Both parties agree that a grievance shall not be processed unless the employee concerned has given a reasonable opportunity to the Branch Manager or the Service Manager, if she is not available, to adjust matters which may be the subject of complaint. The employee may, if she so desires, request the presence of her Union Steward. Where the Union Steward is the employee complaining, she may, if she so desires, request the presence of another employee.

Similarly, the Union may submit a grievance which directly affects the interest of the Union as a party to the Collective Agreement; it being understood that such a grievance shall not deal with matters which are properly the subject of an individual employee grievance under sections 2, 3, 4 and 5. The grievance shall be filed at Step No. 2 of the grievance procedure within twenty-five (25) working days from the date upon which the incident or circumstances giving rise to the grievance first occurred or arose in the form specified in Step No. 1 of the grievance procedure, such form to be signed by the Union and the Union Steward. The Bank shall reply giving its decision within thirty (30) working days of receipt of the grievance.

8. Where it is necessary at any step of the grievance procedure to present a grievance by mail, the grievance shall be sent in a traceable manner unless the parties otherwise acknowledge receipt. The grievance shall be deemed to be presented on the date it is registered and deemed to be received on the date of delivery to the appropriate representative of the recipient party. Similarly, a party shall be deemed to have presented a reply at any level on the date it is registered and shall be deemed to have received the reply on the date it is delivered to the appropriate representative of the recipient party. Where it is preferred and available, the Bank's internal mail courier system may be substituted.
9. All references to working days in this Article mean Monday to Friday inclusive and shall be calculated to exclude Saturday, Sunday and general holidays as designated in this Collective Agreement.
10. By mutual agreement of the Bank and the Union, the time limits may be extended. Such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld where there are reasonable grounds for the extension and the party consenting to the extension will not be prejudiced by it. In accordance with the above an Arbitrator will have the right to extend any of the time limits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that in no case shall there be an extension of the time limit set out in Step No. 1 for the presentation of a grievance beyond thirty (30) working days from the date upon which the incident or circumstances first occurred or arose.

ARTICLE 12: Arbitration Procedure

1. Where a grievance has proceeded through all of the requisite steps of the Grievance Procedure and has not been satisfactorily resolved, either party may refer the matter to arbitration. The party wishing to submit the matter to arbitration shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party to this Collective Agreement. This request shall be presented within thirty (30) working days after receipt of the reply at Step No. 3 of the Grievance Procedure or pursuant to section 6 of the Grievance Procedure.
2. The request shall contain the name of that party's nominee to the Board of Arbitration. The two (2) nominees shall within fifteen (15) working days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third party who shall be the Chairman of the Board of Arbitration. If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint a nominee, or if the two (2) nominees fail to agree upon the Chairman within the time limits prescribed herein, the appointment shall be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Canada Labour Code. Where it is agreed to by both parties, a sole Arbitrator will be appointed.
3. No person may be appointed as a nominee or a Chairman to a Board of Arbitration who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
4. The Board of Arbitration shall not have any authority to alter or change any of the provisions of this Collective Agreement or to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, or to give any decision contrary to the terms and conditions of this Collective Agreement or in any way to modify, add to or detract from any provision of this Collective Agreement, or to provide a remedy applicable to more than ten (10) working days prior to the date of filing.
5. The Board of Arbitration shall hear and determine the grievance, including any question as to whether the grievance is arbitrable, and shall issue a decision. All decisions arrived at by the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding upon the Bank, the Union and the employee or employees concerned. The decision of a majority is the decision of the Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairman governs.

6. In determining any discharge or suspension grievance, the Board of Arbitration shall have the authority to:
 - (a) confirm the Bank's action and dismiss the grievance;
 - (b) reinstate the employee with or without compensation for wages lost; or
 - (c) vary, alter or set aside the penalty imposed by the Bank, or make such other determination as the Board of Arbitration, in its discretion, may deem justified.
7. In determining compensation the Board of Arbitration shall award such compensation based on the employee's regular salary based on the number of normal hours of work the employee otherwise would have worked less any monies earned or attributable to the employee or any Unemployment Insurance or Workmen's Compensation received or receivable by the employee in respect of the period of discharge.
8. Each of the parties to this Collective Agreement will pay the fees and disbursements of its nominee to the Board of Arbitration, and will share equally the fees and disbursements of the Chairman.
9. Except where a Board of Arbitration has declined jurisdiction, no employee will take any action to a court without having first exhausted the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures.
10. If the grievance is not processed in accordance with the prescribed time limits in this Article, the grievance shall be deemed to be settled on the basis of the last decision given or to be withdrawn. However, by mutual agreement of the Bank and the Union the time limits may be extended. Such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld where there are reasonable grounds for the extension and the party consenting to the extension will not be prejudiced by it.

