COMPLAINT AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 5.01 (a) Complaints — Any employee who feels he has a complaint shall discuss the matter with his immediate supervisor with or without the assistance of his Union group steward as he so desires. Failing satisfactory adjustment of the complaint within the following work day or any longer period which may be mutually agreed upon at the time, then the grievance procedure may be invoked.
- (b) Grievances — Any complaint not settled in the manner above or any grievance involving the interpretation or alleged violation of the Agreement shall be dealt with as quickly as possible. In order to accomplish this the Company and the Union are agreed on the following procedure:

STEP NO. 1 — The employee shall inform his immediate supervisor of his intent to submit a grievance. The grievance shall then be reduced to writing with the assistance of the group steward and signed by the aggrieved employee. A copy of the grievance shall be given to the supervisor and shall be taken up by the steward and chief steward with representatives of the group supervision and/or department head not more than seven (7) working days after the date of the written presentation of the grievance to the supervisor. A decision shall be rendered within two (2) working days from the date of the meeting and shall be in written form.

STEP NO. 2 — Should either the Company or the Union desire to appeal any decision arrived at on the grievance in Step No. 1, they shall advise the other party of their intentions within seven (7) working days of the reply to the first stage meeting. A meeting will then be arranged as soon as conveniently possible to both parties. The decision reached as a result of such meeting shall be rendered within seven (7) days of such meeting, and shall be in written form. If a satisfactory settlement of the grievance is not reached it may be referred by either party to a Board of Arbitration as provided for in Article 6.

- 5.02 No complaint or grievance will be entertained that has not been processed according to the procedure defined in Article 5.01 or that is presented to the immediate supervisor more than seven (7) days, excluding regular days off and holidays, after the date the complaint or grievance first arose. It is agreed that when an employee grievance involving suspension or discharge is submitted to the immediate supervisor, it shall proceed directly to Step No. 2 of the complaint and grievance procedure.
- 5.03 At any stage of the above procedure, the aggrieved employee shall have the right to be present, if he so desires. He shall also be required to attend any stage of the procedure at the request of either the Company or the Union.
- 5.04 Should differences arise between the Company and Union Committee or stewards as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement, or should either party allege that the other has violated this Agreement, the matter will be submitted in writing and dealt with in the same manner as Step No. 2 of the grievance procedure.
- 5.05 It is agreed that the settlement of any grievance relating to back pay shall not be retroactive for more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the written presentation to the supervisor as provided in Article 5.01 above. In case of an undisputed error as to an employee's rate of wages, proper adjustment will be made from the date the error occurred.

- 5.06 Any steward shall, after reporting to his immediate supervisor and when arrangements for relief have been made if necessary, be permitted to leave his work for a reasonable length of time when his presence has been requested by an employee in his group for the purpose of settling complaints or grievances. The Company agrees that all reasonable steps will be taken to provide such relief.
- 5.07 If, in the handling of a complaint or grievance, it becomes necessary for a steward to leave his building or department, he shall upon entering another building or department, report to the supervisor in charge of that building, stating his reason for being in that building, he shall return to his job as promptly as possible and upon returning shall at once report to his supervisor.

- 5.10 Any of the time limits specified in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement between the Company and the Union.

ARTICLE 6

ARBITRATION

- 6.01 The Company and the Union agree that any dispute or grievance regarding the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement, which has been carried through the steps of the Grievance Procedure outlined in Article 5 and which has not been settled, may be referred to a Board of Arbitration at the written request of either of the parties hereto, provided such request is made within thirty (30) working days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays, after a decision has been rendered at the completion of Step No. 2 of the Grievance Procedure.
- 6.02 The Board of Arbitration will be composed of one person appointed by the Company, one person appointed by the Union and a third person to act as Chairman chosen by the other two members of the Board.

- 6.04 Should the two appointees fail to agree on a third person to act as Chairman within seven (7) days of notification of the second appointee in Article 6.03 above, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall be asked to name a third person to act as Chairman.
- 6.05 The Company and the Union will share equally the expenses of the Chairman, but each will bear the expenses of its own appointee.
- 6.06 (a) The Board of Arbitration shall not have any power to alter or add to any of the provisions of this Agreement or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

- (b) The Board of Arbitration shall have the authority to set aside or modify any suspension, discharge or other disciplinary measure.

6.07 The decisions of a Board of Arbitration constituted in the above manner shall be final and binding on both the Company and the Union.

6.08 Any of the time limits specified in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Company and the Union or their respective appointees.

ARTICLE 7

SENIORITY

The sole purpose of seniority is to provide a fair and equitable policy covering lay-offs and recall.

- 7.01 (a) A new employee shall not attain seniority for the purpose of lay-offs and recall until he has worked sixty (60) continuous work days.

An employee who has lost the seniority due to lay-off and is rehired within one (1) calendar year from the date of the lay-off shall be considered to have already served his sixty (60) day probationary period.

- (b) In the event of identical hiring dates, employees will have their position on the seniority list established by payroll number.
- (c) The Company recognizes two kinds of seniority, General and Group.

