LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING
RE SAFETY FOOTWEAR | 79 |
ARTICLE 1

PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain harmonious relationships between Her Majesty in right of Canada as represented by the Staff of the Non-Public Funds, Canadian Forces, hereinafter referred to as the Employer, the Public Service Alliance of Canada hereinafter referred to as the Union and the Employees and to set forth herein the terms and conditions of employment upon which agreement has been reached through collective bargaining.

1.02 The parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve the quality and to increase the efficiency of the services provided and to promote the well-being of the Employees.
ARTICLE 2

RECOGNITION

2.01 The Employer recognizes the Public Service Alliance of Canada, certified by the Public Service Staff Relations Board on 30 October 1987, as exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Employer in the Operational Category employed at The National Defence Medical Centre in Ottawa, save and except managers.

ARTICLE 3

INTERPRETATION AND DEFINITIONS

3.01 For the purpose of this Agreement:

a. Full-time Employee means an employee who has completed his probationary period and is employed on a continuing basis for twenty-seven (27) or more hours per Week;
b. Part-time Employee means an employee who may be employed on a continuing basis but works less than twenty-seven (27) hours per week and more than thirteen and one third (13-1/3) hours per Week,

c. Probationary Employee means a new employee who is carrying out the tasks of a full-time or part-time employee but has not been granted full-time or part-time status. The probationary period shall not exceed:

(1) supervisory - three (3) months;

(2) non-supervisory - two (2) months.

ARTICLE 4

STATE SECURITY

4.01 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require the Employer to do or refrain from doing anything contrary to any instruction, direction or regulations given or made by or on behalf of the Government of Canada in the interest of the safety or security of Canada or any state allied or associated with Canada.

ARTICLE 5

MANAGERIAL RIGHTS

5.01 The Union recognizes and acknowledges that the Employer has and shall retain the exclusive right and responsibility to manage its operation in all respects including, but not limited to, the following:

a. to plan, direct and control operations; to determine methods, processes, equipment and other operating matters; to determine the location of facilities and the extent to which these facilities or parts thereof shall operate;

c. to direct the working forces including the right to decide on the number of employees, to organize and assign work, to schedule shifts and maintain order and efficiency, to discipline employees including suspension and discharge for just cause;

and it is expressly understood that all such rights and responsibilities not specifically covered or modified by this Agreement shall remain the exclusive rights and responsibilities of the Employer.

5.02 New NPF employees may be released during the probationary period for just cause. The employee may have access to the grievance procedure up to the second level but may not refer a grievance to adjudication.

5.03 Such rights will not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6

FUTURE LEGISLATION AND THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

6.01 If any law now in force or enacted during the term of this Agreement renders null and void any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. The parties shall thereupon seek to negotiate substitute provisions which conform with the applicable law.

ARTICLE 7

CHECK-OFF

7.01 Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the monthly membership dues established by the Union from the pay of all employees in the bargaining unit.

Where an employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect of any pay period to permit deductions, the Employer shall not be obligated to make such deductions from subsequent salary.

7.02 For the purpose of applying Article 7.01, deductions from pay for each employee in respect of each month will start with the first full calendar month of employment in the bargaining unit to the extent that earnings are available.
7.03 The Employer agrees to remit dues together with a list of employees from whom deductions have been made to the Union at its mailing address by the fifteenth (15th) day following the end of each calendar month, except for circumstances beyond the Employer's control. The Employer agrees to supply the Union, semi-annually, with the name and classification of each new employee.

7.04 The total Union dues deducted will appear on the T4 forms.

7.05 The union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer limited to the amount actually involved in the error.

ARTICLE 8

APPOINTMENT OF REPRESENT

8.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint employees as representatives.
8.02 The Employer and the Union shall determine the jurisdiction of each representative, having regard to the plan of organization, the distribution of employees at the workplace and the administrative structure implied by the grievance procedure.

8.03 The Union shall notify the Employer promptly and in writing of the names and jurisdiction of its representatives.

ARTICLE 9

LEAVE FOR REPRESENTATIVES AND ACCESS TO PREMISES

9.01 A representative shall obtain the permission of his manager before leaving his work to investigate complaints that lie within the jurisdiction agreed to in Article 8, to meet with local management for the purpose of dealing with grievances and to attend meetings called by management. Such permissions shall not be unreasonably withheld. Where practicable, the representative shall report back to his manager or a supervisor before resuming his normal duties.
9.02 A representative will not receive pay for time spent investigating complaints during his regular scheduled time off.

