To this end, this Agreement is signed in good faith by the two parties.

- 1.2 It is recognized that the Company operates in a creative and innovative fashion, subject at all times to public judgement and regulatory authority, that creative work carries a creative responsibility and that the unique principles which are a part of the Company's history shall continue in the future, subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Definitions

- 2.1 Employee - The term "employee" as used in this Agreement shall mean any person, either male or female, employed in a classification included within the bargaining unit referred to in Article 2.2 and/or reflected in Article 16.8, Wage Classifications. Where agreement is not reached, it shall not become subject to a grievance, but will be referred by the Company to the Canada Industrial Relations Board.

- 2.1.1 When the Company creates a new position which is to be included in the bargaining unit, the Company shall provide the Union with the following information in writing at the time of the posting for the new position:

- a) Job title

- c) General description of the duties and responsibilities.

The Union shall advise the Company within ten (10) working days of receiving the information, of any disagreement with the pay level of the new position.

2.2.1 “On-Air” Performers

(a) The parties recognize that broadcasting requires the continued maintenance of high standards of performance, creativity, and marketability (image) which, with respect to the “On-Air” Talent, are not capable of definition in solely objective terms. The parties also agree and understand that “On-Air” performers (anchors, reporters and videographers) are an integral part of the image and character of a television station and as such have special responsibilities that go beyond those of other bargaining unit employees. These include, but are not limited to: being highly acceptable to the viewing audience, appearing in public on the station’s behalf, being involved in the community and representing one’s self professionally, with dignity, at all times including outside of work hours.

The Company will provide direction and assistance to such employees to assist the employee in achieving necessary standards of performance, creativity and marketability and/or to consistently fulfill his/her special responsibilities. The parties therefore agree that the Company reserves the right to remove from his/her role such an employee who, in its opinion fails to achieve such high standards of performance, creativity and marketability or has not met reasonable Company expectations regarding special responsibilities. Such right shall not be exercised in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner and not sooner than fifteen (15) days after an employee has been advised by written notice (which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the manner in which such employee has fallen short of such standards of performance, creativity and marketability and/or has not reasonably met Company expectations regarding special responsibilities).

An employee so removed shall exercise one of options (i) or (ii) as described in (b) below. The right to remove an employee from his/her role shall not be used as a disciplinary measure and shall be in addition to and not in substitution for the Company’s right to apply discipline, which may only be exercised for just cause.

An Employee removed from his/her classification under this Article shall select one of the following options:

- (i) Receive a lump sum severance payment commensurate with his/her service as of the date the removal takes place as follows:

Post probation to three (3) completed years of service - three (3) months severance pay;

More than three (3) years service, four (4) weeks of pay for each year of service with pro-rata credit for any part year of service (calculated to the nearest month) to a maximum of fifty-two (52) weeks of severance pay;

Such severance pay shall include and be in lieu of any notice or severance pay obligations established by the Canada Labour Code and any other applicable statute or legal requirement;

- (ii) Exercise his/her seniority to displace a less senior employee or fill a vacancy in any other job classification other than an "On-Air" Talent classification, in which the employee has previously successfully performed the duties of the other classification or has the ability to perform the job immediately upon reassignment or following a reasonable familiarization period of four (4) weeks. In the event a less senior employee is displaced by an "On Air" Talent the employee shall be permitted to exercise his/her seniority rights as per the Collective Agreement. An "On-Air" Talent who exercises his/her seniority rights under this Article to displace a less senior employee shall have his/her previous salary maintained for the first three (3) calendar months in his/her new classification, following which the employee shall be placed in the rate on the salary scale of his/her new classification which is closest to his/her previous rate;

- (iii) An employee terminated pursuant to this Article shall be granted reasonable access to Company facilities to produce "air-checks" and such other material which may be required to assist the employee in securing new employment.
- (b) Due to the uniqueness of the conditions of employment for "On-Air" performers, extraordinary compensation arrangements may be necessary. It is therefore agreed that the Company may enter into special, fixed length contracts with "on-air" staff individually to cover rates of pay, hours of work, severance, etc., providing that such terms as a package, are not inferior to the terms (as a package) contained in the Collective Agreement.

At the time the Company first discusses an "On-Air" Letter with an employee, it shall inform the employee that they have a choice to have compensation dealt within a letter, or be covered under the provisions of the Collective Agreement pertaining to wages, overtime, premiums and penalties. In addition, and at the time the "On-Air" Letter is proposed, the employee shall be informed by the Company that they have the right to seek counsel from the Union before agreeing to sign such letter.

In recognition of the Union's status as exclusive bargaining agent for "On-Air" performers, such contracts will become effective only upon approval of the Union. The Union will provide its response to the proposed contract within five (5) work days of its receipt.

2.3 Employee Categories - All employees covered by this Agreement shall be considered full-time employees of the Company except as hereinafter provided. They shall be probationary employees for a period of three (3) months from the date of their employment with the Company. The Company may extend the probationary period up to a total of six (6) months from the date of hiring, and in such event, will discuss the matter with the representative of the Local Union prior to the end of the first three (3) month period. The employee and the Union shall be advised of such extension in writing and the reasons therefore. During the probationary period, the Company may release the employee for reasonable cause.

2.3.1 Absence from work by employees during their probationary period for personal or health reasons shall increase their probationary period by the time absent.

2.4 A part-time employee is defined as a person hired on a regular or occasional basis or to cover sickness, maternity leave, child care leave, leave of absence, vacation leave, or to work on specific projects (including replacing an employee on leave for training) or productions of a predetermined length of time not to exceed twelve (12) months. Extension of temporary employment, which requires more than twelve (12) months to complete, shall be agreed to by the union provided that in the circumstances, it is reasonable to do so.

2.4.1 All articles of this Agreement shall apply to part-time employees, except as hereinafter provided:

(a) Article 9 shall not apply, except Article 9.1 which shall apply, however, Company seniority will be applied separately for part-time employees as a group distinct from full-time employees. Company seniority for part-time employees shall commence in the same manner as for full-time employees, but shall be equal to length of service in accumulated hours worked. Seniority for part-time employees shall be broken and cease to exist after a break in service of six (6) months.

Part-time employees shall be probationary employees for a period of 520 hours worked from the commencement of their first employment with the Company. The Company may extend the probationary period up to a total of 1040 hours from the date of first employment and the employee and the Union shall be advised of such extension in writing, and the reasons therefore.

During the probationary period, or extension thereof, the Company may release the employee at any time for reasonable cause.

Part-time employees who have subsequently been hired as full-time staff shall be probationary for a minimum period of three (3) months if the transfer is to a different job classification. This minimum period will be one (1) month if the job classification is the same. The Company may extend the probationary period for a further three (3) months and, in such event, will advise the Local Union of the extension prior to the end of the probationary period. During the probationary period, the Company may release the employee at any time for reasonable cause. On completion of the employee's probationary period, the employee shall be given credit for hours worked as a part-time employee in the calculation of seniority relative to other full-time employees.

Absence from work by probationary employees for personal or health reasons shall increase their probationary period by the time absent.

When part-time persons are laid off (Article 9.4), it is agreed that the following shall be applicable:

- 1: Part-time employees working on a regular weekly basis shall be given two (2) weeks' notice in advance of the proposed layoff, or two (2) weeks' pay in lieu of notice [based on average number of hours worked in previous thirty (30) days]. Article 9.5 shall apply to such employees.
- 2: Part-time employees hired to cover sickness, maternity leave, child care leave, leave of absence, vacation leave, or to work on specific projects (including replacing an employee on leave for training) or productions of a predetermined length of time not to exceed twelve (12) months shall be considered to have received notice at the time of hiring.

