Any complaint or grievance which is not commenced or processed by the Company through the next stage of the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure within the time specified shall be deemed to be forfeited by the Company. However, time limits specified in the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Company and the Union. Extensions of time limits will not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 9 ARBITRATION

- 9.1 Any grievance not settled to the satisfaction of the Grievor, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, either party may, after exhausting the Grievance Procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration. It is agreed that a grievance shall be considered as referred for arbitration upon written notice by the party making the referral to the other. In the case of a Union grievance, such notification shall be within fifteen (15) working days of the date of the Union's first Local Lodge meeting held after the Company's reply at Step #4. In the case of a Company grievance, such notification shall be within fifteen (15) working days of the Union's reply at Step #4.
