4) and (5) shall be binding on both parties to this Agreement.
 8. The Company shall have the right to lodge a grievance against the Union. Such grievance shall be undertaken at the second step.

9. The Union shall have the right to process a general policy grievance regarding the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement, with reference to matters involving the employees as a whole. Such grievance shall commence at the second step.

10. (A) The Company shall ensure that an employee is advised of his/her right to have a Steward present during any formal recorded disciplinary discussion, and will arrange for a Steward to be present, unless the employee requests otherwise.

(B) No notation concerning the misconduct or inefficiency on the part of an employee shall be placed in the Company's files without written notification to that employee and to the Chief Steward of the Union. Such notations shall concern only those incidents of misconduct or inefficiency which have come to the Company's knowledge within three (3) calendar weeks previous to the day on which the employee receives a copy of the notation.

11. In the event of an employee's refusal to perform work or to enter a work area that such employee deems to be unsafe, the Supervisor, together with the accredited Safety Representative, will assess the situation to determine the action to be taken. All rights and privileges established under the Laws of the Province of Ontario, in respect of Occupational Health and Safety, shall form part of this Agreement.

12. The Company agrees to notify the Secretary-Treasurer and Chief Steward of the Union, in writing, of the dismissal of any regular employee. Notice of dismissal to a regular employee shall be in writing and shall be given either personally (with the time limits starting on the date of receipt) or by registered mail (with the time limits starting on the day after the mailing date). If any regular employee is dismissed for any reason whatsoever, and feels that he or she has been unjustly dealt with, such employee shall, within seven (7) calendar days, notify concurrently, in writing, both the Secretary or Chief Steward of the Union and the Manager, Industrial Relations of the Company. The dismissal in question shall then constitute a grievance and shall be dealt with in accordance with the grievance procedure set out above, commencing at the second or third step. If, subsequently, it is decided that the employee was unjustly dismissed, such employee shall be reinstated in their former job and shall be compensated for lost wages and benefits.

13. There shall be no strike, slowdown or stoppage of work on the part of the Union or any of its members, or lock-out on the part of the Company during the life of this Agreement.

This Agreement will remain in force until April 30, 2003, and shall be renewed automatically for successive periods of one (1) year each, provided that either party may give to the other party (within thirty (30) days, but no more than sixty (60) days, prior to the expiration date of this Agreement), thirty (30) days' written notice of its intention to terminate or seek amendment to this Agreement.

11. The employee shall not take other paid work while in receipt of benefits.
12. No employee will be entitled to benefit for a disability arising out of, or in the course of employment with another employer.
13. Any employee who obtains benefit under this Plan for absence from work due to disability, and receives compensation from a Third Party for such disability, shall remit such compensation to the Company, up to a maximum of the benefit paid under this Plan, providing, however, that such compensation does not stem from a personal disability policy for which the employee or the employee's agent has paid the premium.

14. Entitlement to benefits under the Plan shall cease automatically upon termination of employment. Accordingly, an employee under notice shall receive benefit only until the expiration of the period of such notice, or of the period of benefit as defined below, which is the lesser. An employee, who happens to be receiving benefits under the Plan when such employee reaches retiring age, will not be entitled to any further benefit after retiring, even though that employee's entitlement under the provisions of this Plan has not been exhausted.
15. The Company's decision as to the interpretation of the provisions of this Plan shall be final.

B - BENEFITS

Subject to the conditions set out above, an employee who is absent from work as a result of sickness or accident will, in lieu of wages, receive up to six (6) months benefits not to exceed the following limits:

After completion of eight (8) weeks' cumulative service and up to one (1) year of service..... 1 week

For every completed year of service, up to thirteen (13) years of service 2 weeks

Effective March 1987, the only benefit will be at a rate equal to the employee's normal wages exclusive of any overtime or bonus payment.

Employees who have more than six (6) months of this full benefit entitlement as of March 15, 1987 shall cease to accumulate further entitlement and other benefit levels are discontinued. Their entitlement will then be reduced by the amount of benefit received and will not be renewed. Once entitlement has been reduced to six (6) months or below, entitlement will only be renewable to the maximum six (6) months benefit level.

