11.05 Disciplinary measures or grievances arising from discriminatory conduct will be handled as quickly and confidentially as possible. Any level of the grievance procedure may be waived by the employee if the person hearing the grievance is the subject of the complaint.

- 11.06 Special programs and employment equity programs designed to prevent or reduce disadvantage resulting from systemic discrimination are permitted in accordance with the Yukon Human Rights Act. Before implementing this type of program, the employer will consult with the Yukon Human Rights Commission, the Labour-Management Relations Committee, and the union.

ARTICLE 12 – Workplace Harassment

- 12.01 All employees, and the employer, are entitled to work in an environment free of workplace harassment.
- 12.02 Workplace harassment can take three forms: personal harassment, sexual harassment and abuse of authority. For the purposes of this agreement, these are defined as follows:
- 1) Personal harassment is offensive conduct directed to an individual personally which undermines her dignity and self-respect, and interferes with her ability to do her job or endangers her job. (Examples include racist or homophobic comments directed to an employee, disrespectful comments meant to undermine a person in the eyes of clients or other employees, etc.)
 - 2) Sexual harassment consists of sexual comments, gestures, bodily contact or display of pornography which is offensive and unwelcome to the recipient. (Examples include rape "jokes", unwanted sexual invitations, pornographic calendars, etc.)
 - 3) Abuse of authority occurs when an individual uses the power of her position in the workplace to undermine, intimidate, threaten or coerce an employee or threaten her economic livelihood. (Examples include favouritism, denial of equal opportunities for training and promotion, inaccurate performance evaluations, etc.)
- 12.03 The employer, the employees and the union shall not engage in workplace harassment in their dealings with each other.
- 12.04 A single incident may constitute workplace harassment. It is not necessary that the conduct be ongoing.
- 12.05 It is the employer's responsibility to promote a harassment-free workplace and eliminate workplace harassment as soon as the employer is aware of it.
- 12.06 Disciplinary measures or grievances arising from workplace harassment will be handled as quickly and confidentially as possible. Any level of the grievance procedure may be waived by the employee if the person hearing the grievance is the subject of the complaint.

ARTICLE 13 – Positions and Hours of Work

- 13.01 A position means employment in a specific job classification as per Article 14, and in a specific job category as set out below.
- 13.02 The job categories are:
- Permanent full time - regular employment amounting to 40 hours per week
 - Permanent part-time - regular employment as agreed upon by the employer and employee which is less than 40 hours per week
 - Casual - employment on an irregular basis as required by the employer
 - Term - employment for a specified period of time.
- 13.03 The employer agrees not to hire term employees except to:
- a) fill a vacancy created by the leave of another employee;
 - b) fulfil the terms of a contract obtained by the employer from outside its usual funding sources; or
 - c) fill a vacancy created by an employee taking a term position.
- 13.04 The employer will develop a job description for each position in accordance with Article 15.
- 13.05 A monthly shift schedule will assign work to employees in a fair and equitable way. Casual employees shall be assigned approximately the same amount of work on the shift schedule based on their availability, which shall be provided in writing to the employer by the twelfth (12th) day of the month preceding each shift schedule. Employees who do not provide for their availability are obligated to work shifts assigned to them on the schedule.
- 13.06 Staff meetings, other than emergency meetings, shall be noted on the shift schedule.
- 13.07 A copy of the shift schedule shall be made available to each employee at least ten (10) days prior to the end of the month.
- 13.08 Reasonable notice of any changes to the shift schedule will be given to any employees affected.
- 13.09 An employee who is not able to work a scheduled shift shall give at least four (4) hours notice to the employer. Leave pursuant to Article 35, Article 36 or circumstances beyond the employee's control only require a reasonable notice to the employer. Employees who fail to provide the before mentioned notice(s) may be subject to discipline.

- 13.10 Up to three (3) shifts per month may be exchanged between employees who can substantially perform the duties required without prior permission of the employer, as long as it does not result in increased cost to the employer. All arrangements for the exchange of shifts are the employee's responsibility and shall be scheduled within the same calendar month.
- 13.11 If an employee wishes to exchange more than one consecutive shift, the employer's permission must be obtained. This permission will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 13.12 Two permanent employees may share a permanent full time or permanent part-time position, subject to the following conditions:
- a) The decision of the Executive Director to provide for a job share arrangement shall be based on operational requirements, ability to staff and maintain client services in the longer term, and the interests and needs of the employees concerned.
 - b) Upon accepting a job share arrangement, both employees will sign a letter of agreement outlining their commitment to share the position and confirming their understanding of the obligations and benefits of the job share arrangement. This letter will be placed on each employee's personnel file.
 - c) An employee in a job share position shall be considered permanent part-time for purposes of this agreement.
 - d) Two employees sharing a position will submit their monthly schedule to management on or before the twelfth (12th) day of the preceding month. If a job share employee is interested in working additional casual shifts, she will indicate which shifts are scheduled as part of the job share arrangement and which shifts are available for casual work. The Assistant Executive Directors are exempt from the casual pool but can be offered a call-in shift before Clause 16.02 is applied.
 - e) Job share employees may divide their shifts in a manner satisfactory to both employees, providing all required shifts are covered in a way that does not accrue overtime.
 - f) When a job share employee other than a Transition Home Worker is on leave, shifts will be filled whenever possible by the job share partner. If the job share partner is unable or unwilling to accept these shifts, they may be filled through the casual pool in accordance with regular procedure.