11. If the request for the submission to arbitration or the names of nominees are presented by mail, they shall be registered. The document shall be deemed to be presented on the date it is registered and shall be deemed to be received on the date it is delivered to the appropriate representative of the recipient party.

12. All reference to working days in this Article means Monday to Friday inclusive and shall be calculated to exclude Saturday, Sunday and general holidays as designated in this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 13: General Holidays

5. When a general holiday or a day substituted therefor falls during the vacation period of an employee who qualifies for a paid holiday in accordance with section 3, the employee shall be paid on the following basis:

Such additional day off shall be paid at the employee's regular rate of wages for her normal hours of work for that day.
 - (ii) where the employee was not entitled to wages for at least twelve (12) days during the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the general holiday, she shall receive one-twentieth (1/20) of the regular wages earned by her for her normal hours of work during the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the general holiday.
6. When a general holiday or a day substituted therefor falls on the regularly scheduled day off of an employee who qualifies for a paid holiday in accordance with section 3, the employee shall be paid on the following basis:
- (i) where the employee was entitled to wages for at least twelve (12) days during the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the general holiday, she shall either receive an average day's wages for the holiday or receive an additional day off in lieu thereof. Alternatively, the additional day off in lieu shall be paid at the employee's regular rate of wages for her normal hours of work for that day. Such additional day off in lieu shall be at a time designated by the Bank having regard to its operational requirements after consultation with the employee involved.
 - (ii) where the employee was not entitled to wages for at least twelve (12) days during the thirty calendar days immediately preceding the general holiday, she shall receive one-twentieth (1/20) of the regular wages earned by her for her normal hours of work during the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the general holiday.

2. When the Bank has determined that there is a vacancy within the bargaining unit which is to be filled, the Bank agrees that notice of the vacancy will be placed on the bulletin board in the Bank in which the vacancy occurs for a period of five (5) working days. This notice shall contain the title of the job, a brief description of the job, a general indication of the skills, abilities and qualifications required for the job, the date on which the applicant must be available to assume the position, the deadline for submission of applications and shall designate the person to whom applications must be submitted. This notice shall state that eligible employees interested in being considered for this or such other vacancies, that may become available as a result of filling the posted vacancy, shall indicate their interest within the notice period. The written application need only contain a statement of desire to be considered for the vacant position.
3. Interested employees who have declared their interest by applying to the Branch Manager in writing for a job assignment, within the bargaining unit, will be considered.
4. In order to be eligible for consideration for an assignment to a vacancy in another job classification within the bargaining unit, the employee must be available as required during the period of consideration and available to commence work in the classified job on the date on which the Bank determines that it requires the employee to be available; where the employee is not at work at the time of consideration of candidates, the Bank must have been informed of such availability in writing prior to such consideration and of where the employee can be reached during the period in which she is not at work. Where the vacancy will result in a demotion the employee must request such demotion, in writing, to the Manager.
5. When a vacancy is to be filled, the Bank agrees to advise the recorded applicants who are eligible for consideration of the position requirements and that they are being considered for the vacancy.

6. The Bank will make its selection based on section 11.
7. The Bank will advise the recorded applicants who were eligible for consideration of the successful candidate, if any.
8. 9. Employees who are on Child Care Leave will be considered as active, if they give indication of their desire to be considered for Job vacancies. Interested employees must declare their interest as per sections 4,5,6, 7, and 8 of this Article.
10. Where extenuating circumstances exist, the Bank and the Union may agree to waive the notice of a vacancy to accommodate lateral transfers within the unit; such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.
11. For the purpose of this article, the following factors shall be included in the consideration for an employee's assignment to a vacancy in a job classification within the bargaining unit:
 - (i) present skill, ability and qualifications;
 - (ii) seniority;
 - (iii) employment record; and
 - (iv) the employee must be actively employed.

Where these factors are relatively equal, seniority shall govern.

12. Vacancies of short duration and vacancies resulting from absenteeism, illness, injury, vacation, leave of absence, maternity leave and so on will be considered as temporary. Such temporary vacancies will be filled at the discretion of the Bank.

