SCHEDULE "C" - FUNCTIONS DEPARTMENT CASUAL EMPLOYEES (05)

1- Seniority

A casual employee will not be used to cover regular hours that could be scheduled into a regular shift for a period exceeding eight (8) continuous workweeks. A workweek shall be defined as constituting thirty (30) regular hours divided into five (5) days.

Following the period stated above, said position shall then be posted as a regular position and the successful applicant shall then be considered a regular employee entitled to all rights and benefits applicable to the regular employee.

Casual employees do not accumulate seniority and only their date of hire indicates priority for call-in, in their classification.

Casual employees will accrue in-service time for the purpose of bidding for regular positions in Schedule "A" based on one (1) day's service for each eight (8) hours worked.

Should a casual employee be appointed to a posted regular position as per Article 13 of this agreement, said employee will be granted seniority retroactive from the date of the appointment on the basis that forty (40) hours of work is equal to one (1) week of seniority. Provided they have completed sixty (60) service assignments, casual employees shall not undergo a probationary period as stated in Article 14.

2- Vacations and Statutory holidays

Casual employees shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the British Columbia Employment Standards Act when calculating Vacation and Statutory holiday pay and shall be paid out on each corresponding pay period.

3- Hours of service

Four (4) consecutive hours, exclusive of a meal period, shall constitute a function, i.e. breakfast, lunch or dinner shift. Employees requesting shorter shifts shall be required to sign out and will be paid only for hours worked.

4- Overtime

Casual employees shall be paid for authorized overtime on the actual minute basis as one and one-half (1 1/2) times the hourly base rate of pay for the first hour of overtime so worked. Overtime in excess of one (1) hour shall be paid for on the actual minute basis of two (2) times the hourly base rate of pay.

5- Rates of pay

The provisions contained in Schedule "A" shall apply during the term of Schedule "C", except that Article 14.3 will apply to casual employees.

6- Management Rights, Union Rights, and Grievance Procedure

Management rights, Union rights, and the grievance procedure shall be as defined previously in the collective agreement.

7- Probationary period

The probationary period for a new employee shall be up to sixty (60) service assignments. In accordance with present practice, work on any one day shall constitute an assignment.

8- Number of casual employees and availability

(05) Both parties agree that although the basis of casual employees of the current Collective Agreement is that they be used on an ad-hoc basis there exists the necessity to maintain some control over the amount of casual employees within the Hotel.

(05) As such, it is agreed that any casual employee who is not available for a period of four (4) consecutive months shall have their file closed and be deemed as terminated at that time.

Re: Culinary Department

1. The Company and the Union agree the following shall apply regarding the application of clauses 10.3, 12.2, 12.7 and 12.8 of the Collective Agreement.
2. The Company will determine staffing levels by classification based on the requirements of service. Based on the structure of the kitchen and requirements of service, the company will determine sections and/or areas of work. Should there be a change in the sections and/or areas, the company will inform the union.
3. It is the Company's intention to schedule a Chef de partie/Journey person on any hotline.
4. Where a Chef de partie cannot hold work of thirty (30) hours or greater within his classification, the parties agree he may accept the reduction of hours or lay-off or be scheduled in a Journey person shift, subject to clauses 10.3 and 12.2 with no loss of wages.
5. Subject to clauses 10.3 and 12.2 the application of clauses 12.7 and 12.8 shall first be exercised within the area/section of the Kitchen normally worked. Should the employee not be able to exercise clauses 12.7 or 12.8 within the kitchen area/section normally worked, clauses 12.7 or 12.8 may be exercised to another area/section subject to clauses 10.3 and 12.2.
6. The Company agrees to provide the necessary training/orientation to ensure no interruption of work or reduction of hours due to lack of training. The necessary training shall be provided during regular scheduled hours. Employees who have worked alternative areas/sections of the kitchen regularly and were assigned the full range of duties of the classification within the last six (6) months may request orientation but will not be required to be trained prior to scheduling.
7. Prior to October 15th of each year the Company will inform the Union of anticipated business volumes for the months of January, February and ~~March~~. Employees must advise the employer by November the 1st of their intention to exercise seniority to areas/sections of the kitchen not normally worked. The Company will determine the training requirements and training schedule. The Company may also limit the number of employees to be trained based on the requirements of service. Training opportunities shall be scheduled by seniority and limiting the number of employees to be trained will not prevent a senior employee from maintaining shifts and hours as per clauses 10.3 and 12.2.
8. The Company retains the right to schedule an employee subject to clauses 10.3 and 12.2 outside the regular area/section.
9. The Company will post a list of employees who are trained in the different sections/areas on October 1st and will update the list as employees are trained.