9.03 The Employer agrees that accredited officials of the Union may be granted access to the Employer’s premises upon request and following the consent of the Commandant or his delegate. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

9.04 The Union’s meetings shall be held outside the hours of work of the employees and outside the premises of the Employer. However the Employer may permit the Union to use the Employer’s premises outside the hours of work of the employees for conducting its meeting, where refusal to grant permission would make it difficult for the Union to convene a meeting. The Union shall ensure the orderly and proper conduct of its members who attend such meetings on the Employer’s premises and agrees to be responsible for leaving facilities in good order after use.

9.05 Following the consent of the Commander or his delegate, meetings of an urgent nature could be held during the hours of work on the Employer’s premises.

9.06 The Union shall notify the Employer promptly and in writing of the names and positions of its accredited officials.
ARTICLE 10

SAFETY

10.01 The Employer agrees to maintain reasonable provisions for the safety of its employees during the hours of employment and to provide a general safety program.

10.02 It is the responsibility of the employee to observe the safety rules, to wear and use safety equipment according to instructions and to immediately advise his supervisor of any unsafe working conditions.

10.03 The Employer shall not require an employee to work under unsafe conditions. The Employer and the union recognize that the environment standards are those issued under Part IV of the Canada Labour Code.

10.04 Members of the Bargaining Unit who attend health and safety meetings, called by the Employer shall be paid for all such time under the terms of the collective agreement.
ARTICLE 11

HOURS OF WORK

11.01 The normal hours of work shall not exceed eight (8) consecutive hours per day, exclusive of a lunch period and forty (40) hours per week. The work week defined for these employees starts at 0000 hours Monday and ends the following Sunday at 2400 hours.

11.02 A work schedule shall be posted on the appropriate bulletin board showing the scheduled working hours for each Employee covered by this Agreement for the following week. The schedule will be posted by Thursday of each week. If a schedule is not posted by Thursday, the schedule for the previous week will apply, however the rescheduling shall not adversely affect an employee's entitlement under Article 11.05. After Thursday, no changes in schedule for the following week will be made, except where changes are necessary due to circumstances beyond the control of the Employer. Where such changes are necessary, the employee will be given notice as far in advance as possible.

11.03 The meal period shall remain as per past practice unless changes are mutually agreed upon. Also, except in those operations which normally employ only one person, the meal periods shall be uninterrupted. Employees required to work in excess of three (3) hours overtime shall be entitled to a paid fifteen (15) minute rest period.

11.04 Provided sufficient advance notice is given and with the approval of the Employer employees may exchange shifts if there is no increase in cost to the Employer.

11.05 Once in every three (3) week period, full-time employees shall be scheduled two (2) consecutive days off, which shall be either a Saturday-Sunday or a Sunday-Monday combination on a rotational basis. This is a minimum standard not a maximum.

11.06 Upon the written request of an employee and with approval of the Employer Article 11.05 may be rendered void for the employee for a specific period of time.

11.07 If an employee is scheduled for work and he reports to work and there is either no work available or insufficient work available he shall be paid a minimum of three (3) hours pay at his regular rate.

11.08 Where the Employer determines there is a clear-cut need, wash-up time up to a maximum of ten (10) minutes will be permitted immediately before the end of a work day.
11.09 Where scheduled hours affecting the majority of the employees are to be changed so that they are different from those presently in existence, the Employer, except in cases of emergency, shall consult in advance with the union on such proposed hours of work. The Employer will where practicable, accommodate such employee representations that may be conveyed by these representatives.

11.10 Nothing in this Agreement, shall be construed as guaranteeing an employee minimum or maximum hours of work.

ARTICLE 12

OVERTIME

12.01 When an employee is required to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week he shall be paid for the overtime at a rate of pay not less than one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times his regular rate of pay, except as provided in sub-sections a, b and c below:

a. double time (2) for each hour of overtime worked by the employee after eight (8) consecutive hours of overtime;
b. double time (2) for each hour of overtime worked by the employee on the first day of rest;

c. double time (2) for each hour of overtime worked by the employee on the second or subsequent day of rest.

12.02 Overtime shall be compensated in money except where on request of an employee and with the approval of the Employer overtime may be compensated in equivalent leave with pay within sixty (60) days of the overtime worked. The Employer shall grant compensatory leave at times convenient to both the employee and the Employer.

12.03 Overtime shall be offered first, to the employee with the most seniority on the shift in the facility which requires the work, provided the employee is capable of performing the work. If no employee wishes to work the overtime, the Employer shall assign the work to a junior employee who is capable of performing the work.