- (iii) Call-ins will be filled when a part-time employee is not otherwise at work.
- (iv) Call-ins will be filled by contacting up to two employees on the Manager's list on a seniority basis.

13. This article shall not prevent the Bank from filling vacancies where employees have not declared their interest or where they fail to meet the requirements of the vacancy.

ARTICLE 20: Acting Allowance

1. Where an employee is selected to fill a temporary vacancy within the bargaining unit and where the temporary vacancy is in a higher job classification than the employee's current job classification, the employee shall receive an acting allowance provided she:

2. Pursuant to section 1, the acting allowance is payable from the eighteenth (18th) continuous working day in the higher job classification to the completion of the temporary assignment.
3. When a subsequent temporary vacancy occurs and the employee fills the temporary vacancy pursuant to Section 1 for six (6) or more continuous working days and the employee has received an Acting Allowance pursuant to Section 1 for filling that same job within the preceding twelve (12) months, the allowance shall be paid retroactive to the first working day of the subsequent temporary vacancy in the same job.
4. The acting allowance will be an allowance calculated on a pro-rata basis relative to what the employee's promotional increase would be for the higher classified job. This allowance will not be considered a part of the employee's salary.
5. Acting allowance will be paid on the appropriate pay period.

6. Pursuant to Sections 1, 2 and 3, an employee will be paid the appropriate acting allowance subject to Article 13, 14 and 17, section 1.

2. The Bank agrees that it will not transfer or hire new employees providing there are presently qualified employees among the employees remaining on lay-off in accordance with Article 18, section 4 (f), and in accordance with Article 19, sections 10 (i), (ii), and (iii) to do the work available.
3. The reasons for the lay-off shall be communicated to the Union Steward.
4. During a temporary reduction or lay-off, the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of this Article will be waived for a period not exceeding ten (10) working days.

ARTICLE 22: Technological Change and Retraining

1. The Bank agrees that it will provide the Union with as much notice as possible but not less than one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days' notice prior to the introduction of automated equipment or significant change in administrative procedures substantially different in nature or kind than that previously used which will result in the reduction of a significant number of employees in the bargaining unit.

2. (a) In the event that the Bank introduces automated equipment which requires retraining, sufficient affected employee(s) shall be retrained to operate this equipment where the employee(s) has the capacity, experience and educational qualifications to be able to operate fully the equipment after a reasonable training period; or

(b) Where the employee(s) due to the introduction of automated equipment is not retrained or does not satisfactorily complete retraining for any reason, the Bank agrees to meet with the affected employee(s) and when the employee(s) wishes, she may be accompanied by a Union representative to discuss practical ways and means of minimizing the adverse effect on these employees including relocation, transfer, counseling or other such measures as may be advisable.

3. An employee(s) whose position is reclassified downward due to the introduction of automated equipment will, following such reclassification, be paid in accordance with her new job classification and where her present salary exceeds the maximum salary paid in that new job classification, her salary shall not be reduced.

2. The normal workweek is not intended to be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week or days of work per week or of working schedules.
3. Employees shall be paid time and one-half their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours per week or for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on any day during the week. Overtime shall be paid on the basis of completed one-quarter (1/4) hour units.
4. Overtime must be authorized in advance by the Branch Manager or her designated representative. The Bank shall determine when overtime shall be worked. The Bank shall give as much advance notice as practicable to employees required to work overtime.
5. An employee who is eligible to be paid for a general holiday pursuant to Article 13, General Holidays, and who works on a general holiday shall be paid the employee's regular rate of wages for her normal hours of work for the day, pursuant to Article 13, and in addition shall receive a premium payment for all hours worked on that day at the rate of time and one-half the employee's regular rate of pay. For the purpose of calculating overtime payment, the normal work week of thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours shall be reduced by seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours for each day not worked because of a general holiday. There shall be no pyramiding of overtime and/or any other premium payment.
6. The Bank will make one fifteen (15) minute period available in the morning and one fifteen (15) minute period available in the afternoon during each workday during which employees may avail themselves of refreshments.

ARTICLE 24: Insured Benefit Plans

1. The Union and eligible employees shall be provided with the most recent copy of the Bank's benefits program booklet. Eligible employees will be entitled to participate in the benefits program under the terms contained in that document.
2. The Bank and the Union agree that any revisions to, and/or deletions from, and/or additions to the benefit program made by the Bank during the term of this Agreement shall apply to eligible employees covered by this Agreement at the same time as other eligible employees of the Bank outside the bargaining unit.
3. The parties agree that all matters regarding the provisions of the policies of insurance shall be determined solely by the insurers and such determination shall not be the subject of a grievance.
4. At the request of either the Union or the Bank, and with the consent of the employee, the parties shall meet to discuss the insurance claim of the bargaining unit employee.

