The parties recognize and agree that the special nature of the hospitality industry dictates special and particular considerations in relation to the terms and conditions for the members of the Union employed by the Employer. These special and particular considerations are dictated by a need to ensure that the public will be attracted to the Employer's place of business and that the public will favorably view the standards of service provided by the Employer, to the mutual benefit of the Parties to this agreement.

ARTICLE 1

 - b) No employee shall be asked to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer covering hours of work, wages or conditions during the term of this Agreement.
 - c) Where the convenience of the Company or an employee can be enhanced, without the interest of either being generally impaired, special shifts may be mutually arranged between an employee, the Employer and a representative of the Union.
- 1.02 This Agreement shall cover all employees in the Restaurants except office employees, Managers, or Supervisors who exercise management functions.
- 1.03 Work customarily performed by the employees in the bargaining unit shall not be done by persons excluded from the scope and jurisdiction of this agreement, except for the purpose of development, audit, quality control, on the job training, instruction of employees, in cases of emergency, or the current practice of management performing duties necessary to ensure the efficient and hospitable operation of the business.

ARTICLE 16

HUMAN RIGHTS

16.01 Discrimination/Harassment Prohibited

The Company and the Union agree that discrimination and/or harassment of any employee because of colour, national origin, religion, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability or other prohibited grounds, as stated in the provincial Human Rights Code is absolutely prohibited. Every employee has the right to work in an environment of mutual respect, free from discrimination and harassment including sexual harassment. Action contravening this policy will constitute grounds for discipline.

Properly discharged supervisory responsibilities, including the delegation of work assignments, and/or the assessment of discipline, do not constitute harassment. Neither is the intention of this language to inhibit free speech or interfere with normal social relations.

16.02 Harassment and Human Rights

Sexual or Human Rights harassment could include any deliberate and/or repeated, unwelcome behaviour, comment, gesture, or contact of a sexual nature, that might on reasonable grounds be perceived by that employee as creating an uncomfortable working environment, or placing a condition of an inappropriate nature on employment or any opportunity for training or promotion.

16.03 Complaint Procedure

If an employee believes that he/she has been harassed or discriminated against on the basis of any prohibited ground, there are specific steps he/she should take to put a stop to it:

- Request the alleged harasser(s) to stop
- Inform the individual/s that the behaviour is unwanted and unwelcome

In the event this doesn't put a stop to the behavior, or the harassment is of a serious nature, or if the employee does not feel comfortable confronting the alleged harasser/s, he/she should immediately document the events and bring his/her concerns to the attention of his/her supervisor or Company or CAW local or National representative.

All formal complaints will be investigated promptly, thoroughly and jointly in a manner that protects the privacy interest of all involved - the accused offender as well as the complainant. The name of the complainant or the accused offender or the circumstances related to the complaint will not be disclosed except where disclosure is necessary for the purpose of investigating the complaint or taking related disciplinary measures. The individual accused of harassment has the right to know and respond to all allegations. The Company will take actions it considers appropriate to resolve the complaint. Should the complainant decide appropriate action has not been taken, a grievance may be filed and admitted at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

16.04 Right of Arbitrator

- (a) An Arbitrator or Arbitration Board hearing a complaint or grievance under this article shall have jurisdiction to:
 - (i) Dismiss the complaint or grievance.
 - (ii) Determine the appropriate redress regarding the complaint or grievance.
- (b) In no event shall the Arbitrator or Arbitration Board have the authority to alter, modify or amend the Collective Agreement in any respect.

16.05 Transfer of Harasser

Where the sexual harassment is proven and results in the transfer of an employee, it shall be the offender who is transferred. The complainant shall only be transferred with the complainant's consent.

16.06 Frivolous Complaints

Frivolous complaints have a detrimental effect on the spirit and intent of this policy and should be discouraged. Likewise, intentionally accusing someone of harassment knowing the accusation to be false is a serious matter and will be dealt with accordingly.

16.07 Redress through External Legal Avenues

Nothing in this article shall be considered to negate the entitlement of an employee to seek redress through external legal avenues.

16.08 Violence in the Workplace

The Employer agrees that it is the responsibility of the Employer to abide by all applicable Workers' Compensation and other legislation related to the prevention of violence in the workplace.

Any employee who is subject to an act of violence or a threatened act of violence should report the matter to his/her supervisor who shall take appropriate action.

ARTICLE 17

DURATION OF AGREEMENT

- 17.01 This Agreement shall be effective from January 16th, 2007 until midnight of the 15th day of January, 2010 and thereafter from year-to-year subject to the right of either party to give written notice to the other party, to commence collective bargaining. In either case, time limits must be in accordance with the relevant Provincial Statute, and this Agreement shall remain in force during negotiations for its renewal or amendment.
- 17.02 It is mutually agreed that the operation of Sub-sections 2 and 3 of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia is specifically excluded from this Agreement.
- 17.03 During the term of this Agreement the Company agrees that there shall be no lock-out of employees and the Union agrees that there shall be no strike.
- 17.04 Should either party give written notice aforesaid, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect as neither party shall make any change in the terms of the said Agreement (or increase or decrease the rate of pay of any employee for whom collective bargaining is being conducted or alter any term or condition of employment) until:
- a) the Union goes on strike; or
 - b) the Employer shall lockout its employees; or

RE: ARTICLE 4.09 (d) OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

An employee's posted shift will not be changed by Management without the employee's agreement unless Management gives the employee at least four (4) hours personal notice. In case of a complete deletion of a shift, Management will first offer the employee an alternative shift equal to or greater than the original shift, on the same day as the completely deleted shift. This provision will not apply when the deletion of the shift is caused by an emergency.