MEAL ALLOWANCE

12.04 An employee who works three (3) or more hours of overtime;
(1) Immediately before the employee’s scheduled hours of work, or

(2) Immediately following the employee’s scheduled hours of work, and who has not been notified of this requirement prior to the completion of their previous shift, shall be reimbursed for one (1) meal in the amount of the six dollar (6.00) except where free meals are provided. Reasonable time, to be determined by the employer shall be allowed the employee in order that the employee may take an unpaid meal break either at or adjacent to the employee’s place of work. This is effective on the date of ratification.

ARTICLE 13

sanction absences of three (3) days or less without reasons satisfactory to the Employer; and g. he is a full-time employee and is employed full-time with another Employer.

13.03 The change of employment status from full-time to part-time in accordance with subpara 13.04 of this Article, lay-off and recall from lay-off shall be by outlet. Employees in the outlet shall be selected in accordance with their seniority within the Bargaining Unit. Senior employees have preference over junior employees provided the senior employee has the experience, skill and fitness to do the job required.

13.04 When a full-time employee is laid off in accordance with subpara 13.03 of this Article and there is part-time work available in his outlet he shall be offered the part-time work provided he is able and qualified to perform the work. If he accepts the part-time work he shall receive the rate of pay of the job in which he is placed. b. if the vacancy cannot be filled in accordance with subpara 13.05a of this Article a notice of competition is to be posted in the outlet concerned for five (5) working days. Any member of the bargaining unit employed in the outlet interested in the position may apply during this five (5) day period, in writing to the responsible officer named in the poster. The successful applicant for the position will be selected on the basis of experience, ability, skill and fitness to do the job required. When the employer determines that there is more than one (1) employee in the outlet with equal qualifications to fill the vacancy the employee with the greatest seniority will be selected;

c. if there is no qualified or successful applicant within the outlet the Employer will post a notice of competition for five (5) working days. Any member of the bargaining unit interested in the position may apply during this five (5) day period, in writing, to the responsible officer named in the poster. The successful applicant for the position will be selected on the basis of experience, ability, skill and fitness to do the job required. Where the Employer determines that there is more than one (1) employee in the Bargaining Unit with equal qualifications to fill the vacancy the employee with the greatest seniority will be selected; and,

d. if the Employer determines that there is no qualified or successful applicant within the bargaining unit the Employer may hire someone from outside the bargaining unit.

13.06 Only an employee who applied for a competition and was not selected may submit a grievance concerning any determination made by the Employer regarding the competition. The grievance must be submitted within the five (5) working days following the day on which the candidates were advised of the name of the successful candidate.

13.07 Employees selected to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for an initial assessment period. The duration of the assessment period shall not exceed three (3) months. If, during the assessment period, the Employer determines that the employee has not performed the duties and responsibilities to the satisfaction of the Employer or should the employee not wish to continue in the position, the employee will be removed from the job and will be reassigned to his former position or to a position equivalent to his former position.

13.08 An employee’s seniority will not be interrupted by any period of absence resulting from maternity leave, or lay-off. Seniority will not accrue during a leave of absence without pay in excess of two (2) continuous weeks granted in accordance with article 16.05. Seniority accrued prior to that leave of absence without pay will be retained.

13.09 Within sixty (60) days of the signing of this collective agreement separate seniority lists for full-time and part-time employees shall be posted for a period of three (3) weeks. The seniority date for each employee shall be considered correct if no objection is made within three (3) weeks of the first day of posting of the initial list on which the employee's name appears. Copies of these seniority lists will be provided to the Bargaining Agent semi-annually.

13.10 A full-time employee shall have preference over a part-time employee provided the full-time employee has the experience, skill, ability and fitness to do the job.

13.11 In this Article, the Employer is to be the judge of ability and qualifications, experience, skill, and fitness but agrees not to do so in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

15.03 Calculations shall be based on the anniversary date of employment of the employee.

15.05 An employee shall give the Employer at least one month’s notice in writing regarding the actual dates on which he desires to take his vacation if the period of vacation is in excess of four (4) days.

15.06 Vacation leave shall not be cumulative from year to year under normal circumstances.

15.07 It is realized that occasionally vacations cannot be taken during the vacation period because of illness, job requirements or other exceptional circumstances. In such cases vacations may be carried over the next vacation period with the approval of the Employer. of a medical certificate, the period of vacation leave with pay so displaced shall be reinstated for use at a later date.