- g) If the job share employees cannot reach an agreed upon shift schedule for the upcoming month, they will both agree to be available for all shifts of that position and the Executive Director will allocate the shifts in an equitable manner.
- h) In the event that the relationship between the job share employees deteriorates, the employees may access the employee assistance program (EAP) or the grievance procedure described in this agreement.
- i) When an employee resigns or is terminated from a job-shared position, her hours will first be offered to the job share partner.
- j) Upon resignation or termination of an employee in a job share arrangement, the position reverts to its original permanent full time or permanent part-time status and the letter of agreement under Clause 13.12 b) is discontinued and is only renewable subject to the terms of this Article. In this circumstance, the employer shall make every reasonable effort to fill the position in a manner that recognizes the needs of the remaining job share partner. If the position still remains vacant the job share employee will be placed on the casual roster.

ARTICLE 14 – Classification and Reclassification

- 14.01 The employer will give the union thirty (30) calendar days notice of its intention to eliminate existing classifications as set out in Schedule "A".
- 14.02 The employer agrees that when new classifications are created, the rate of pay shall be subject to negotiation between the employer and the union. The new rate shall become retroactive to the time the position was first filled by an employee.
- 14.03 The employer agrees that, when reclassification of an existing position is identified, any revised rate of pay and effective date shall be subject to negotiation between the employer and the union.

ARTICLE 15 – Statement of Duties

- 15.01 When an employee is hired or transferred to another position in the bargaining unit, the employer shall, before the employee is assigned to that position, provide her with a current and accurate written statement of duties of the position.
- 15.02 Upon written request, an employee shall be given a complete and current statement of duties and responsibilities of her position.

 - b) in the case of a permanent part-time employee or part-time term employee, hours of work in excess of the normal hours per day or per week worked by the employee unless employee requested in which case not to exceed eight (8) hours in a given twenty-four (24) hour period or forty (40) hours in the employee's normal work week; and
 - c) in the case of a casual employee, hours of work in excess of eight (8) hours in a given twenty-four (24) hour period, or forty (40) hours in a given week.
- 16.02 The employer recognizes that overtime is sometimes desired, and sometimes unwelcome. Subject to operational requirements, the employer shall give the choice to take or refuse overtime work to employees on the basis of their seniority. If operational requirements necessitate a certain employee working overtime, she may only refuse the shift for reasonable cause.
- 16.03 Overtime hours worked shall be counted for seniority purposes, except that no employee shall be credited with more than forty (40) hours for seniority purposes in any given week.
- 16.04 Employees shall be compensated for overtime work at one and a half times their normal hourly rate.
- 16.05 Instead of overtime pay, employees may take compensatory leave at a rate equivalent to the rate of pay for overtime worked, provided the employee notifies the employer of her preference for compensatory leave prior to the end of the current pay period.
- 16.06 Compensatory leave may accumulate to a maximum of ten (10) working days, and may be taken at a time convenient to the employee, subject to operational requirements. At the end of the fiscal year, the employee may liquidate her compensatory leave or carry it over to the next fiscal year at her option.
- 16.07 Overtime worked, if less than a full hour, shall be compensated for each completed fifteen (15) minute period worked.
- 16.08 Overtime shall be authorized in advance by the Executive Director. Where operational requirements make this impractical, overtime may be authorized retroactively by the Executive Director.

- 16.09 Where an employee makes or receives a call with the authorization of the Executive Director or Assistant Executive Director, and can accomplish the work by telephone without returning to the workplace, the employee shall be compensated at the applicable rate rounded up to the nearest fifteen (15) minute period.
- 16.10 Any bargaining unit employee, who is called in and required to be at work for other than a scheduled shift, will receive the applicable pay for a minimum of two (2) hours.

ARTICLE 17 – Shift Premiums

- 17.01 Employees shall receive a shift premium of $1.25 per hour for all hours worked between 4:00 p.m. and midnight.
- 17.02 Employees shall receive a shift premium of $1.50 per hour for all hours worked between midnight and 8:00 a.m.
- 17.03 Employees shall receive a shift premium of $0.25 per hour for all hours worked on weekends, beginning at midnight Friday and ending at 8:00 a.m. on Monday.

ARTICLE 18 – Transportation and Meals

- 18.01 Where an employee is requested by the employer to use her personal vehicle for job-related purposes, the employer will pay her mileage at the Yukon Territorial Government rate.
- 18.02 No employee shall be required, as a condition of employment, to own a vehicle or have access to one.
- 18.03 The employer may require, as a condition of employment, that an employee holding a certain position maintain a valid driver's licence.
- 18.04 Where an employee's shift starts or ends at a time when the Whitehorse bus system is not running, and the employee has no means of transportation, the employer will contribute $10.00 towards the cost of a taxi fare to or from work for the employee.
- 18.05 Where an employee is required to travel for work-related purposes, the employer will pay her a meal and incidental allowance at the Yukon Territorial Government rate.
- 18.06 Meals provided at the workplace to clients are also available to employees on duty without cost to the employee.

ARTICLE 19 – Pay Administration

- 19.01 The wage schedule covering all employees occupying positions shall be set out in Schedule "A", forming part of this agreement.
- 19.02 Employees shall receive equal pay for work of equal value.
- 19.03 The employer shall pay wages bi-weekly in accordance with Schedule "A" on every other Wednesday. In the event of a payday falling on a designated holiday, the payday will be the last banking day before the holiday.
- 19.04 Pay cheques shall be prepared for distribution or available for pickup at 2:00 p.m. on payday.
- 19.05 Every employee shall receive a statement attached to each cheque showing the gross amount earned, itemized deductions, net amount payable and hours worked.
- 19.06 Upon request to the Executive Director and subject to seven (7) calendar day's notice, paycheques shall be provided prior to a vacation period.