Notwithstanding the foregoing the Company may terminate temporary employees under this clause by giving two (2) weeks notice or two (2) weeks pay in lieu of notice for durations of six (6) months or less and if the duration is longer than six (6) months the Company may terminate the temporary employment by giving four (4) weeks notice or four (4) weeks pay in lieu of notice.

- 3: Part-time employees hired on a daily basis, or on a sporadic basis will not require notice of layoff as provided in the Agreement due to the very nature of their assignment.
- (b) Article 10.2.1 shall not apply.

- (c) Article 13 shall apply, except that the vacation schedule for part time employees will be prorated based on time worked or duration of contract. The time worked considered for calculating the prorated vacation is the employee's regular worked time. For example, if a person works two (2) days per week throughout the year, they will earn 2/5ths of the days under the vacation schedule as specified in the chart in Article 13.1.

Part-time employees shall not have vacation scheduling preference over full-time employees.

Article 13.2 shall apply for all scheduled hours on a Statutory Holiday with a minimum credit of four (4) hours, except that part-time employees shall be entitled to pay for a general holiday on which they do not work, calculated on the basis of five percent (5%) of the wages earned during the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the general holiday.

Part-time employees will be eligible for two (2) Personal Floater Days. Eligibility will be based on the time worked throughout the year.

- (d) Article 14 shall apply to part-time employees as follows;
- (i) Article 14.1 shall apply except that part-time employees shall receive a minimum credit of four (4) hours per tour of duty to a maximum of forty-eight (48) hours in any fourteen (14) day calendar period commencing at 00:01 a.m. Sunday.

A part-time employee shall be scheduled for a tour of duty of eight (8), ten (10) or twelve (12) hours when such hours correspond to the regular scheduled hours of the full-time employees performing the same function and/or assignment.

The Company agrees that it will use its best efforts to schedule a part-time employee to replace a full-time employee who is absent due to illness, vacation, training or union leave.

All time worked in excess of the regularly scheduled tour of duty shall be paid at one and one half (1 ½) times the basic hourly rate of the employee. An additional half (½) times the basic hourly rate of the employee will be paid for all hours worked in excess of four (4) hours overtime worked, in any tour of duty.

Once scheduled, the Company shall not reduce the hours assigned unless it has directly advised the employee at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the scheduled start time of a change in schedule otherwise all hours scheduled shall be paid as assigned.

Part-time employees shall receive four (4) days off during the fourteen (14) day period which are not required to be consecutive.

Article 14.2, 14.7, 14.9, 14.10 and 14.11 shall apply except part-time employees shall not be members of the JHSC.

- (ii) The maximum hours per fourteen (14) day calendar period shall not apply to a part-time employee used on a temporary basis for the purposes of sickness, maternity leave, child care leave, leave of absence, vacation leave, or to work on specific projects (including replacing an employee on leave for training), or productions of a pre-determined length of time not to exceed twelve (12) months. In such cases all of Article 14 shall apply.

- (iii) Where a part-time employee employed under Article 2.4.1 (e) (i) above is assigned under this Article (i.e. the employee's part-time assignment has been revised) the employee and the Union shall be notified of such.
- (e) Article 15 shall apply however, part-time employees shall receive a meal period in all tours of duty of more than six (6) hours, and in such event, such first meal period shall be exclusive of hours worked.

Meal periods will be assigned in accordance with Article 15.

- (f) Article 16 shall apply.

Progression up the salary scale shall automatically occur as provided in Article 16.2 on the following basis:

- (i) a yearly increment will require a total of 2,080 hours credited or worked.

Upon request of a part-time employee, the Company will provide an updated total of credited hours once per calendar quarter for the purpose of monitoring this provision.

2.4.2 Student Placement - Students are defined as those who, as part of their studies curriculum, need to be placed for a specific term in a workplace environ as part of an internship placement. While such students are not employees, they may be assigned to assist full-time employees in the bargaining unit provided that they do not perform any work functions except under the direct supervision of the employee to whom they are assigned. The Local Union shall be advised of the name of any student participating in a student placement prior to the commencement of their placement.

Bargaining Unit members shall have the right to decline participation in a placement program and/or to limit the duration of their participation where a valid reason exists.

2.4.3 It is agreed that the provisions of Article 2.4 above will not be used for the purpose of eliminating or replacing regular or full-time employees or to avoid hiring regular or full-time employees. The Company will not consistently use penalty or premium clauses to avoid replacing full-time employees.

ARTICLE 3

Within the next following ten (10) working days of the notice to arbitrate, the parties, by way of their representatives, shall agree on the naming of a sole arbitrator. In the event the parties are unable to agree on the selection of an arbitrator within these ten (10) working days, the Federal Minister of Labour shall be requested by either party to appoint an arbitrator. The cost and/or expenses of the appointed arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Company and the Union, except that no party shall be obligated to pay the cost of stenographic transcripts without express consent.

7.3 The Arbitrator shall not have the power to change, modify, extend or amend the provisions of this Agreement, but he/she shall have the power to direct, if he/she thinks proper, that any employee who has been wrongfully suspended, discharged, or otherwise disciplined shall be reinstated with pay and with any other benefit under this Agreement which may have been lost or he/she may dispose of the case in any manner he/she deems appropriate.

7.4 If either of the parties of this Agreement consider that this Agreement is being misinterpreted, or violated in any respect by the other party, the matter may be discussed between representatives of the Company and the Union, and if not satisfactorily settled, either party may refer the matter to arbitration as provided in Step 4 of Section 7.2.

7.5 Time Limits - Any time limit mentioned under grievance procedure shall exclude Statutory Holidays and vacations of the employee concerned at the Step 1 level and may be extended by mutual consent.

7.6 Employees shall suffer no loss of pay or other benefits while attending grievance meetings with the Company.

ARTICLE 8

Report on Performance

8.1 Employees who have completed their probationary period shall be notified in writing, of any expression of dissatisfaction concerning his/her work, within ten (10) working days of cause for dissatisfaction becoming known to his/her supervisor. The report on performance shall include any complaint or accusation which may be detrimental to his/her advancement or standing within the Company, as soon as possible after the complaint or accusation is made. If this procedure is not followed, such expression of dissatisfaction shall not become part of his/her record for use against him/her at any time.

8.2 The employee's reply in writing to such complaint or accusation if received within ten (10) working days after he/ she has been given the notice referred to in Article 8.1 above, shall become part of his/her record. If such reply is not received, it will not become part of his/her record for use by him/her at any time.

8.3 An employee shall have access to his/her personnel performance file in the presence of his/her supervisor during office hours, once every six (6) months (or earlier in the case of a grievance), at a mutually agreeable time, but in no event later than three (3) days after the initial request.

8.4 All references to disciplinary action shall be removed from the employee's personnel file within two (2) years of the date of such action being taken provided that the employee has been free of other disciplinary notices in the intervening period. Absences due to sickness or authorized leaves of absence shall not be included in this calculation.

8.5 At any meeting with an employee discussing whether disciplinary action will be taken against such employee, the employee may have a Union representative present for the following purposes only: to assist, counsel, advise and represent the employee. Although the Union representative may participate in any discussions taking place at such meeting, any final decisions affecting the employee are to be made solely by the Company.

