During such period the employee shall be paid for those days which are not regularly scheduled days of rest for the employee. In addition, the employee may be granted up to three (3) days' leave with pay for the purpose of travel related to the death.

35.2.3 An employee is entitled to one (1) day's bereavement leave with pay for the purpose related to the death of his/her son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law or sister-in-law.

35.2.5 It is recognized by the parties that the circumstances which call for leave in respect of bereavement are based on individual circumstances; on request the Council may, after considering the particular circumstances involved, grant leave with pay for a period greater than that provided for in sub-clause 35.2.2 and 35.2.3.

35.3 Examination Leave

35.3.1 Examination leave with pay shall be granted for an employee to write an examination for an accredited secondary school, technological institute or university subject, provided the course of study of the employee concerned can reasonably be construed by the Council as likely to increase the employee's usefulness to the Council and is not an examination for a completely extraneous subject.

35.5.1.2 sickness resulting from the nature of the employee's employment,

35.5.1.3 over-exposure to radioactivity or other hazardous conditions in the course of the employee's employment, if the employee agrees to remit to the Receiver General of Canada any amount received for loss of pay in settlement of any claim the employee may have in respect of such injury, sickness or exposure provided however that such amount does not stem from a personal disability policy for which the employee or his agent has paid the premium.

35.5.2 When the absence, as a result of injury-on-duty, is less than the applicable Provincial Worker's Compensation Board waiting period, an employee may be granted injury-on-duty leave during the applicable waiting period providing the employee satisfies the Council that he/she was unable to perform his/her duties.

the period of maternity leave without pay defined in sub-clause 35.7.1 above may be extended beyond the date falling seventeen (17) weeks after the date of termination of pregnancy by a period equal to that portion of the period of the child's hospitalization during which the employee returned to work, to a maximum of seventeen (17) weeks.

35.7.3 The extension described in sub-clause 35.7.2 above shall end not later than fifty-two (52) weeks after the termination date of pregnancy.

35.7.4 At its discretion, the Council may require an employee to submit a medical certificate certifying pregnancy.

- (c) should she fail to return to work in accordance with section (a) with an Employer described in Schedule 1 of the Public Service Staff Relations Act, for reasons other than death, lay-off, early termination due to lack of work or discontinuance of a function of a specified period of employment that would have been sufficient to meet the obligations specified in section (b), or having become disabled as defined in the Public Service Superannuation Act, she will be indebted to the Council for the full amount of the maternity allowance she has received;

(d) should she return to work but fail to work the total number of hours as specified in section (b) with an Employer described in Schedule 1 of the Public Service Staff Relations Act, for reasons other than death, lay-off, early termination due to lack of work or discontinuance of a function of a specified period of employment that would have been sufficient to meet the obligations specified in section (b), or having become disabled as defined in the Public Service Superannuation Act, she will be indebted to the Council for an amount determined as follows:

(allowance received) X $\frac{\text{(number of hours not worked following her return to work)}}{\text{[total number of hours to be worked as specified in (b)]}}$

however, an employee whose specified period of employment expired and who is rehired by a Schedule 1 Employer of the Public Service Staff Relations Act within a period of five days or less is not indebted for the amount if her new period of employment is sufficient to meet the obligations specified in section (b).

35.8.2 For the purpose of sub-clause 35.8.1.3 (b) and (d) periods of leave with pay shall count as time worked.

- 35.8.4 The maternity allowance to which an employee is entitled is limited to that provided in sub-clause 35.8.3 and an employee will not be reimbursed for any amount that she may be required to repay pursuant to the EI Act
- 35.8.5 The weekly rate of pay referred to in sub-clause 35.8.3 shall be:

- 35.8.6 The weekly rate of pay referred to in sub-clause 35.8.5 shall be the rate to which the employee is entitled for her substantive level to which she is appointed.
- 35.8.7 Notwithstanding sub-clause 35.8.6, and subject to sub-clause 35.8.5.2, if, on the day immediately preceding the commencement of maternity leave without pay, an employee has been on an acting assignment for at least four (4) months, the weekly rate shall be the rate she was being paid on that day.
- 35.8.8 Where an employee becomes eligible for a pay increment or pay revision while in receipt of the maternity allowance, the allowance shall be adjusted accordingly.

35.9 Special Maternity Allowance for Totally Disabled Employees

- 35.9.1 An employee who:
 - 35.9.1.1 fails to satisfy the eligibility requirement specified in sub-clause 35.8.1.2 solely because a concurrent entitlement to benefits under the Disability Insurance (DI) Plan, the Long-term Disability (LTD) Insurance portion of the Public Service Management Insurance Plan (PSMIP) or the Government Employees Compensation Act prevents her from receiving EI maternity benefits;

35.9.1.2 has satisfied all of the other eligibility criteria specified in sub-clause 35.8.1 except 35.8.1.2 and 35.8.1.3;

shall be paid, in respect of each week of maternity allowance not received for the reason described in sub-clause 35.9.1.1, the difference between ninety-three percent (93%) of her weekly rate of pay and the gross amount of her weekly disability benefit under the DI Plan, LTD Plan or via the Government Employees Compensation Act.

35.9.2 An employee shall be paid an allowance under this clause and under clause 35.8 for a combined period of no more than the number of weeks during which she would have been eligible for pregnancy benefits pursuant to section 22 of the EI Act had she not been disqualified from EI maternity benefits for the reasons described in sub-clause 35.9.1.1 above.

35.10 Maternity-Related Reassignment or Leave

(a) An employee who is pregnant or nursing may, during the period from the beginning of pregnancy to the end of the twenty-fourth (24th) week following the birth, request the Council to modify her job functions or reassign her to another job if, by reason of the pregnancy or nursing, continuing any of her current functions may pose a risk to her health or that of the foetus or child.

