1.04

Information

The Council agrees to supply each employee with a copy of the Agreement and every amendment thereto.

For such an employee who, on the date of the termination of his employment is a part-time employee, the weekly rate of pay referred to in Article 23 shall be the weekly rate of pay that the employee is being paid on termination, adjusted to the full-time weekly rate;
- (e) a part-time employee shall not be paid for the designated holidays but shall, instead, be paid a premium of four point two (4.2) per cent for all straight-time hours during the period of part-time employment;

when a part-time employee is required to work on a day which is prescribed as a designated paid holiday for a full-time employee in clause 16.01 of this agreement, the employee shall be paid time and one-half (1 1/2) the hourly rate of pay for all hours worked.

Only at the final level will the Professional Institute be obliged to request such consultation by letter.

Time Limits

An employee may present a grievance to the first level of the grievance procedure in the manner prescribed in clause 9.20, not later than the twenty-fifth (25th) day after the date on which the employee is notified orally or in writing or on which the employee first had good reason to be aware of the action or circumstance giving rise to such grievance.

When the Council, as a result of disciplinary action, discharges an employee, the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement shall apply except that

- (a) the grievance may be presented at the final level only, subject to mutual consent as stated in clause 9.17;

In determining the time within which any action is to be taken as prescribed in this procedure, Saturdays, Sundays, and designated holidays shall be excluded.

9.13

The time limits stipulated in this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Council, the grievor, and where appropriate, the Professional Institute representative.

9.14

Abandonment of Grievance

An employee may abandon a grievance by written notice to the designated officer of the Council responsible to reply on behalf of the Council at level one (1) of the grievance procedure.

9.15

An employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance, unless the Council after consultation with the grievor's representative is of the opinion that the employee was unable for reasons beyond the employee's control to comply with the prescribed time limits.

9.16

Procedure

The Council shall designate a representative authorized to reply on the Council's behalf at each level in the grievance procedure and shall inform each employee to whom the procedure applies of the name or title of the person so designated together with the name or title and address of the person to whom a grievance is to be presented in accordance with the Council's grievance procedure. This information shall be communicated to employees by means of notices posted by the Council in places where such notices are most likely to come to the attention of the employees to whom the grievance procedure applies.

All levels in the grievance procedure except the final level may be bypassed by the mutual consent of the Council, the employee and, when applicable, the grievor's representative.

- (b) when the employee does not receive a decision within fifteen (15) days, the grievor may present the grievance for consideration at the next higher level within fifteen (15) days after the last day the grievor was entitled to receive a reply but shall not be entitled to do so after the said fifteen (15) days have elapsed.

9.19

When it is necessary for the employee to present a grievance by mail, the grievance shall be deemed to have been presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to have been received by the Council on the day it is delivered to the appropriate office concerned. Similarly, the Council shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the letter containing the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present his grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Council's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form. In relation to this clause both the employee and the Council shall use registered mail.

9.20

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this grievance to the representative of the Council authorized to deal with grievances on the Council's behalf at level one in the grievance procedure who shall provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

9.21

A grievance of an employee shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Council.

9.22

Decisions

When the employee is represented by the Professional Institute in the presentation of a grievance, the Council shall provide the appropriate representative of the Professional Institute with a copy of the Council's decision at each level of the grievance procedure at the same time the Council's decision is conveyed to the employee.

- (b) An employee shall have the right to indicate on the document itself, agreement or disagreement with the contents of the adverse report.

The Council agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing subsequent to a disciplinary action, any document of which the employee was not aware at the time of the disciplinary action. The Council shall inspect the employee's personnel file at least once in each calendar year in the presence of a person authorized by the Council.

10.03

10.04

Any document or written statement related to disciplinary action, which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee, shall be destroyed after two (2) years have elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken, provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.

Career Development

ARTICLE 11 CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The parties to this Agreement recognize the importance of career development planning and professional development activities as key elements of NRC's commitment to employee learning and development. It is the responsibility of employees to develop realistic career and professional development plans and objectives. NRC will maintain a continuous learning environment to facilitate progress towards those objectives.

Education Leave

An employee may be granted education leave without pay to attend a recognized institution for additional or special studies in some field of education in which special preparation is needed to enable the employee to fill his/her present role more adequately, or to undertake studies in some field in order to provide a service which the Council requires or is planning to provide. The Council may curtail leave granted by this clause upon the receipt of a report of unsatisfactory progress from the institution which the employee attends during the period of education leave.

An employee on education leave under this clause shall receive allowances in lieu of salary equivalent to not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the employee's basic salary provided that where the employee receives a grant, bursary or scholarship, the education leave allowance may be reduced. In such cases the amount of the reduction shall not exceed the amount of the grant, bursary or scholarship.

Any allowance already being received by the employee and not part of the employee's basic salary shall not be used in the calculation of the education leave allowance.