8.6 The parties agree that monitoring and evaluation of a probationary employee's progress is not governed by Article 8.1 and the Company is not required to notify a probationary employee in writing regarding performance problems unless the Company is taking formal disciplinary action. A probationary employee may be released for reasonable cause which may include performance problems which the Company observed during the probationary period.

8.7 In lieu of the application of Article 8.1, it is agreed that probationary employees shall receive feedback on their performance and need to be advised whenever their performance falls below Company expectations jeopardizing their continued employment with the Company. To this end the Company agrees that the employee's supervisor or manager will notify the employee and the Local Union president of such performance issues. The employee may receive counsel from the union on such issues.

Seniority Rights

9.1 Company seniority (which may otherwise be referred to as net credited service date) shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of hiring by the Company or upon the date the employee was hired by Baton Broadcasting Incorporated, CHUM Television Limited, CTV Limited, or by Bell Media Inc. whichever is earlier, and shall be equal to the length of continuous service with the Company(ies). Company seniority shall relate to severance pay and the earning of vacation credits as provided for in the applicable articles. Seniority within a bargaining unit position covered by this agreement shall govern the order of layoffs, recall from layoff, and promotions.

Seniority rights and employee benefits shall cease, and the employee deemed terminated for any of the following reasons:

- (a) if the employee voluntarily quits;
- (b) if the employee is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the grievance and arbitration procedure;
- (c) if the employee does not respond to a recall notice as outlined in Article 9.5.2;
- (d) if an employee is on layoff for twelve (12) consecutive months.
- (e) if an employee is absent for five (5) consecutive days without reporting the absence and without a reasonable explanation (e.g. hospitalization).

9.1.1 Seniority credit shall continue to exist and accrue while an employee is on leave granted by the Company and in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.

9.2 Posting of Positions - Where the Company decides that a position is to be filled or created within the bargaining unit on a permanent or regular part-time basis, the Company shall post a notice of vacancy which will include the proposed job title, (which may subsequently be revised without re-posting the position depending on the successful applicant's qualifications), for a minimum of five (5) days. Employees from within and outside the bargaining unit may apply during the posting period.

Where the Company decides to post a temporary position to cover sickness, maternity leave, child care leave, leave of absence, vacation relief, or to work on specific projects or productions of a predetermined length of time not to exceed twelve (12) months, the successful applicant will be reassigned to the temporary position without loss of seniority or benefits. The employee will be on trial for a period of up to three (3) months in the new position. The Company may, at any time during this period, return the employee to the former position with no loss of seniority. Nothing in this clause shall prevent the Company from hiring (without posting a position) a temporary employee in accordance with Article 2.4 to back fill for a full-time employee on temporary assignment.

The parties acknowledge that where it is not possible to determine with certainty the length of the reassignment to a temporary position the Company may end a temporary reassignment at any time and return the employee to the former position with no loss of seniority. At the conclusion of the temporary reassignment, the employee shall return to his/her former position. Where the Company decides that the position is to be filled on a permanent basis it is understood the position will be posted in accordance with this article.

Extensions of the temporary reassignment will be agreed to by the parties where in the circumstances it is reasonable to do so.

9.2.1 Promotions and Transfers - Promotions and transfers to positions within the bargaining unit shall be based on qualifications established by the Company. These qualifications may include: creativity, knowledge, experience, skill, ability, attitude, training and/or education, as well as other relevant factors. Providing that one or more of the applicants satisfactorily meets or exceeds the qualifications, the Company shall award the position to the best applicant. Company seniority will be considered when evaluating applicants. When two (2) or more employees' qualifications are relatively equal, Company seniority shall apply. If there is no applicant who satisfactorily meets the qualifications established for the position, the Company may hire from any source.

9.2.2 An employee promoted to fill a vacancy in a different classification shall be on a trial period in such classification for a period of three (3) months, however, the period may be extended up to a total of six (6) months after discussion between the Union and the Company.

The Company may at any time during this trial period, return the employee to his/her former classification with no loss of seniority. At the conclusion of a successful trial period the employee will be advised in writing that his/her transfer has been made permanent.

9.2.3 It is recognized that the Company may, from time to time, require employees to perform work in a job classification other than their regular classification. Employees who are assigned work in a job classification different from their regular classification will not be penalized for errors committed during such performance if such errors are not a result of negligence.

9.2.4 Should an applicant for promotion or transfer be unsuccessful, it is agreed that management will discuss with the employee, if so requested, why his/her promotion or transfer was denied and will bring to the employee's attention any shortcomings which may affect his/her opportunities for advancement.

9.2.5 Employees will not be required to permanently relocate from one location to the other without their consent.

9.3 Discharge and Demotion - The discharge or demotion of any employee, except for probationary employees as provided in Article 2.3, shall only be for just and sufficient cause. An employee discharged for just and sufficient cause, other than gross misconduct, shall be entitled to two (2) weeks' notice or pay in lieu thereof.

9.4 Layoffs

(a) When layoffs are to be made, the Company shall determine the classifications where reductions are required and the number of employees to be laid off. The Company shall advise the employees and the Union through one announcement to all employees covered by this agreement at least six (6) weeks in advance of the proposed layoff, or such length of time as prescribed by legislation. In lieu of such notice the Company shall pay the affected employees six (6) weeks pay, less the amount worked by the employee during the notice period (i.e. if two (2) weeks are worked during the notice period, then only four (4) weeks shall be paid). Employees who are displaced in accordance with Article 9.4 (d) shall be deemed to have received notice of layoff at the time of the announcement, referred to above, provided that they are advised and laid off within the six (6) week notification period. A further notification period of four (4) weeks shall be added to the initial period for any affected employee who has not been advised and laid off within the initial six (6) week period.

Employees who elect to receive severance pay in accordance with Article 9.4.2 will be deemed to have been laid off and abandoned any recall rights (Article 9.5).

- (b) Layoffs shall proceed in inverse order of Company seniority within those job classifications in Article 16.8. Regardless of work assignment, the least senior employees in a classification where reductions are required shall be laid off from such classification. The Union agrees the Company may offer senior employees within an affected classification a voluntary separation package as part of a work force reduction program consistent with Article 9.4.1. The Company agrees to consider an application from senior employees, in an affected classification, who may wish to volunteer to be laid off (consistent with article 9.4.1) if it would prevent the layoff of a junior employee.
- (c) Employees about to be laid off (the least senior employees in the declared classifications) will receive from the Company, a list of the job classifications (the "List") for which the employee has the occupational qualifications and where there is a less senior employee than the affected employee in a classification at the same or lower level.

Occupational qualifications may include: creativity, knowledge, experience, skill and ability. Within forty-eight (48) working hours of receipt of the List the employee may inform the Company, in writing, of any other classifications in which there is a less senior employee in a classification at the same or lower level where the employee possesses the occupational qualifications from previous employment. Such additions will not be considered unless they are submitted, in writing, within the forty-eight (48) working hour time period.

For the purposes of layoffs seniority will govern where the occupational qualifications of an affected employee in a regular classification and a less senior employee in the respective senior classification (as per Article 16.8) are equal.

- (d) Employees about to be laid off from a position, who are eligible for one of the job classifications as specified in (c) above, must advise the Company, in writing, within forty-eight (48) working hours of being provided with the List or the revised List (if applicable) of their intentions to apply their seniority, and must indicate the job classification they have selected. If an employee fails to provide such notice to the Company, the employee will be deemed to have abandoned any rights under this Article.