The benefits shall include, in their calculation, the waiting periods described below:

Waiting Period:

Such benefits shall commence as follows:

- (i) After completion of eight (8) weeks' cumulative service and up to the end of five (5) years' seniority:
 - on the fourth (4th) consecutive regular working day of absence.
- (ii) From the beginning of the sixth (6th) year to the end of the twelfth (12th) year of seniority:
 - on the third (3rd) consecutive regular working day of absence.
- (iii) From the beginning of the thirteenth (13th) year of seniority:
 - on the first (1st) regular working day of absence.

Cancellation of Waiting Period:

Benefits withheld, during the waiting period described above, will be paid to eligible employees when their absence extends to eleven (11) consecutive regular working days, always provided benefit is available.

C - EXCEPTION

Any employee who qualified for benefit, as per above, and who returns to work for a period up to and including five (5) working days, and is again required to be absent from work as a result of the same illness, shall not be required to serve another waiting period, therefore, benefit will commence from the first (1st) day of absence.

D - OPERATION

The period for which an employee is entitled to receive normal and/or reduced benefits in respect of any period of absence will be calculated by reference to the employee's seniority on the day on which the absence starts, but any period during which the employee has received benefits under the Plan, or any previous Plan in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding that day, will be counted against the employee's entitlements.

E - TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY

Employees who, because of a partial disability, are temporarily assigned to a job paying a rate lower than the rate for their normal job, will receive their normal job rate for a period of one (1) year and the differences in rates will be charged on a pro-rata basis against any outstanding entitlement as calculated under provision D (Operation) above. However, the Company reserves the right to withhold or discontinue such benefits, where, in its opinion, the employee no longer requires such protection or the partial disability is unlikely to prove temporary.

2. This agreement will apply to all employees who are required to work on an eighteen (18) - twenty-one (21) shift schedule.
3. Employees will work either twelve (12) hour shifts, or a combination of eight (8) and twelve (12) hour shifts, on a continuous shift rotation, as shown on the attached schedule. The shift pattern will start at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday and end at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday.
4. Withdrawal from this shift pattern will require a minimum notice period of four (4) weeks. If such withdrawal does not occur at the end of a rotational cycle, any bonus payments will be pro-rated for the period worked.
5. Payment for the twelve (12) hour shift pattern will be as follows:
 - a) Regular Time
 - All hours worked as part of the regular six (6) day or eighteen (18) shift schedule {four (4) or five (5) crew} will be paid at the rate of forty-two(42) hours per week.

- With mutual agreement, a department may opt for a five (5), six (6) or seven (7) crew rotation with a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote. In which case, the payment for the five (5) day, eight (8) hour/day portions of the six (6) or seven (7) crew rotations would be paid at forty and one-half (40.5) hours/week.

6. a) Employees will not be scheduled to work more than one (1) off-day per calendar week until all available employees have been scheduled to work at least one (1) off-day. If all available employees have worked at least one (1) off-day, and an employee is scheduled by the Company to work a 2nd off-day, that day will be voluntary.

It should be understood, however, that all Sundays and Public/Selected Holidays scheduled within the parameters outlined in item #9 and #16 will be considered mandatory

- b) Employees agreeing to work another employee's overtime must understand that they will only receive payment equivalent to the original employee's entitlement.

- b) Should employees be required to work on those Holidays, they will be scheduled, at least one (1) week in advance, according to the normal shift rotation, and the hours worked will be considered overtime. Failure to give appropriate notice will result in the overtime being voluntary. The first shift to be worked in this instance will be the "D" shift and employees who are scheduled will have the option of finding a suitable replacement.
- c) Employees, whose shift rotation schedule includes one of the twelve (12) hour overtime shifts and they are required to work, will be paid their regular base pay, plus double time for the time worked on the Holiday. - d) Employees scheduled to begin work at 6:30 p.m. on those Holidays will be paid double time for the first four (4) hours of the shift, and will not be entitled to Lieu time. These four (4) hours would be scheduled in the same manner as overtime.
- e) If the scheduled employee gives the overtime away, their regular base pay will not be affected, but they will not be entitled to a lieu day. The employee working the overtime, in this instance, will receive twelve (12) hours at double time, eight (8) hours Holiday pay, and one Lieu Day, in accordance with the Lieu Day Agreement.

- b) Sick pay for a block of three (3) - twelve (12) hour shifts will be forty-two (42) hours, provided the employee has no waiting period. 10. Lieu Days

Lieu days will be managed according to the existing agreement between the parties.