15.14 An employee is entitled to be informed, upon request, of the balance of his vacation entitlement.

15.15 Notwithstanding the above provisions, an employee converting from part-time to full-time status at NDMC may count his previous continuous part-time employment at NDMC towards full-time vacation entitlement as follows:

   a. Less than five (5) years of continuous part-time service - one half (½) of the previous service, e.g., four (4) years part-time = two (2) years full-time.

   b. Five (5) or more years of continuous part-time service - all of the previous service, e.g., six (6) years part-time = six (6) years full-time.

15.16 Vacation is only earned while an employee is drawing a wage except that authorized periods of leave without pay that do not exceed two (2) weeks may be counted as time earning vacation.
15.17 An employee is entitled to vacation leave with pay to the extent of his earned credits provided he has completed six (6) months of continuous employment.

ARTICLE 16

LEAVE GENERAL

16.01 Sick Leave Plan

16.02 Leave for Employees With Child Care Responsibilities. Every employee who has completed six (6) consecutive months of employment with the Employer is entitled to a leave of absence without pay as follows:

a. Where an employee provides her Employer with a certificate of a qualified medical practitioner certifying that she is pregnant, that employee is entitled to and shall be granted a leave of absence from employment of up to seventeen (17) weeks, which leave may commence not earlier than eleven (11) weeks prior to the estimated date of her confinement and end not later than seventeen (17) weeks following the actual day of her confinement.

16.05 An employee returning from child care responsibilities shall be reinstated into the position occupied at the time the leave commenced; or in a comparable position in the same location, with not less than the same wages and benefits. If during the period of leave, the wage and benefits of the group to which the employee belongs are changed as a result of a reorganization, and/or a renewal of the collective agreement, the employee is entitled upon return from leave to receive the same pay and benefits that the employee would have received had she been working when the reorganization and/or renewal of the collective agreement took place. An employee on leave will be notified in writing if such a change occurred.

16.06 Leave granted under this Article shall be counted as "service" for purposes of benefits in the agreement. This shall not apply where an employee terminates employment immediately following such leave.

16.07 The employee shall, along with the request for child care responsibilities without pay, notify the Employer in writing of the options concerning the pension and group insurance benefits. Should an employee taking leave under 16.02 a) above elect to continue coverage, the employer shall continue to pay its share of contributions. For these employees taking leave under 16.02 b) above who may wish to continue coverage, arrangements will be made for the employee to make the necessary contributions. This is effective date of ratification of the present agreement.

When an employee is summoned under the circumstances described above, he shall notify his Employer as soon as possible. Where practical, an employee is required to return to work for the remainder of the day or days when dismissed by counsel or the third party.

16.12 Jury Duty

The employee must promptly notify the employer that he has been summoned for jury duty.

ARTICLE 17

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

17.01 The purpose of any grievance procedure is to maintain good relations between employees and management at all levels. The grievance procedure helps to do this by providing a method of resolving complaints quickly and fairly.

17.02 The grievance procedure provides an informal or oral complaint stage for employees, and Managers are available for private consultations with an employee who wishes to discuss a complaint or grievance. Before a formal grievance is presented, the employee is encouraged to discuss it as an oral complaint with the manager concerned, either privately or, if requested, in the presence of a representative of the Union. If the employee is not satisfied with the result of such discussions, a formal grievance may then be presented.

17.03 The Employer shall designate a senior representative for the first and second levels and shall inform each employee to whom the procedure applies of the name or title of the person so designated. This information shall be communicated to employees by means of notices posted by the Employer in places where such notices are most likely to come to the attention of the employees to whom the grievance procedure applies, or otherwise as determined by agreement between the Employer and the Union. The final level will be the Minister of National Defence or his delegate.

17.04 Subject to and as provided in Section 90 of the Public Service Staff Relations Act, an employee who feels that he has been treated unjustly or considers himself aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer in matters other than those arising from the classification process is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in Article 17.09 except that,

a. where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament to deal with his specific complaint, such procedure must be followed, and

b. where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, he is not entitled to present the grievance unless he has the approval of and is represented by the Union.

17.05 An employee is not entitled to present a grievance relating to any action taken, direction or regulation given or made on behalf of the Government of Canada, respecting matters involving the safety or security of Canada.

17.06 An employee, when submitting a grievance at any level, shall use the NPF Grievance Presentation Form. However, a grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the NPF form or by reason of any technical irregularity. The form is obtainable from the Base Exchange Officer or the Base Personnel Services Officer.