No employee is to be displaced by a more senior employee unless the latter possesses the occupational qualifications to perform the job filled by the employee with less seniority.

It is agreed that an employee may require a reasonable period of familiarization in the new classification or position which shall not exceed four (4) weeks. It is understood that an employee who would otherwise be familiar with a method or process may require guidance on new or unfamiliar equipment/software as part of the familiarization period.

If the employee has successfully performed the duties in the new classification or position, the employee will be transferred to the new classification or position following the familiarization period. In the event the employee has not demonstrated his/her ability to satisfactorily perform the duties in the new classification or position, during the familiarization period, the employee will be laid off within the familiarization period and shall be placed on the re-engagement list in accordance with Article 9.5.

- (e) In the event an employee does not have a List or elects not to displace another employee, the employee shall be laid off on the date specified in the Announcement.

Employees who are eligible to displace another employee but elect to be laid off from their employment shall, in addition to the payments under Article 9.4.1, receive one (1) additional week of severance pay per year of service to a maximum of twelve (12) additional weeks of severance pay.

- (f) An employee who bumps or is bumped in accordance with Article 9.4 shall retain first recall rights to their previous classification when the next vacancy occurs therein.

- (g) The Company shall provide the Union with copies of all advice, notices, declarations, applications, elections, and documents relevant to the layoff procedure within twelve (12) hours of such documents being presented. In addition the Company agrees to release Union Official(s) from work, without loss of pay or other benefits, to assist affected employees during the layoff process. It is understood that Union Official(s) may be released when it is necessary to directly assist a particular employee, on request, or to be available to provide general advice and assistance to affected employees at specific times during the notification period.

9.4.1 Employees laid off and deemed terminated pursuant to any statute, will receive severance pay equal to three (3) weeks pay for each year of continuous service to a maximum of seventy-eight (78) weeks pay, except for employees who have attained fifteen (15) years of service on November 30, 2004. Employees who have attained fifteen (15) years service by November 30, 2004 shall have no maximum. With respect to incomplete years, the severance pay shall be on a prorated basis, calculated to the nearest month.

The above noted severance payment shall be deemed to include any severance required pursuant to any statute. Employees who elect to receive severance pay will be declared to have accepted lay-off and abandoned any recall rights.

Severance pay shall be paid to an employee upon the expiry of their recall rights or at any time during the re-engagement period after an employee has notified the Company, in writing, of their desire to abandon their recall rights.

9.4.2 While an employee is laid off, the Company will continue the group health and dental benefits (except for sick leave, STD and LTD) for the period of layoff up to a maximum of three (3) months or until the employee is eligible for benefits at the new place of employment.

9.4.3 The Company agrees that it will not consistently schedule overtime in order to affect or extend layoffs.

9.4.4 An employee who has reverted to a lower salary group under Article 9.4 (d) shall assume the salary on the new scale in accordance with the chart below. Such an employee's placement on the new scale shall be established based on credit for years of service within the classification and any credit for industry experience recognized by the Company at the time the employee initiated the new position.

SENIORITY	Number of Months from the date the employee initiated the new position until the salary reverts to the new scale
Less than 1 year	1 Month
1 - 3 Years	12 Months
Greater than 3 years	24 Months

9.4.5 An employee who has reverted to a lower salary group and whose salary is higher than the maximum of this group, shall receive a basic salary equivalent to the top of this group, except that the employee’s basic salary shall not be decreased by more than ten percent (10%) on reversion.

9.5 Re-engagement of Laid-off Employees - When temporary (see 9.5.3) or full-time vacancies occur, the Company agrees to re-engage, in the order of Company seniority former employees who have been laid off for a period not exceeding twelve (12) months, provided the employee possesses the occupational qualifications to fill the vacancy. In the event that the Company and the Union do not agree on the occupational qualifications of the employee in question, the matter will be subject to the grievance procedure.

An employee who bumps or is bumped in accordance with Article 9.4 shall retain first recall rights to their previous classification when the next vacancy occurs therein.

Employees accepting a recall in other than their previous job classification shall be paid the wage appropriate to the new classification. It is agreed that an employee may require a reasonable period of familiarization in the new classification which shall not exceed four (4) weeks. It is understood that an employee who would otherwise be familiar with a method or process may require guidance on new or unfamiliar equipment/software as part of the familiarization period.

If the employee has successfully performed the duties in the new classification during the familiarization period, the employee will be transferred to the position at the end of the familiarization period. In the event the employee has not demonstrated his/her ability to satisfactorily perform the duties in the new classification, during the familiarization period, the employee will be laid off within the familiarization period, resume their recall period, and the employee shall lose recall rights to this classification.

If an employee declines a recall to their former classification the employee will no longer have recall rights under this Collective Agreement.

9.5.1 The Company's responsibility will be considered to be fulfilled if the Company gives notice, in writing, by registered mail to the employee's last known address. The employee must notify the Company of his/her intention within five (5) days.

9.5.2 Employees will be deemed to be terminated and will lose their seniority should they fail to return to work after having been recalled within ten (10) days of receipt of the recall notice.

Employees who are unable to return to work for just and sufficient cause within the said ten (10) day period, upon presentation of their case to the Union and Company, may retain their seniority and will become the next available employee on the recall list.

9.5.3 An employee who accepts a temporary position of three (3) months or more (40 hours per week) with the Company during lay-off, shall not forfeit any rights under this Agreement.

9.6 Computation of Seniority After Interrupted Service

In the event an employee with more than one (1) year Company seniority is laid off or transferred to a position within the Company not covered by this Agreement:

- (a) Continuity of service for the purpose of Company seniority shall be considered unbroken if he/she returns to the status of an employee within twelve (12) months, or,
- (b) If he/she returns to the status of an employee after twelve (12) months have elapsed, his/her Company seniority upon his/her return shall be that which he/she had on the effective date of such layoff or transfer.

12.3.1 Per Diems - Employees on "out-of-town" assignments which require overnight accommodation and where no meals are provided shall receive a per diem allowance of fifty-nine dollars ($59.00) to cover the cost of meals and miscellaneous expenses for each completed twenty-four (24) hour period, or five dollars ($5.00) per hour to a maximum of fifty-nine dollars ($59.00) when absences involve fractions of a day.

Where exceptional conditions require higher per diems than those contained herein, the Company will provide an additional amount based on conditions at the location concerned.

Where suitable meals, including choice of items recognizing individual dietary requirements including, vegetarian, religious, and/or medical considerations are provided to employees on assignment who receive the required time away from work duties to eat, the per diem amounts may be reduced up to the amount of meal allowances involved in accordance with Article 12.2. A reduction of per diems will not apply when only light items are available at the same time work is being performed.

12.3.2 Employees on "out-of-town" assignments requiring overnight accommodation shall receive single occupancy first class accommodation as per CAA standards at Company expense when available at the location concerned.

12.3.3 Except in late breaking news assignments, the Company will use its best efforts to provide affected employees with one (1) week notice of out-of-town assignments.

ARTICLE 13

Annual Vacation and Paid Holidays

13.1 Annual Vacation - Employees shall be entitled to an annual vacation with pay based on their regular rate in effect at the time the vacation is taken. Vacation credits shall be computed as of January 1st of each year, and earned in accordance with the following chart:

Years of Service	Duration of Vacation in Working Days
Less than 1 year	1.5 days per month (maximum 15 days)
1 - 6 years	15 days
7 - 11 years	20 days
12-17 years	23 days
18 -24 years	25 days
25 years and above	30 days

Employees who have already reached a vacation entitlement that is greater than Bell's policy as of January 1, 2013 will be grandfathered at their existing entitlement until they reach a higher vacation entitlement under Bell's policy.

