ARTICLE 1Intent

- 1.1 It is the purpose of this Agreement, in recognizing a common interest between the Company and the Union in promoting the utmost co-operation and friendly spirit between the Company and its employees, to set forth conditions covering rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment to be observed between the parties and to provide a procedure for prompt and equitable adjustment of grievances. To this end, this agreement is signed in good faith by the two Parties.

ARTICLE 2Bargaining Unit

- 2.1 The Company recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees in the bargaining unit as defined by the Canada Labour Relations Board decision dated February 28, 1979 certifying the CKVU Employees' Association as amended from time to time or as altered by agreement between the parties.

ARTICLE 3Management Rights

- 3.1 The Company shall retain sole and exclusive jurisdiction and control over all matters not expressly limited by the clear and explicit language of this Agreement. Such matters shall include but in no respect be limited to the following:

- (a) the right of the Company to hire, promote, transfer, demote and lay off employees, and to suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline employees for just cause, subject to the right of any employee to lodge a grievance in the manner and to the extent as herein provided;
- (b) the right of the Company to operate and manage or discontinue its operation in all respects, and to maintain and improve order and efficiency in its facilities, and to determine the scheduling of its production; and
- (c) the Company has the right to make, alter and enforce reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by employees including regulations arising from legislation provided that the rules and regulations are not in conflict with this Collective Agreement.

The functions of management as herein set out shall be exercised at the sole discretion of the Company from time to time but always in a manner which shall not violate the terms of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 4
Employee Definition

- 4.1 The term "employee" as used in this Agreement shall mean any person included within the bargaining unit referred to in Article 2.1.
- 4.1.1 All employees covered by this Agreement shall be considered full-time employees of the Company except as hereinafter provided.
- 4.2 Whenever in the wording of this Agreement the masculine gender is used, it shall be understood to include the feminine gender.
- 4.3 "Employee" shall include any person employed in any job classification created in the future which the parties by mutual consent decide to include within the bargaining unit. Where mutual consent is not reached, such failure shall not become a subject for grievance under this Agreement, but may be referred by either party to the Canada Labour Relations Board. Such person shall be included within the bargaining unit until the Canada Labour Relations Board rules on the referred matter.
- 4.4 The Company will give the Union, in writing, the proposed job description and proposed salary level where:
- (a) the company wishes to create a new job classification within the bargaining unit; or

- (b) the Canada Labour Relations Board determines that a new job classification, referred to it in accordance with Section 4.3, and included within the bargaining unit.

Failing agreement on the appropriateness of the new classification or on the salary level, either party may refer the matter to an arbitrator named in this Agreement. The arbitrator shall have the authority of an interest arbitrator and shall make a final determination of the matter, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement that otherwise would limit the arbitrator's authority.

ARTICLE 5

- 5.1 All employees covered by this Agreement shall be considered full-time employees of the Company except as provided herein.
- 5.2 A part-time employee is defined as one hired on a regular basis to work a limited shift but less than thirty-two (32) hours per week. Such employees shall be paid on an hourly basis at a rate equal to 1/173rd of the monthly salary of the wage group to which the employee is assigned. Where a part-time employee performs work of a temporary nature as defined in Article 5.3 such hours worked shall be excluded from the thirty-two (32) hours per week limit.

- 5.2.1 Part-time employees shall receive credit on the salary scale of the group to which they are assigned for the total accumulated hours from the initial date of hiring, calculated to the last completed month.
- 5.2.2 All Articles of this Agreement shall apply to part-time employees except as hereinafter provided:
- (a) Article 14 - Company seniority shall be calculated separately for part-time employees as distinct from full-time employees. The provisions in respect of lay-offs and recall are not applicable.
 - (b) Article 17 - Technological change.
 - (c) Article 23 - General holidays - part-time employees shall be paid one and one-half (1½) times their basic rate for all hours worked on a holiday with a minimum credit of four (4) hours. The foregoing shall not apply where such circumstances would result in the full-time employee being required to work more than five (5) days in any work week.

5.5. Job sharing shall be defined as an arrangement whereby two employees are allowed to split one full-time job. The two employees would normally be in the same salary group.

- 5.5.1 Upon the request of an employee, the Company may establish a job sharing arrangement, provided that job sharing shall not result in the elimination of a full-time job, result in the lay off or downgrading of any employee, be used to avoid replacing a full-time employee, or affect the long term scope of the bargaining unit. The decision to approve or deny a job sharing request by an employee is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company. The Company however in exercising such discretion shall do so in a bona fide and non-discriminatory manner.

- (c) Sick leave and vacation leave benefits shall be pro-rated according to the number of hours worked.

- (d) General holidays shall be in accordance with Article 5.2.2(c) of the Collective Agreement.