Re: On-call employee

"On-call employee" is a person working for occasional periods but not so employed for the purpose of depriving regular employees of their regular shifts.

Calling priority and seniority

On-call employees will not accumulate seniority but will be called on the basis of last date of hire. Failure to accept or report for an assignment on three (3) individual working days within a thirty (30) calendar day period, except when on authorized leave of absence, sickness, or other unavoidable reason, said employee shall move to the bottom of the on-call list based on completion of the next completed assignment.

Should an on-call employee apply and be selected for a posted position, the employee will change status to a regular and will be granted seniority based on forty (40) hours of work since last date of hire equals one (1) week of seniority. Depending on availability, the employee will be placed on the restricted or unrestricted list with a new date of seniority.

Posting of regular position

The use of on call employee must not prevent the posting of a regular position within a classification.

End of employment

On-call employees who have moved to the bottom of the on-call list, as stated above, on three (3) occasions or who are not working for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months shall have their file closed and their employment deemed to be terminated at that time.

Trial period

The parties agree the on-call status employees will be for a trial period of one (1) year from the signing of this agreement.

Re: Kitchen Standards

(05) It is understood and agreed that the opening and closing of all kitchen sections will only be performed by culinary employees holding journeyman tickets, with the exception of the staff cafeteria, tea servery, and the Bengal Lounge. It is understood and agreed that current employees; Lucy Kelly, Craig Legacy and Soso Wong will continue to perform opening and closing duties.

It is further agreed by the parties that the kitchen will maintain the current minimum staffing levels for the term of the Collective Agreement:

Chef de Partie	16

These levels and/or distribution must in no way be interpreted to limit, void or affect the other provisions of the Collective Agreement.

Re: Pam Sundher and Gian Nijjar

The Company has concluded that the Experience Activity Coordinator classification will not be required. These positions are occupied by Ms. Sundher and Ms. Nijjar under job security, and the parties agree, subject to ratification by the membership, that Ms. Sundher and Ms. Nijjar will have their classification re-named to Resort Reservations III, Group I, in the interest of continued job security. These positions will cease and be removed from the Schedule A classification list, as Ms. Sundher and Ms. Nijjar permanently vacate their positions. The pay rate for this classification will be red-circled at $17.45, until this pay rate matches that of Resort Reservations II. From that point on, all future adjustments will match those of Resort Reservations II. As the duties associated with dining reservations belong to the Resort Reservations II classification, these tasks will be shared in the everyday operation, however, there will be no new incumbents in the position of Resort Reservations III. Thus, the parties agree that should the position be temporarily vacated, Articles 4 and 13 and clause 10.20 will not apply, nor will the position of Resort Reservations III be effected by the application of clauses 12.7 and 12.8. Additional volumes in work and temporary vacancies will apply to the Resort Reservations II classification.

Eligibility of Coverage

Employees

You must be a permanent employee who, once qualified, is eligible for coverage under The Fairmont Empress plan.

Dependents

Eligible dependents may include your spouse or dependent children. They must live in Canada and they must be listed as dependents on your application for Group Coverage form in order to receive coverage.

Dependent Child is a natural child of you or your spouse, a stepchild or adopted child who is:

- Under age 21 (dependents are not covered if they are working more than 30 hours a week unless they are full-time students).
- Under age 25 and a full-time student.

Spouse is defined as a person who is:

- Legally married and living with you, or
- Living with you for at least one year in a conjugal relationship or until a child is born from the relationship.

Double Coverage

If you or your spouse has Dental & Vision coverage under any other plan, you may be able to recover your share of the costs from your other plan. After Great West Life has processed your claim, submit a claim form to your other insurer, with proof of your first reimbursement. Spouses should claim under their own plan first and then to The Fairmont Empress Plan.

If you have children covered under your plan and your spouse's plan, the children's claims are submitted first to the plan of the parent born earliest in the year and then to the other plan. For example if the mother's birthday is in May and father's birthday is in September, the child's claim should be submitted to the mother's plan first.

Effective Date of Coverage

You qualify for enrollment in Extended Health, Hospital, Vision Care, Basic Life Insurance, Accidental Death & Dismemberment and Short-Term Disability benefits on the first day of the fourth (4th) month of employment. In order to enroll once qualified, please visit the Human Resources Office to complete the necessary form (s).

Your Dental Care benefits become effective on the first day of the thirteenth (13th) month of full-time employment.

Coverage for your eligible dependents enrolled under the plan begins the same day as yours.

If you are away from work because of sickness or injury on the day your coverage is due to become effective, your coverage will be delayed until you return to work.