13.1.1 The Annual vacation year is January 1st to December 31st. The number of years of service attained by December 31 of the vacation year determines vacation eligibility. For example, an employee who reaches seven (7) years of service on November 12, 2013 will be eligible for twenty (20) vacation days starting January 1, 2013.

(a) Vacation must be taken between January 1 of the calendar year in which it is earned and April 30th of the following year. In extenuating circumstances only, and with the permission of the Vice-President, or their designee, earned vacation credits may be carried beyond April 30th.

(b) Employees who at the signing of this agreement had remaining credits with CHUM Television and/or CTV prior to December 31, 2012 will be allowed to bank these credits and must use these credits prior to December 31, 2015. If the employee leaves the Company for any reason prior to December 31, 2015 the remaining banked credits shall be paid out in cash.

(c) Employees returning to work following; sick leave, Maternity, Adoption and Parental leave shall have sixteen months from the date of their return to work to use up vacation entitlements which they had earned prior to and during Maternity and Adoption Leave.

13.1.2 If employment is terminated involuntarily all earned vacation credits shall be paid out in cash. If the employee quits it is understood vacation credits not taken prior to leaving the Company will not be paid except for what is required by the Canada Labour Code, 4% or 6% if applicable). In such circumstances, the employee's vacation eligibility before leaving the Company is prorated according to the portion of the year worked.

13.1.3 The vacation year shall be from January 1st to December 31st. When the projected vacation is to begin and/or end during the months of July and August, the following procedure shall apply:

The Company will post a vacation planner on March 1st in each location. Employees shall submit their requests on the planner by April 1st. Approved vacation schedules will be posted no later than May 1st. Once vacation requests are approved they shall not be changed without the employee's consent, unless, due to an emergency, the Company requires the employee to work.

An emergency shall be defined as an operational requirement which could not reasonably have been foreseen by the Company where there is no reasonable alternative other than changing an employee's vacation request.

When the Company changes an employee's vacation request it shall reimburse the employee for the non-refundable portion of the vacation contracts and/or reservations made by the employee upon presentation of the receipts/charges.

When the projected vacation falls outside of July and August, the following procedure shall apply:

The employee's application shall be submitted, in writing, to the supervisor at least sixty (60) days in advance of the projected vacation and the Company shall confirm the granting or denial of such within fourteen (14) days from the date of request.

As in the past, the Company will not unreasonably deny requests for vacation schedules on short notice. Where employees require long term notice of vacation schedules to plan and confirm travel arrangements, the Company will endeavour to confirm the granting or denial of such vacation requests of these employees.

The parties recognize that the scheduling of vacations is subject to the operational needs of the Company. Within this restriction, the parties agree that preference in the scheduling of vacation shall be given to employees within a functional group on the basis of seniority.

It is understood that employees shall be free to request annual vacation during broadcast rating periods. Management will review the request in accordance with this article in order to try to accommodate the employee's request. Requests for vacation during broadcast rating periods will not be unreasonably denied.

13.1.3 Every employee shall be entitled to have at least two (2) weeks of his/her vacation period scheduled consecutively and request for additional consecutive vacation entitlement will not unreasonably be denied.

13.2 Paid Holidays - The Company recognizes the following as paid holidays:

New Year's Day	Canada Day
Good Friday	Labour Day
Victoria Day	Thanksgiving Day
Civic Holiday	Christmas Day
	Boxing Day

In addition to the holidays listed above, an employee is eligible for up to two (2) personal "Floater Days" per calendar year. Eligibility is determined as follows:

- i) the employee is eligible for two (2) personal floater days if actively at work for at least nine (9) months in the calendar year;
- ii) the employee is eligible for one (1) personal floater day if actively at work for at least three (3) months in the calendar year.

- iii) a part-time employee can accumulate personal floater days based on hours worked (e.g. 3 months = 520 hours)

It is understood that if the employee does not take their personal floater days during the calendar year they cannot be carried over from one calendar year to another and are therefore forfeited.

When one of the holidays listed above falls on a Saturday or Sunday and another week day is proclaimed a holiday by Federal, Provincial, or Municipal Authority, the Saturday or Sunday shall be deemed to be the holiday for the purposes of this Agreement, except for those employees who regularly work Monday through Friday, in which case the proclaimed day shall be the holiday.

An employee who is absent on the day prior or subsequent to a paid holiday may be required to provide a medical certificate, at the discretion of the Company, to qualify for statutory holiday pay. Where the Company requires the employee to provide such certificate it shall advise the employee in advance.

13.2.1 Employees shall be compensated for the above holidays in the following manner:

- (a) If the holiday falls on a regular working day and the employee is not required to work, he/she shall receive his/her normal basic pay for such day [eight (8) hours at the straight time rate].
- (b) If the holiday falls on a regularly scheduled day off or during his/her vacation period, he/she may add one (1) day to his/her annual leave or be given one (1) day off with pay at a mutually agreeable time or bank hours.

- (c) If a holiday falls on a scheduled work day and the employee is required to work, he/she shall receive two and one-half (2½) times his/her basic rate (which amount shall include his/her basic rate) with a minimum credit of eight (8) hours.
- (d) If the holiday falls on a scheduled day off and an employee is required to work, he/she shall receive three (3) times his/her basic rate with a minimum credit of eight (8) hours
- (e) Any time worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a holiday shall be compensated at one-half (½) the basic rate in addition to the rates provided in (c) and (d) above.

13.2.2 With respect to Article 13.2.1, (c) or (d), an employee, at his/her own option, shall be permitted to add one (1) day off to his/her annual leave or be given one (1) day off with pay at a mutually agreeable time, and this shall result in a reduction of eight (8) hours times the basic rate only from the holiday payment earned under either Article 13.2.1, (c) or (d). The employee shall indicate his/her option on his/her weekly time sheet for such holiday.

13.3 Scheduling of Christmas and New Year's - Before October 15th of each year the employees will advise the Company of their preference of days off to be scheduled over the Christmas and New Year's holidays. The employee's choice of days off shall be considered on the basis of Company seniority within the functional group and each employee, if he/she so requests, shall be scheduled off on either Christmas Day or New Year's Day. The Company shall advise the employee of the Christmas-New Year's Schedule by November 15th.

13.4 Banked Time Program - Employees may participate in the banked time program as follows: Any time off under this letter must be pre-approved by the employee's manager not to exceed eighty (80) hours at one time.

- (i) An employee may accumulate and take equivalent time off in lieu of payment for overtime hours, work on a day off, or work on a holiday and shall record the equivalent hours on his/her time sheet/time entry.
- (ii) This banked time may be accumulated January 1 - December 31. Banked time can be scheduled to be taken at a time mutually agreed to by the employee and his/her supervisor.
- (iii) The rate of accumulation shall be determined by the rate of pay provided in the pertinent section of the Agreement. For example, an employee working eight (8) hours on a day off shall receive a credit of $8 \times 1.5 = 12$ hours of straight time pay, and accordingly, twelve (12) hours shall be accumulated as banked time.
- (iv) An employee may request that some or all of their banked time be paid out at any time.
- (v) If employment is terminated for any reason, accrued banked time shall be liquidated in cash.