In the interests of making the most effective schedule and minimizing disruptions to other employees as well as operations, it is the employee's responsibility to give as much notice as possible if they are unable to make their scheduled shift.

Subject to the operational needs of the business, employees who indicate in advance their availability for unscheduled straight time shifts and/or hours on a call in list posted weekly for that purpose, will be offered the additional hours and/or shifts as they become available, in order of seniority. The call in lists shall be posted not later than 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday of each week in the same location as the weekly work schedule.

If an employee has not indicated to the company that he/she wishes his/her name removed from the call in list, and refuses a call in, then his/her name will be placed at the bottom of the call in list on the next date the employee has signed the list.

RE: ARTICLE 4.18 AND 4.19 OF THE AGREEMENT

It is understood that Articles 14.18 and 4.19 shall be interpreted in accordance with the spirit and intent set out below:

The Company and the Union recognize that the restaurant business cycle fluctuates, and consequently that specific scheduling requirements will fluctuate to reflect this reality. The Company agrees that senior employees have an implicit right to obtain more hours through the work week than junior employees; this is a basic tenet of the employer-employee relationship. Therefore to the greatest extent possible, senior employees are entitled to be scheduled to the maximum available straight-time shifts through the work week consistent with the provision of Article 4 - (Days and Hours of Work and Overtime).

Planned reductions in hours and/or shifts will affect the most junior employee in the classification except when a reduction to that employee's shifts or hours would impact on an acceptable level of staffing and except when more senior employees request, in writing, fewer or limited hours and/or shifts during that week.

To ensure that the joint commitment as stated above is put into practice, the Company and the Union agree to meet on a regular basis to develop, monitor and improve the specific scheduling process throughout the entire operation.

When there is a disagreement on a specific scheduling application it shall be grieved at step 2 and failing agreement at that level the matter shall be pursued in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.

RE: SET SHIFTS

The Company and the Union recognize that, over time, employees regularly scheduled (independent of requests) or temporarily assigned shifts come to rely upon that pattern of scheduling.

The parties agree that, while management is entitled to alter lengths of shifts and start and finishing times in accordance with Articles 4 and the Letters of Understanding regarding Article 4 (maximization / staffing levels and call-in), an employee's pattern of scheduling, which may include temporary assignments to other classifications, once established for a period of nine (9) months or more, shall not be changed unless:

- (i) Such change is necessary to preserve the entitlement to hours of a senior classified employee; or
- (ii) In accordance with articles 8.08 (b) and (c) because of the return to work of an employee who regularly worked the shifts prior to a temporary assignment; or
- (iii) The failure of the employee to return from an approved leave in accordance with article 8.08 (b) results in a posting to which the employee(s) who worked the temporary assignment is not the successful applicant.

Employees working set shifts or restricted schedules shall remain available to be scheduled for alternate shifts subject to the operating needs of the business unless:

- (a) Such employees were hired on a restricted schedule basis; or
A request for a restricted schedule has been agreed to in writing by management

RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF GREETER/SEATER AND BUSSEER CLASSIFICATIONS

Upon ratification of this agreement the following letter of understanding will be observed. Should there be any concerns or issues at the time of the implementation of this letter of understanding then the Company and Union representatives will meet to address these concerns or issues.

The Company and the Union recognize that there are employees who will be reclassified to the Greeter/Seater classification whose established pattern of scheduling includes shifts or hours for which they have been paid Host differential.

The Company will continue this pattern of differential payment to these individuals subject to the letter of understanding regarding business cycle fluctuations and the application of seniority.

Grandfathered Hosts, and all Greeter/Seaters will exist as a combined classification for as long as there are grandfathered Hosts and all applicable seniority provisions will apply. Grandfathered Hosts will continue their current pattern of scheduling, as per the letters of understanding regarding seniority and set shifts.

A Busser will not be scheduled independently of a Greeter/Seater or a grandfathered Host.

The classification of Service Assistant will be deleted. Existing employees will be reclassified into the Greeter/Seater and Busser classifications. No employee will receive a lesser wage than he/she is currently receiving as a result of this reclassification, and all employees will receive the agreed upon increases for non gratuity employees for the duration of the collective agreement.

Employees currently in the Host category will maintain their classification and rate (and will continue to progress through the wage scale in place prior to ratification) and in addition will receive all negotiated percentage increases for non gratuity employees for the duration of the collective agreement. No new employees will be hired into the category.

Note: The Employer has reviewed the employee lists to determine which employees are to be classified as Bussers upon ratification of this agreement. We feel the list is accurate however if an employee has been identified in error as a Busser rather than a Greeter/Seater, we will reclassify him/her appropriately. No additional current employees will be designated as Bussers, the balance of Service Assistants will be reclassified as Greeter/Seaters.

The following is a summary of employees by location that are to be Bussers.