- b) No employee works more than twelve (12) consecutive hours, or more than sixty (60) hours in a week as a result of the switch.
- c) Any employee who is switching shifts, and who has worked twelve hours, has had at least twelve (12) hours off between shifts.
- d) There is no additional cost to the Company as a result of the switch.
- e) If the switched shift is to be paid back, the pay-back shift must be indicated at the time the switch is requested.
- f) Should the employee owing the shift be absent on the pay-back shift, the right to switch shifts will be withdrawn for a minimum of three (3) months. Once the right is reinstated, a second occurrence would result in withdrawal of the right indefinitely.

13. Coverage Regulations

Each Department will develop guidelines for the provision of coverage for scheduled and unscheduled absences, understanding that, in every instance, the requirement for overtime is at Management's discretion. In the absence of department specific guidelines, the following will apply:

 - For scheduled overtime, if required, employees will be scheduled from the volunteer list, on the basis of low hours, to a maximum of one off day per off-period. Should there be insufficient volunteers, employees will be scheduled, on the basis of low hours, to a maximum of one off-day per calendar week.
 - For unscheduled vacancies, volunteers will only be required to work one off-day in any off-period, unless the Area Management is unable to contact an employee who has not worked.

14. Scheduled Overtime

- a) Notice for scheduled overtime must be posted a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours prior to the end of the employee's last shift in that work period.
- b) In the event it becomes necessary to schedule work Sunday, the "N" shift will be the responsibility of the operator who worked the Saturday "N" shift, and the "D" shift will be the responsibility of the operator scheduled for "D" shift on Monday.
- c) The first overtime shift that will be scheduled on this pattern will be Sunday "D" shift.
- d) In all cases, employees have the option of giving overtime away to a suitable replacement, provided overtime limits are not exceeded.

15. Unscheduled Overtime

- a) There will be a volunteer list of employees who wish to be considered available for overtime on their off-days. The list will be finalized on Tuesday day shift and will be in effect for the designated four (4) week cycle, beginning at 6:30 p.m., Saturday.
- b) When suitable replacements are unavailable without involving overtime, unscheduled vacancies will be filled using the volunteer list. Volunteers will be called or scheduled beginning with the lowest year-to-date overtime hours.

- c) In the event that insufficient volunteers are available, employees will be scheduled beginning with the lowest year-to-date overtime hours.
 - d) In any event, employees will not be permitted to work more than sixty (60) hours in a calendar week, or more than twelve (12) hours in a day, except in the case of emergency.
 - e) In the event an unscheduled vacancy arises near the end of a shift, an employee may be asked to stay for one (1) hour while arrangements are being made to provide coverage, however, coverage beyond the one (1) hour will only be required for an emergency as defined in Article I, Clause 21.
16. Employees not holding posted positions in the department (Resource Group, SLG), who are required to work this shift pattern, will be assigned for a minimum of two (2) weeks.
17. Disputes should be resolved through discussions within the department which could result in suggested modifications or amendments to the agreement. Those suggested modifications or amendments would have to be approved by both parties to be implemented.

This agreement shall be in force until either party chooses to withdraw in the appropriate manner.

SCHEDULE "G"

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

RE: OVERTIME ALLOCATION

1. GENERAL

1. The decision regarding the necessity to cover a vacancy, in any circumstance, shall rest with the Company.
2. The applicable sections of the Employment Standards Act, with respect to hours of work, allowable overtime, limits, and emergencies, must be adhered to at all times.
3. For the purpose of this understanding, it is agreed that the allowable hours on a weekly basis will be sixty (60) hours worked. (sick days, vacation days less than a week, and overtime hours which are given away will be considered as worked)
4. It is understood that there is a mutual responsibility between the Union, Company, and the employee to adhere to the weekly limits.
5. If the scheduled overtime requirements in any week, for a particular employee, exceed the allowable limits, the qualified employee with the second lowest cumulative overtime hours shall be responsible for the hours which exceed the limits. It is also understood that an employee must be able to complete the entire requirement, or the next lowest employee will be scheduled.
6. This understanding represents the only interpretation of overtime allocation, and no departmental agreements or understandings will be allowed. The only exception will be provisions embodied within seven day shift pattern agreements which have been approved by both parties.
7. Employees and Area Managers in any department shall share the responsibility for ensuring that all overtime is allocated in accordance with this understanding.