ARTICLE 14

Hours and Scheduling of Work

14.1 Work Week - For full-time employees in each fourteen (14) day calendar period there shall be eighty (80) hours of work commencing at 00:01 a.m. Sunday (Day 1) as of December 30, 2012. The work day shall be a minimum of eight (8) hours exclusive of the first meal period, but inclusive of all other meal periods and break periods, but may also be ten (10) or twelve (12) hours. During this fourteen (14) day calendar period there shall be a minimum of four (4) days off, which will be scheduled in blocks of two (2) or more consecutive days. Additionally, for employees working regular ten (10) or twelve (12) hour shifts at least three (3) of their days off shall be scheduled consecutively. No full-time employee shall be required to work more than seven (7) consecutive days without receiving days off. If days off are scheduled before and after a paid holiday, and the employee is not required to work the paid holiday, the days off will be considered to have been scheduled consecutively.

14.1.1 Agreed Schedules - The Company and the Union recognize that there are different work schedules or shift patterns possible within the framework of the Company's operation other than the standard work period or work day. To this end the Company will plan with such employees work schedules which are mutually agreeable and in such cases it is agreed that the overtime provisions of Article 14 and meal provisions of Article 15 and any other Articles affected will be modified as required.

Any such agreements will be put in writing, and signed by both parties and will require approval by the Local Union. However, such agreed upon schedules may be reverted to the normal work period by either the Company or the employees giving notice at least two (2) Fridays prior to the work period in question. This return to the normal work period will be made at the earliest possible date which will not incur shift change penalties or premiums.

14.2 Tour of Duty - A tour of duty or tour shall mean the authorized and/or approved time worked by an employee during a day, calculated to the end of the last quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) hour in which work was performed. If a tour of duty extends beyond midnight, it shall be considered as falling wholly within the calendar day in which it starts. There will be no assignment of split shifts.

14.3 Overtime Computation - All time worked in excess of the regularly scheduled tour of duty, as provided in Articles 14.1 and 14.1.1, in any one (1) day shall be paid at one and one half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times the basic hourly rate of the employee. An additional half ($\frac{1}{2}$) times the basic hourly rate of the employee will be paid for all hours worked in excess of four (4) hours overtime worked, in any tour of duty, as provided in Articles 14.1 and 14.1.1.

14.3.1 The Company will use its best efforts to assign overtime in a fair and equitable manner.

An employee may refuse to work overtime; however, if all employees in a classification refuse to work, the Company may require the most junior qualified employee in the classification or in the Company to do the work. Where such assignment constitutes more than eight (8) hours of overtime over any work week the next most junior qualified employee may be so assigned, and so on.

In the case of work or an assignment of a continuing nature, the employee who had been assigned to the work or assignment may be required to perform the overtime.

14.4 Posting of Schedules - Each employee's work schedule shall be posted by 13:00 two (2) Fridays prior to the week covered by the work schedule. Where in accordance with Article 14.1 the regular hours of work change from minimum eight (8) hour work days to regular ten (10) or twelve (12) hour work days, the Company shall notify the affected employees of the change at least four (4) Fridays prior to the week when the change will occur.

The schedule shall state clearly daily starting and finishing time and days off. Once posted, days off shall not be changed without the employee's consent. Notice of change in starting time shall be given as much in advance as possible, but not later than 13:00 of the last working day prior to the day in question. If such notice is not given, the employee shall be credited with all hours originally scheduled plus any additional hours, provided that such time is paid for at the appropriate rate.

When an employee is on duty, the Company will be deemed to have given notice when such notice is posted and the Company has made every reasonable effort to reach the employee. If the employee is off duty, the Company will notify the employee directly.

It is the intent of the foregoing to ensure that each employee shall be apprised of his/her daily work schedule at the earliest possible time.

14.4.1 Except where weekend work is a reasonable condition of employment, the department heads will arrange work week schedules so that each employee shall have at least three (3) weekends off per calendar quarter, unless agreed to otherwise by the employee and management.

14.4.2 Except where employees are hired to work evening or night shifts, work schedules of employees shall be so arranged whereby no employee shall be required to work more than two (2) consecutive calendar weeks [ten (10) working days] on the evening or night shifts. Evening shifts will be defined as any shift that ends after 9:00 p.m. Exceptions may be granted when requested by the Company and agreed to by the employee. Where possible the starting time during any work week shall be consistent.

14.5 Scheduled Days Off - The two (2) consecutive days off shall consist of forty-eight (48) hours plus the turnaround period of twelve (12) hours for a total of sixty (60) hours. The three (3) consecutive days off shall consist of seventy-two (72) hours plus a turnaround period of twelve (12) hours for a total of eighty-four (84) hours. A single day off shall consist of twenty-four (24) hours plus a turnaround period of twelve (12) hours for a total of thirty-six (36) hours. Where two (2) consecutive days off in one (1) week are taken contiguously to the two (2) consecutive days off in the following week, only one (1) turnaround period shall apply.

14.6 Work on Scheduled Days Off - When an employee agrees to work on a scheduled day off, work performed on that day shall be compensated at one and one-half (1½) times the basic rate, with a minimum credit of four (4) hours. When an employee works on a second day off, after having worked on his/her first day off, work performed on the second day off shall be compensated at two (2) times the basic rate, with a minimum credit of eight (8) hours. When an employee works in excess of eight (8) hours on a scheduled day off, the employee shall be compensated at one-half (½) the basic hourly rate, in addition to the rates provided above.

14.6.1 An employee may refuse to work on a scheduled day off and shall not be penalized for such refusal, however, where unexpected illness or injury to a scheduled employee, or where civil emergency requires it, work on a scheduled day off may be assigned to any available qualified employee in inverse order of Company seniority. An employee is available if they can be reached and directed to work. The Company will make a reasonable effort to reach a junior qualified employee before assigning a senior employee. Where such assignment constitutes more than eight (8) hours of overtime over any work week the next most junior qualified employee may be so assigned, and so on. A civil emergency includes an unexpected event of significant local, regional, national or international importance.

14.6.2 Notice of cancellation of assigned work on a scheduled day off or on a holiday shall be given no later than the fourth (4th) hour of the previous shift of the employee concerned. If such notice is not given, the employee shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours pay at the basic rate, computed separately from the work week.

14.7 Turnaround - A turnaround period is the period of at least twelve (12) hours between the end of one (1) tour of duty and the commencement of the next tour of duty, or between the end of a call-back and the commencement of the next tour of duty, whichever is later.

14.7.1 All time worked which encroaches on the turnaround period shall be paid at an additional one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the basic hourly rate computed separately from the work week except as provided in Article 14.7.3.

14.7.2 In the event a turnaround period is less than six (6) hours, the shift shall be considered continuous. It is understood that an employee may refuse to work a turnaround period of six (6) hours or less and the employee shall not be penalized for such refusal.

14.7.3 No payment shall be made for the following encroachments:

- (a) On a swing-in shift, on a regular rotating shift pattern, which occurs in conjunction with an employee's day off.
- (b) On a shift where an employee is released from duty to attend labour/management meetings.
- (c) To employees who are self assigning, except where such employees are scheduled by the Company, or where work requirements create overtime hours that are beyond the control of the employee that results in the encroachment, and where such overtime is authorized or approved by the Company.

14.8 Call-Back - Should an employee, who has completed his/her tour of duty, be called back to work, he/she shall be paid at the time and one-half (1½) rate with a minimum credit of four (4) hours.