17.07 The grievance process applies to employees only, but an employee has the right to be represented by a representative in the grievance procedure at any level and at either, or both, the informal discussion (oral complaint) stage, or when the formal written grievance is being considered.

17.08 At the request of an employee who has presented a grievance, a representative shall have the right to consult with the person designated to reply on management’s behalf at any level in the grievance procedure. At levels other than the final level the request for consultation may be made orally.

17.09 An employee Wishing to present a grievance shall do so:

   a. at the first level of the grievance procedure where the grievance does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee; and

   b. at the final level of the grievance procedure where the grievance relates to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee.

All levels in the grievance procedure, except the final level, may be by-passed by the mutual consent of the Base commander or his delegate, the employee and, where applicable, a representative.
17.10 A grievance shall be presented by an employee:

a. where it does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twentieth (20th) day; and

b. where it relates to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twenty-fifth (25th) day:

after the day on which the employee is notified orally or in writing, or where the employee is not so notified, after the day on which the employee became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

17.11 When an employee is not willing to accept the response to a grievance submitted to the first or second level and wishes to submit the grievance to the final level, this must be done within ten (10) days after the date on which the response was conveyed to the employee in writing by the Employer.

17.12 When an employee does not receive a response to the grievance within fifteen (15) days, the employee is entitled to submit the grievance to the next higher level.

17.13 The Employer shall reply to an employee's grievance at the first or second level of the grievance process within fifteen (15) days after the grievance is presented, and within twenty-five (25) days where the grievance is presented at the final level.

17.14 The time limits stipulated in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer, the grievor and, where applicable, a representative.

17.15 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken in the grievance procedure, Saturdays, Sundays and designated holidays shall be excluded.

17.16 An employee may abandon a grievance at any stage in the process by Written notice to the officer who is designated to receive and to reply on behalf of the Employer at Level One (1) of the grievance process.

17.17 An employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance, unless in the opinion of the Employer, it was not possible for the employee to comply with the prescribed time limits.

17.18 Where an employee has presented a grievance up to and including the final level with respect to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, suspension or a financial penalty, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the employee's satisfaction, he may refer the grievance to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the Public Service Staff Relations Act and Regulations.

17.19 When a grievance that may be presented by an employee to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application in respect of him of a provision of a Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, the employee is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the Union for the bargaining unit to which the Collective Agreement or Arbitral Award applies signifies in prescribed manner:

a. its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication; and

b. its willingness to represent the employee in the adjudication proceedings.

ARTICLE 18

PAY ADMINISTRATION

18.01 Employees are entitled to be paid for services rendered at a rate of pay specified in the Pay Schedule of Appendix "A" for the classification of the position to which they are appointed.

18.02 The probationary rate in the Pay Schedule of Appendix "A" shall be ninety (90) percent of the full rate of the position and shall be paid to new employees on hire. On completion of the probationary period employees shall receive the full rate of their positions.

18.03 a. When an employee is appointed in writing by the Employer to temporarily perform the duties of a higher classification in the Bargaining Unit for two (2) or more consecutive working days, he/she shall be paid as if he/she has been appointed to that higher classification level for that period from the first (1st) day.

When an employee is appointed, in writing, by the Employer to temporarily perform the duties of an employee outside the Bargaining Unit for two (2) or more consecutive working days, he/she shall be paid at his regular rate plus an additional twenty (20) percent for that period from the first (1st) day.
18.04 An employee temporarily assigned by the employer to a position with a rate of pay lower than his regular rate of pay shall maintain his regular rate of pay.

18.05 An employee shall not have his salary reduced by reason of a change in the classification of his position that is caused other than by the employee himself.

18.06 When a new classification within the bargaining unit is created, the Employer will promptly inform and negotiate with the Union the pay level established for the new classification and the duties involved. After the classification has been in effect for a trial period of thirty (30) working days, the pay rate may be brought up again for negotiation between the Employer and the Union. If no agreement is reached as a result of such discussion, the rate established will remain in effect until the next negotiations.

18.07 An employee recalled from layoff in accordance with Articles 13.04 or 13.05, to a classification with a lower rate of pay than the rate of pay of his former classification, shall be paid the rate of pay specified in Appendix A for the new classification to which he is appointed. An employee will be compensated at the highest eligible rate for the service.

18.09 Pay cheques shall be dated and placed in sealed envelopes. Except for circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, cheques shall be distributed by noon every second Thursday. (Effective 1 January 1989)