8. The cumulative overtime hours list shall be based on the previous week's payroll record, plus any hours which have been given to a suitable replacement. This list shall be posted in each department by 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday of each week, and will apply to all overtime which is to be allocated during the following Saturday "A" shift to Friday "C" shift, inclusive.
9. In the event an employee gives their assigned overtime to an approved suitable replacement, both employees will be charged with the assigned hours for the purposes of the cumulative overtime hours list. Mutual switches of overtime hours within the same calendar day will not be double charged.
10. Cumulative overtime hours will be considered to be plantwide. This means that an employee will carry his/her own hours at all times, including mutual switches and department to department.
11. Provided the cumulative hours list and the overtime requirements are posted within the specified time limits, overtime allocations, which are unchallenged by 12:00 p.m. on the regular day (Mon. - Fri.) prior to the requirement, will be considered to be correct.
12. Overtime allocations which are challenged within the time limits, are not corrected, and subsequently found to be in error, will be paid.
13. In the case of Tradespeople, a tradesperson will have the right to work the overtime required to complete work which is in progress, provided the overtime is a continuation of the shift on which the work began. Tradesperson will not have the right to complete work which continues beyond the allowable hour limits on any given day.
14. Where two or more employees have equal cumulative overtime hours, overtime will be assigned to the senior of those employees.

2. SCHEDULED WEEKEND OR HOLIDAY OVERTIME

1. The requirement for weekend or holiday overtime will be posted at least thirty-six (36) regular hours in advance of the requirement, stating the expected number of hours, the expected shifts, and the required crewing.
2. Failure to post overtime requirements within the time limits will result in the overtime being considered voluntary, with suitable volunteers being solicited from the shift required on the basis of lowest cumulative overtime hours. Should insufficient volunteers be obtained from the shift, suitable volunteers may be solicited from the department, then plantwide, on the basis of availability and lowest cumulative hours.
3. Overtime work will be scheduled for the first available shift, wherever possible, however, circumstances may require overtime to be scheduled otherwise, at the Company's discretion.
4. Employees will be scheduled, for overtime requirements, on their normal shift rotation the basis of their suitability for the required work, and the lowest cumulative overtime hours. In areas where more than one employee, on the same shift, has the same skill level, the overtime shall be the responsibility of the employee at that skill level with the lowest cumulative overtime hours.
5. Normally the employee with the lowest cumulative overtime hours will be scheduled for the first available overtime hours which will bring their weekly hours to sixty. However, when an employee is scheduled for Saturday overtime which will bring his/her weekly hours to sixty, any overtime requirement arising after the weekend schedule is posted will be allocated to the next lowest employee, provided that employee's total hours will not exceed sixty as a result.
6. Employees always have the option of soliciting a suitable replacement for any overtime work.
7. To be eligible for weekend overtime, or Public Holidays which occur during the Tuesday - Friday period, an employee must have worked the regular day preceding the requirement. The only exceptions to this condition are Union Business, or attendance at pre-approved Company business.

8. If an employee is off on a Friday, he/she will not be eligible for Saturday overtime and, to be eligible for Sunday overtime, or Holidays which continue from the Sunday (e.g. Xmas week, May 24, Labour day, etc.), the employee must inform the Company of their availability prior to 12:00 p.m. on the preceding Friday. In addition, the employee must not be scheduled for vacation on the day immediately following the overtime requirement.
9. An employee will be responsible for the overtime requirements on the Saturday at the beginning of their vacation period, but will only be eligible for the overtime on the Sunday, or Holidays which continue from the Sunday (as in #8) of the week following their vacation, provided they have made suitable arrangements with their Area Manager prior to the start of their vacation period.
10. Should an employee be on vacation for the latter portion of the week, including Friday, he/she will only be eligible for the Sunday overtime requirements if they have informed their Area Manager of their availability by the end of their last shift prior to the overtime being posted.
11. Should an employee fail to attend work for a scheduled overtime shift, the resulting vacancy will be filled using the criteria for unscheduled vacancies in the Collective Agreement.
12. The Saturday "C" shift of the Continental Shift Pattern will be scheduled according to the these guidelines.
13. Should scheduled weekend or Holiday overtime be cancelled for any reason, it will be the responsibility of the Area Manager to notify the scheduled employees of the cancellation.
 - (a) If twenty-four (24), or more, hours notice of cancellation is given, scheduled employees will not attend work and will receive no compensation.
 - (b) If less than twenty-four (24) hours notice is given, the employee will be given the option of attending work of the scheduled hours and alternative duties will