14.8.1 An employee, at his/her own discretion, may refuse to work call-back as outlined in Article 14.8 and he/she shall not be penalized for such refusal. Should all employees who could be reached refuse a call-back, the Company can assign the work to the most junior employee in the classification who can be reached and who, in the Company's opinion, is qualified to do the job, or to anyone in that functional group.

14.9 Temporary Upgrades -

- (a) Whenever an employee is assigned a task in a classification with a higher rate of pay, the Employer agrees to pay an additional two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per hour, with a minimum credit of two (2) hours.

- (b) Where the employee is designated by the Company to temporarily act in a supervisory position not covered by this Agreement, the employee so designated shall be entitled to the upgrading set forth in 14.9 (a). An employee shall have the right to refuse supervisory duties and will not be penalized for doing so.

14.9.1 Without his/her consent, no employee shall be permanently transferred or assigned to a position outside the bargaining unit and the employee will not be penalized for such refusal.

14.11 Excessive Hours and Safety - The Company shall not assign excessive hours of work to employees. The Company also agrees to give proper attention to the elimination of working conditions which are a hazard to the health and safety of employees.

14.11.1 Where the Health and Safety Committee and the Canada Labour Code, Part II, require it, the Company agrees to supply protective clothing and/or safety devices for employees on assignments (e.g., remotes, towers), where conditions require their use and to supply other special attire where required. Employees have an obligation to use safety equipment, materials and clothing as supplied, to follow procedures with respect to their use and to take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of themselves and fellow employees.

14.11.2 A first-aid kit will be maintained in the control room area in each studio, on all locations and in all Company vehicles. All vehicles provided by the Company for travel to and from remote sites shall contain: first aid kits, basic tools, survival equipment (blanket, tow rope, battery cables) and a safety partition, as defined by the Health and Safety Committee. The transmitter vehicle shall also be equipped with a radiotelephone and/or a cell phone in good working order.

Employees have an obligation to inspect supplied equipment on a regular basis and report any deficiencies to their Supervisor or Department Manager.

14.11.3 The Company shall pay a monthly bonus of thirty dollars ($30.00) (not to be included in base rate) to each bargaining unit member [to a maximum of three (3) employees (at least one of which will be an ENG Camera/Microwave Truck Operator) at any one time]. The members may hold either a valid Industrial First Aid or St. John's Ambulance Certificate.

14.11.4 All ladders used on electrical outlets, scaffolding and platforms must be in compliance with safety laws.

14.11.5 No employee shall be disciplined or discharged for refusal to work on a job in any work place or to operate any equipment where he/she has reasonable grounds to believe that it would be unsafe or unhealthy to do so or where it would be contrary to applicable Federal, Provincial, or Municipal regulations or legislation. Where, in such circumstances, the employee does not work, he/she shall not suffer a loss of pay.

14.11.6 The Company shall provide inspections and necessary repairs to VDT's and CRT's to ensure that equipment meets pertinent Federal or Provincial standards. The Company will provide for employees who are pregnant and who operate VDT's or CRT's protective screens for the duration of the pregnancy.

14.11.7 A Joint Health and Safety Committee shall be constituted consisting of an equal number of representatives of Management and the Union, which shall identify potential dangers and health hazards, and obtain information from the Company or other persons respecting the identification of hazards and health and safety experience and work practices and standards elsewhere.

The committee shall meet at least once a month. Notes shall be taken of all meetings and copies shall be sent to the Company and the Union. Time spent on the Safety Committee to attend meetings or inspections will be considered as time worked.

14.11.8 Two (2) representatives of the Joint Health and Safety Committee, one (1) from Management and one (1) from the Union, shall make periodic inspections of the work place and equipment and shall report to the Health and Safety Committee the results of their inspection. Time spent on such inspections shall be considered as time worked.

14.11.9 The Joint Health and Safety Committee shall have access to the accident reports submitted to the Insurance Company and the government or its agencies.

14.11.10 In the case of hazardous, inclement weather, no reasonable request for assistance in servicing remote sites will be denied.

14.12 Assistance - In the operation of ENG-EFP cameras, Microwave Truck and related equipment, it is understood that employees will not be unreasonably denied assistance when it is requested.

In the execution of live to air programming it is understood that: where microwave and/or satellite truck is utilized, and/or where complex audio (e.g. multiple guests) is required, there shall be two (2) operators assigned to ensure safe operation and technical quality of the facility.

ARTICLE 15

Employees who are scheduled to work on a regular ten (10) to twelve (12) hour tour of duty will have a first meal period of one (1) hour which shall commence not earlier than the beginning of the fifth (5th) hour and be completed by the beginning of the eighth (8th) hour. ARTICLE 16

For employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement, progression up the salary scale within each classification shall automatically occur on the first complete pay period of the month following nearest to the employee's annual anniversary date of hire.

- 16.3 When an employee is transferred into a higher pay classification he/she shall immediately move into the higher salary scale and receive a salary increase which is at least the equivalent of one (1) full increment in his/her former group, plus the amount necessary to place him/her on step in the new group, and shall automatically progress upward on the annual anniversary date of his/her upgrading. One (1) full increment means the increase in pay that the employee would have next received had he/she remained in his/her former classification, or if he/she is at the top of his/her scale, the increase he/she last received in reaching the top rate.

Acceleration of progression within a group shall constitute a change of anniversary date consistent with the date of acceleration and upward progression shall automatically occur on the annual or date of the acceleration implementation.

NON-DISCRIMINATION/ HARASSMENT PROCEDURE

Preamble

All employees of the Company are entitled to employment in a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination, including personal harassment. This procedure outlines the commitment of CTV Limited to ensure a harassment free workplace as required under the Canadian Human Rights Act and will act as a guide to employees in adhering to legal and social guidelines regarding the recognition and prevention of harassment.

This procedure exists to underline the seriousness of workplace harassment and to establish that there is no acceptable level of harassment within the Company. Employees who feel that they are being harassed are encouraged to seek protection under this procedure.

Proscribed grounds include race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, gender, marital status, family status, disability and conviction for which a pardon has been granted.

Harassment on any of these grounds, including personal and sexual harassment, is a form of misconduct.

The Company has made and will continue to make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subject to discrimination or harassment by any other employee, while performing his/her employment responsibilities.

Definition of Discrimination/Harassment

Harassment is defined as a “course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought to be known to be unwelcome, that denies individual dignity and respect on the basis of such grounds as sex, disability, race, colour, sexual orientation and other prohibited grounds”. All employees are expected to treat others with courtesy and consideration and to discourage harassment.

Conduct that is discriminatory or harassing may involve one or a series of incidents. Conduct that occurs when:

- A) submission to such conduct is reasonably perceived as a term or condition of employment (including availability or continuation of work, promotional or training opportunities);
- B) submission to or rejection of such conduct is used to influence decisions or employment matters;
- C) such conduct interferes with an individual’s job performance;
- D) such conduct humiliates, insults or intimidates any individual;

Discrimination or harassment can include (but not limited to):

- A) verbal abuse or threats;
- B) unwelcome remarks, jokes and innuendoes, or taunting about a person’s body, attire, or sexual orientation;

- C) practical jokes which cause awkwardness or embarrassment;
- D) unwelcome invitations or requests, whether indirect or explicit or intimidation;
- E) leering at a person's body or other gestures;
- F) condescension which undermines self respect;
- G) unnecessary physical contact such as touching, patting, pinching, punching;
- H) physical (sexual) assault;

What Harassment is NOT

Properly discharged supervisory responsibilities including disciplinary action are not considered to be harassment. Neither is this policy meant to inhibit free speech or interfere with normal social relations.

