 - 2) The development of skills and attitudes essential for scholarly study and scientific investigation and for the effective sharing of the results of these activities with fellow scholars and with the community at large;

- 2.3 The objectives of this Agreement are to promote harmonious relations between the Parties in order to achieve the above purposes and to facilitate the peaceful settlement of all disputes, misunderstandings and grievances.

ARTICLE 3: RECOGNITION

- 3.1 The Employer, pursuant to the certification of the Manitoba Labour Board, recognizes the Association as the exclusive bargaining agent for all Members within the bargaining unit as described in Certificate No.MLB-6361.
- 3.2 Certificate No.MLB-6361, defines the bargaining unit as "All persons employed by the University of Winnipeg as contract academic staff who teach courses on a per course basis, which are credited to a University of Winnipeg Degree, except employees covered by Certificate Nos.MLB-6362, MLB-3634, MLB-4020, Visiting Professors and those excluded by the Labour Relations Act."

ARTICLE 5: ACADEMIC FREEDOM

- 5.1 The search for knowledge and its free exposition is a fundamental characteristic of the continuing self-examination necessary to maintain a dynamic, free and vital society. In this context Members shall be entitled to the exercise of academic freedom as it relates to their teaching responsibilities. Academic freedom ensures the freedom to learn without restriction and the freedom to teach subject only to the academic regulations of Senate and adherence to the course description in the University calendar. Members are entitled, regardless of prescribed doctrine to freedom to teach and discuss, freedom to criticize, and freedom from censorship by either Party.

- 5.4 Academic freedom does not require neutrality. Rather, academic freedom makes commitment possible and may result in strong statements of beliefs and positions. The credibility and acceptability of the principle of academic freedom depends in part upon the freedom being used in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base teaching on an honest search for knowledge. It implies a respect for the rights of others, a tolerance of other points of view and a duty to use academic freedom in a responsible manner. Academic freedom does not confer legal immunity, nor does it diminish in any way the obligation of Members to meet their responsibilities and to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with this Agreement.
- 5.5 The Parties agree to uphold and to protect the principles of academic freedom and not to infringe upon or abridge the academic freedom of any Member.

ARTICLE 6: NON-DISCRIMINATION & FREEDOM FROM HARASSMENT

- 6.1 Except where otherwise provided for by this Agreement or applicable law, the Parties agree that there shall be no discrimination, harassment, interference, restriction or coercion exercised with respect to any employee in regard to any terms and conditions of employment except for such distinction, exclusion, limitation or protection as may constitute a bona fide occupational requirement under law.
- 6.2 The Parties to this Agreement have a duty not to harass or discriminate as defined in legislation and in The University of Winnipeg Respectful Learning and Working Environment Policy, and shall not behave in a manner that produces, contributes to or perpetuates a learning or working environment that tolerates harassment or discrimination.

- 6.3 The Parties to this Agreement declare that they do not condone harassment or discrimination as defined in The University of Winnipeg Respectful Learning and Working Environment Policy. Allegations of harassment or discrimination will be dealt with in accordance with procedures established by the Employer in The University of Winnipeg Respectful Learning and Working Environment Policy.
- 6.4 The protection from discrimination and harassment includes the protection from retaliation on any grounds identified in the policy for a Member having taken action under the policy either as a complainant or grievor, or for assisting a complainant or grievor in taking action under the policy, or for acting as a witness or advocate on behalf of an employee in a legal or other proceeding to obtain a remedy for a breach of non-discrimination.