General — Dates from the day an employee has worked sixty (60) continuous work days in the Miscellaneous Capital Revamp Group and shall be back dated to his date of hire.

Group — Dates from the day an employee has worked sixty (60) continuous work days in his assigned skilled work group and shall date back to his date of entry into his skilled work group.

- (d) Work Groups — There are four (4) recognized skilled work groups in the Miscellaneous Capital Revamp Group. They are Mechanical, Instrument/Electrical, Protective Coatings, and Utility.

There is one (1) recognized unskilled work group in the Miscellaneous Capital Revamp Group. It is the Trades Assistance Group.

Personnel assigned to the recognized skilled groups shall be classified as Revamp Mechanic and/or Revamp Level 4. In addition, the Utility skilled workgroup will include Labourers at Levels 1, 2 and 3. Personnel assigned to the Trades Assistance Group shall be classified at Revamp Level 1, 2 or 3.

The Company and the Union agree that the Utility Group will include two defined skills, Carpenters and Labourers. For the purpose of this section, Labourer's work will include all work not normally done by the Carpenter trade. The skills of Cement Mason and Block and Brick Layer will be included in the Labourer skill but Levels 1-2-3 Labourers will not do the work of these skills. The recognition of these skills will remain at the Company's discretion. Hand digging is considered Utility Group work. This does not prevent the use of Trades Assistance Group employees from doing Labourer work.

7.02 Lay-Offs — Employees assigned to the Trades Assistance Group shall be laid off as follows:

- (1) Probationary employees.
- (2) Other employees that have accumulated general seniority shall be laid off prior to any employees that have accumulated skilled group seniority and are still in a skilled work group, providing the employees retained are qualified and able to perform the required work.

7.03 Cut-Backs — Skilled Personnel — Employees assigned to the recognized skilled workgroups shall be cut back as follows:

- (1) Probationary employees.
- (2) Other employees that have accumulated respective group seniority starting with the employee with the least amount of respective group seniority, providing the employees retained are qualified and able to perform the required work.

It is understood and agreed the Revamp Mechanics and/or Level 4 may elect to be laid off direct from their respective skilled work groups in lieu of accepting work in the Trades Assistance Group. It is also understood that Revamp Levels 1, 2 and 3 assigned to the Utility group will accumulate Group Seniority only and will be laid off directly from their work group.

In the event other Revamp Mechanics and/or Level 4 with less seniority accept work assignments in the Trades Assistance Group and the workload increases in their respective skilled work group, the Company will re-assign qualified Revamp Mechanics and/or Level 4 back into their respective skilled work groups prior to recalling Revamp Mechanics and/or Level 4 that have elected to be laid off rather than accepting other work assignments in the Trades Assistance Group.

7.04 Lay-offs — Trades Assistance Group — Lay-offs in the Trades Assistance Group shall be as follows:

- (1) Probationary employees.
- (2) Other employees in the Trades Assistance Group with the least amount of seniority providing the employees retained are qualified and able to do the required work.

7.05 (a) Recall — The most senior employee laid off shall be the first recalled providing the employee has retained his general seniority and is qualified and able to do the required work.

- (b) Loss of Seniority - An employee shall lose all seniority and cease to be an employee if:
- (i) the employee voluntarily quits.
 - (ii) the employee is discharged for just cause and not reinstated.
 - (iii) the employee is on continuous lay-off in excess of sixty (60) working days.
 - (iv) as a special case the employee is absent for three (3) consecutive working days without during such period notifying the the employee's immediate supervisor or superintendent as to the reason for the employee's absence or if upon giving such notice the employee does not have an acceptable reason for the employee's absence.
 - (v) as a special case the employee fails to report for work within five (5) consecutive working days after the postal registration date on his/her notification (notification considered adequate if by registered letter to last known address) to report for work from lay-off and during such period fails to notify the Personnel Department of the Company as to the reason for his/her absence, or if upon giving such notice the employee does not have an acceptable reason for his/her absence.

Overtime will be distributed as equally as practical amongst qualified personnel.

regular meal hour which he is working. The regular meal hours are 7:30 a.m., 12:00 noon, 6:00 p.m., 10:00 p.m. and 1:30 a.m.. The above meal hours may be altered by mutual agreement to suit the needs of a shut-down or turnaround overtime work force. Employees called on less than four (4) hours' notice shall be provided with meals at each regular meal time while working. Employees called in on more than four (4) hours' notice will be furnished with a meal after eight (8) hours' work, at the first regular meal hour nearest the completion of eight (8) hours' work, and each regular meal hour thereafter.

The Company will not furnish meals when overtime work is scheduled sufficiently in advance for the employee to bring his lunch. Employees held over from the midnight shift for periods expected to exceed one hour, will be provided with breakfast as near 7:30 a.m. as possible.

- (d) Day workers on overtime will be given a one-half hour period without pay during the 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. period to eat their meal. All other meals will be eaten in a 20 minute period on Company time.

8.06 Minimum Pay for Call-Ins — When an employee is called in for work outside of his regularly-scheduled hours of work, he shall receive a minimum of four-hours' pay at his regular rate. This does not apply when the work is continuous with regular time or when the broken work period is caused by leaving the Company area for meals.