ARTICLE 25: Vacations With Pay

1. Employees covered by this Collective Agreement are entitled to one (1) vacation entitlement for every year of employment calculated on a calendar year basis. The vacation entitlement will be prorated for the year the employee is hired by the Bank. Employees may take their first year's vacation entitlement after three (3) months' service.

2. Full-time employees covered by this Agreement shall be entitled to vacations on the following basis:

Length of Service	Vacation Entitlement
Year Hired	Prorated based on 2 weeks entitlement
Two (2) years but less than three (3) years	2 weeks + 1 day
Three (3) years but less than five (5) years	3 weeks
Five (5) years but less than ten (10) years	3 weeks + 1 day
Ten (10) years but less than twenty (20) years	4 weeks
Twenty (20) years and up	5 weeks

3. Employees shall be paid their regular rate of pay for their normal hours of work per day for the length of the vacation period, provided that the amount of vacation pay equals or exceeds the following percentages of all earnings during the year of employment.

Total Years of Employment	Minimum Vacation Pay
Less than 6 years	4%
6 years or more	6%

Vacation pay entitlements to terminating employees are to be based on their normal vacation entitlement between May 1st and October 31st.

Upon termination, an employee shall be paid vacation pay on the basis of the above-mentioned percentage of gross earnings then owing in respect of any prior completed year of employment and either vacation pay based on total earnings since the last calendar year of employment if no vacation has been taken during the current vacation year, or where a portion of the vacation applicable to the current vacation year has been taken, a payment must equal the difference between vacation pay and the value of vacation time taken. Vacation pay received for unearned vacation may be recovered by the Bank at the time the employment terminates.

4. Vacations will as far as practical, be granted at times most desired by employees, but the final decision to allot vacation periods and to change such allotments is exclusively reserved to the Branch Manager or designated representative in order to ensure the orderly and efficient operation of the branch and the maintenance of a work force sufficient to do the necessary work. In the event of a disagreement in the allotment of vacation schedules, the manager will meet with the employee and the union steward in an attempt to resolve the issue. Each year's vacation entitlement must be completed separately and may not be added to a subsequent year's entitlement. Intervals between vacations should not be less than nine (9) months and not more than fifteen (15) months. Where circumstances require the interval between vacation entitlements to exceed fifteen (15) months, authorization must be obtained from Regional Office.
5. The Branch Manager shall prepare a vacation schedule for all employees in January each year. This may be reviewed and updated as required until all vacations have been completed. Employees may divide their vacation into more than one (1) period at the discretion of the Branch Manager or her designated representative. Where operational requirements permit and subject to the Manager's approval, up to five (5) days of vacation may be taken as individual days.
6. Part-time employees covered by this Collective Agreement shall receive the equivalent vacation entitlement to the full-time employees on a pro rata basis depending on the number of days per week on which the employee regularly works.

7. In determining length of service for vacation purposes, service with The Bank of Nova Scotia prior to the present term of employment shall be included. Previous years of regular part-time service with The Bank of Nova Scotia shall be fully included, regardless of the number of days worked per week during the previous years of service. However, three (3) full months' service must be completed in the Bank during the present term of employment before vacation may be taken.

ARTICLE 26: Duration of Agreement

1. The term of this Agreement is January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010.
2. This Collective Agreement shall become effective from the 21st day of January, 2010 and shall be binding and remain in effect until the 31st day of December, 2010, and shall be continued from year to year thereafter unless either party gives to the other notice in writing within the period of ninety (90) calendar days immediately preceding the expiry date of the Collective Agreement or any anniversary date in the event of any subsequent yearly extension of the contract that it desires to terminate, amend or revise the provisions of the Collective Agreement.
3. Where notice is given pursuant to section 2 above, the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall continue in force until a new Collective Agreement is signed or the right to strike or lock-out accrues, whichever first occurs.
4. Notwithstanding section 2 above, salaries shall be adjusted retroactively in accordance with the agreement of the parties for those employees in the bargaining unit on the 1st day of January.
5. The parties agree that they will attempt to meet no later than four (4) weeks after written notice is given.