How to Tell if Harassment has Occurred

Harassment will be considered to have taken place if a reasonable person ought to have known that such behaviour was unwelcome. Examples of questions that would indicate whether an activity is welcomed, are:

- A) Would you want that employee acting the same way with your own loved one (spouse or child?)
- B) Would that employee behave the same way if someone they were in a relationship with was standing nearby?

- C) Was there an equal initiation and participation between the employees?

What to do if you are being discriminated against or harassed

Discriminated Against - An employee who believes that he or she has been discriminated against under the provisions of the Canada Human Rights Act should raise the matter with his/her Department Head.

Harassed - An employee who believes that he or she is being harassed should not assume that the problem will go away by itself. The employee should not assume that the harassment has to be endured because of possible retaliation, nor should the employee feel guilty or embarrassed. The following steps should be followed:

STEP 1: Say “NO”. Tell the person who is harassing you that his or her behaviour is unwelcome by clearly describing the behaviour that you find unacceptable and asking that the behaviour stop.

STEP 2: Make a record of the harassment - date, time, location, what happened, witnesses, any action you took to stop the behaviour.

STEP 3: If the harassment continues despite your objections, lodge a complaint with your Department Head. The record from STEP 2 will assist in the investigation of the complaint.

NOTE - In either case, if you believe that it would be inappropriate to lodge the complaint with your Department Head, then you should lodge the complaint with the Human Resources Manager.

Resolving the Complaint

Upon receipt of a complaint, an investigation will be undertaken which will involve interviewing: the complainant, the alleged harasser, and anyone else who has information.

The alleged harasser will be made aware of the complaint and be given an opportunity to respond.

All information gathered will be held in strict confidence and documented.

The complainant's name and/or the circumstances relating to the complaint will not be disclosed to any person except where disclosure is necessary for the purpose of investigating the complaint or initiating disciplinary measures.

If harassment is founded, the harasser will be subject to appropriate discipline up to and including termination.

If the complaint is found to be without merit, all documentation will be destroyed. In order to protect the alleged harasser's reputation, those individuals who were involved in the investigation will be advised that the complaint was unfounded.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING No. 1

Employment Equity (EE)

The parties jointly agree and support the goals of Employment Equity in our society. Both parties also recognize that special efforts will be necessary to improve the opportunities for permanent employment of designated group members. The parties desire to make those efforts without:

- (a) lowering the high standards of performance expected of employees and co-workers, and;
- (b) placing any quotas or targets on the number of designated group members who must be hired.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING No. 2

Disabled Employees

The parties to this Agreement acknowledge their joint obligation to try and assist employees who become disabled as a result of an injury/illness to return to meaningful employment at CHRO. To effect that shared belief, the parties have agreed to the following for the term of the Collective Agreement:

- (a) During an employee's rehabilitative stage, the employee may be temporarily assigned to perform bargaining unit work without having to comply with the provisions of Article 9.2 (Vacancies), provided that no employee is displaced by the disabled employee. All other terms of the Collective Agreement would apply to the disabled employee.
- (b) Once the employee's rehabilitation is complete, the parties will make all reasonable efforts to accommodate the disabled employee in his/her former job. Where this is not practicable, the disabled employee may not displace any employee, but may be awarded any full-time, temporary or term position, without regard to the seniority provisions of the Agreement. The employee must still be able to demonstrate that he/she has the skills, qualifications and abilities to perform the job in accordance with Company standards.

This Letter of Understanding may be terminated by either party being given ninety (90) days written notice.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING No. 3CIRB Certificate

The parties have agreed to jointly amend Article 2.2 of the Collective Agreement and to apply to the Canada Industrial Relations Board for an amended certificate to reflect the joint agreement. As part of that joint agreement the parties agreed that the following new “excluded” positions would have only one (1) incumbent:

Traffic Supervisor
Accounting Supervisor
Executive Assistant

Nothing in this letter prevents the Company from proposing to add more incumbents to the aforementioned positions, and if agreement is not reached with the Union, the Company may apply to the CIRB to have such exclusions added to the Collective Agreement.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING No. 4Hosts

It is understood that the above mentioned position shall not be a permanent or dependant employee of CHRO-TV. This would include “celebrity” guest hosts. It is understood a “Host” would be retained on a program project basis to perform “on air” hosting functions and shall not be used to replace, displace, or avoid the hiring of an employee in the bargaining unit.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING No. 5

Use of Freelance Resources in Ottawa/Pembroke

The Union agrees that the Company may continue to use Freelance Resources in Ottawa/Pembroke for the purpose of gathering audio and video elements for its news reports as it has in the past. The Company agrees that it shall not expand this practice and that it shall not use these resources to circumvent the provisions of Article 10.1

For clarity, the Union understands that at the time of negotiation of this Letter the Company regularly purchased audio and video elements from Stephane Beaudoin which did not commission or assign and at time of day when its own resources were not available.

Use of “On Air” Radio Employees

It is agreed that nothing in this agreement shall prevent the Company from using Bell Media Radio Ottawa, employees in Ottawa to enhance its “on air” presentation. When this is to occur the Company will advise the National and Local Union, which may be communicated by email, of the name of the individual and the role they are to play. These employees shall not retain rights under this agreement.

Bell Media Radio employees may be used as follows:

1. For breaking news events that bargaining unit members cannot get to Bell Media Radio employees can use mobile hand held devices to perform “breathless” reports of no more than one minute and thirty seconds (1:30) or provide studio based/on location breaking news “rants”, coverable with video, of no more than two minutes and thirty seconds (2:30) duration. In Ottawa it is agreed that the Company will make best efforts to ensure that bargaining unit employees shall be assigned to lead coverage of breaking news events and that Bell Media Radio employees may be used when other breaking news occurs.
2. For feature reports out of market Bell Media Radio employees can function as the “On Air” reporter fronting such items provided they work with a Bargaining Unit ENG/EFP Camera/Editor to produce the feature report.

3. For CTV Morning Live show segments Bell Media Radio personalities can provide content similar to current practice when offering profile or specific expertise or knowledge that would be otherwise unavailable from staff.

The parties agree to meet at least quarterly in order to review and discuss the foregoing.

It is agreed that these employees shall not be used to circumvent the provisions of Article 10.1.

Dues shall be remitted to the union in accordance with the collective agreement based on an equivalent rate to the classification which the employee is assigned with a minimum credit of four hours.

Creative Services

Engineering

The parties agree that the work performed by employees in the Engineering Department at CHRO-TV, including the IT Technician, is considered work performed to support all business units within the facility and employees not covered under this agreement working in the Engineering Department under the CJOH-TV Collective Agreement will also perform this work in the same manner. Further, the parties agree that no group, CHRO-TV or CHOH-TV has exclusive jurisdiction over any of the work performed.

It is understood and agreed that nothing prevents the Company from using employees outside the Bargaining Unit in Ottawa in combination with television staff on major projects or when Bargaining Unit employees are unavailable. A Bargaining Unit employee is unavailable if they are on vacation, sick leave or if they are otherwise engaged in work assignments.

This letter will not otherwise be used to circumvent the provisions of Article 10.1 of the Collective Agreement.