- (d) Allowances already being received by the employee may, at the discretion of the Council, be continued during the period of the education leave and the employee shall be notified when the leave is approved whether such allowances are to be continued in whole or in part.
- (e) As a condition to the granting of education leave, an employee shall, if required, give a written undertaking prior to the commencement of the leave to return to the service of the Council for a period of not less than the period of the leave granted. If the employee, except with the permission of the Council;
 - (i) fails to complete the course,
 - (ii) does not resume employment with the Council on completion of the course, or

ceases to be employed before termination of the period undertaken to serve after completion of the course, the employee shall repay the Council all allowances paid under this clause during the education leave or such lesser sum as shall be determined by the Council.

Professional Development

- (a) The parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve professional standards by giving employees the opportunity, on occasion, to conduct research or to perform work related to their normal research programs in institutions or locations other than those of the Council. It is understood that budgetary constraints or operational requirements may limit the Council's ability to provide professional development opportunities to its employees.

- (b) An employee may apply at any time for professional development under this clause, and the Council may recommend an employee at any time for professional development.
- (c) When an employee is recommended by the Council for professional development under this clause, the Council will consult with the employee before determining the location and duration of the program of work or studies to be undertaken.

An employee who, with the approval of Council is granted a period of professional development, shall continue to receive his/her normal compensation including any increase for which the employee may become eligible except that an amount equal to any remuneration paid by the organization where the employee is pursuing professional development shall be deducted from the employee's salary.

- (e) An employee who proceeds on professional development under this clause at the request of the Council shall be reimbursed for reasonable travel expenses and such other additional expenses as the Council deems appropriate. An employee who proceeds on professional development under any other circumstances may be reimbursed for reasonable travel expenses and such other additional expenses as the Council deems appropriate.

ARTICLE 12 - CONFERENCES AND WORKSHOPS

The parties to this Agreement recognize that attendance at scientific conferences, workshops and other gatherings of a similar nature constitutes an integral part of the scientists' research activities and that attendance and participation in such gatherings is recognized as an element in the conduct of scientific research. An employee will be given as much notice as is practicable of approval or disapproval of a request for attendance at such gatherings.

ARTICLE 13 - HOURS OF WORK

13.01

The parties to this agreement recognize that the Council's established policy is to operate its laboratories in a flexible and adaptable manner consistent with a research environment. The parties will attempt to maintain a research environment which permits each employee to arrange his/her working hours to meet the needs of individual research programs.

13.02

Subject to leave provisions, employees who arrange their working hours pursuant to Clause 13.01 are required to work nineteen hundred and fifty (1950) hours in each calendar year.

13.03

Except for an employee in receipt of a Field Survey Allowance under Article 22 or an employee compensated under clause 13.07, an employee who is required by the Council to work on his/her day of rest or on a designated holiday, at other than his/her Council workplace, shall be compensated on the basis of one and one-half (1 1/2) hours' pay for each hour worked on the understanding that the employee will also receive his/her normal pay on a designated holiday. Compensation will be in the form of cash except that on request of the employee and at the discretion of the Council, compensation may be taken in the form of leave.

13.04 When an employee whose hours of work are arranged under clause 13.01 is called back to work by the Council at any time outside his/her normal working hours, such hours involved will form part of the nineteen hundred and fifty (1950) hours as stated in clause 13.02.

13.05 Where operational requirements do not permit the arrangement of work by an employee, the Council shall schedule the employee's regular hours of work.

13.06 Subject to clause 13.01 and operational requirements, the normal work week shall be thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours, the normal daily hours shall be seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours and an employee shall be granted two (2) consecutive days of rest during each seven (7) day period.

13.07 An employee whose hours of work are scheduled in accordance with clause 13.05, is entitled to overtime compensation for work performed outside of his/her scheduled hours on the following basis:

on a normal work day, at one and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee's hourly rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours per day;

on a first day of rest, at one and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee's hourly rate of pay for each hour worked;

on a second or subsequent day of rest, at two (2) times the employee's hourly rate of pay for each hour worked.

13.08

At the discretion of the employee, compensation earned under clause 13.07 may be taken in the form of compensatory leave at the appropriate overtime rate. Except that an employee, upon application in a manner prescribed by Council, leave be permitted to carry over not more than 30 days of compensatory leave earned by September 30 of each year. The total amount of compensatory leave credits the employee on the basis of one (1) hour's pay at the straight-time rate for each hour of compensatory leave credit so liquidated,

13.09

An employee shall not be eligible to earn overtime credits unless he/she is requested in advance by an authorized officer of the Council to work overtime. It shall be the Council's responsibility to determine the amount of overtime to be worked. In addition, it shall be the Council's responsibility to determine when overtime work shall be performed.

13.10

Overtime

An employee will claim overtime in the month following the month in which the overtime was worked, or as soon as practicable thereafter.

13.11

Employees will submit weekly attendance registers in the form prescribed by the Council.

ARTICLE 14 - TRAVELLING TIME