- (b) An employee's request under sub-clause (a) above must be accompanied or followed as soon as possible by a medical certificate indicating the expected duration of the potential risk and the activities or conditions to avoid in order to eliminate the risk. Dependent upon the particular circumstances of the request, the Council may obtain an independent medical opinion.
- (c) An employee who has made a request under sub-clause (a) above is entitled to continue in her current job while the Council examines her request, but, if the risk posed by continuing any of her job functions so requires, she is entitled to be immediately assigned alternative duties until such time as the Council:
 - (i) modifies her job functions or reassigns her,
 - or
 - (ii) informs her in writing that it is not reasonably practicable to modify her job functions or reassign her.
- (d) Where reasonably practicable, the Council shall modify the employee's job functions or reassign her.
- (e) Where the Council concludes that a modification of job functions or a reassignment that would avoid the activities or conditions indicated in the medical certificate is not reasonably practicable, the Council shall so inform the employee in writing and shall grant leave of absence without pay to the employee for the duration of the risk as indicated in the medical certificate. However, such leave shall end no later than twenty-four (24) weeks after the birth.
- (f) An employee whose job functions have been modified, who has been reassigned or who is on leave of absence shall give at least two (2) weeks notice in writing to the Council of any change in duration of the risk or the inability as indicated in the medical certificate, unless there is a valid reason why that notice cannot be given. Such notice must be accompanied by a new medical certificate.

However, the extension shall end not later than fifty-two (52) weeks after the day on which the child comes into the employee's care.

35.11.3 An employee who intends to request parental leave without pay shall notify the Council at least four (4) weeks in advance of the expected commencement of the leave.

- 44.2.2 An employee who was appointed above the minimum rate during a period where a pay increase becomes retroactive and who is notified in writing at the time of his/her letter of appointment that a negotiated retroactive pay increase would not apply to him/her shall, effective from the date of his/her appointment, have his/her rate of pay on appointment altered to the rate in the new scale of rates for his/her classification level which is nearest to but not less than the rate at which he/she was appointed. Changes in the employee's rate of pay which took place during the retroactive period will also be recalculated on the basis set forth in this paragraph.

44.3 Rate of Pay on Promotion

- 44.3.1 When an employee is appointed by the Council to a higher classification level in the same group, he/she shall be paid at the nearest rate in the new classification level which gives the employee a salary increase not less than the minimum increment of the higher classification level to which he/she is being appointed by the Council. If there is no such rate the employee shall be paid the maximum rate in his/her new scale.
- 44.3.2 Where an employee who is being paid Acting Pay is promoted to the position for which the employee is receiving Acting Pay, he/she shall be paid in that position at the rate at which the employee was being paid Acting Pay and the employee's first pay increment in that position shall become due on the date on which it would have become due as if the employee had been promoted to that position on the date on which he/she was most recently authorized to receive Acting Pay in that position.

- 44.5.2 For the purpose of computing periods of service for pay increments a «month» is a calendar month in which an employee receives pay for at least ten (10) days. Periods of leave without pay in excess of one (1) month in the case of semi-annual increments, and in excess of two (2) months in the case of annual increments will defer an authorized increment by the number of months of leave without pay except as otherwise provided in this agreement. An increment shall only be authorized for an employee during a period of leave of absence without pay where the leave without pay is for educational or military purposes or election to a full time municipal office has been authorized by the Council or as otherwise provided in this agreement.

However, for employees in the classification levels in which semi-annual increments may be provided as shown in the Schedule of Pay to this Agreement, the first increment authorized by the Council shall become effective six (6) months from the first day of the month which is nearest to the appointment date of the employee to his/her classification level and at six (6) month intervals thereafter.
- 44.5.4 The Council may deny a pay increment to an employee if it is satisfied the employee is not performing the duties of his/her position satisfactorily. Where the Council intends to deny a pay increment the Council shall give the employee notice in writing of this decision at least two (2) weeks and not more than six (6) weeks prior to the date the pay increment would otherwise have been effective had it been authorized.

44.5.5 When an employee appointed to one of the classification levels listed in Schedule 1 of this Agreement is not granted a pay increment on the anniversary date on which a pay increment could normally have been authorized for him/her, a pay increment may be deferred by the Council to the first day of any month following the month from which the pay increment was deferred, and for subsequent increments in his/her classification level the employee shall retain the increment date that was applicable to him/her immediately prior to the denial referred to in sub-clause 44.5.4.

44.6 Payment Following Death of Employee

44.6.1 When an employee dies the Council shall pay to the estate of that employee the amount of pay he/she would have received but for his/her death for the period from the date of his/her death to the end of the month in which his/her death occurred, provided that the employee has been continuously employed in the Public Service for one year.

44.6.2 Any previous overpayment of salary to the deceased employee or any debt owing by him/her to the Council may be recovered from this payment.

44.7 A new employee shall be issued his/her first pay through direct deposit as soon as practical.

44.8 If an employee signs and submits to the Council an affidavit stating that he/she has lost or inadvertently mutilated his/her pay cheque, the Council shall make arrangements with the Department of Public Works and Government Services, to issue a duplicate cheque as soon as possible.

- 44.9 An employee shall receive payments by cheques for pay supplements such as call-back pay, designated holiday pay, and overtime pay, where practicable in the pay period following that in which the pay supplements are earned.
- 44.10 Overtime pay which has been paid to an employee during the period covered by the retroactive general salary revisions (Schedule 1 of this Agreement), will be recomputed and the difference between the amount paid on the old salary scales and the amount payable on the new salary scales will be paid to the employee.
- 44.11 If during the life of this Agreement the Council should establish and implement a new classification standard applicable to employees covered by this Agreement, the Council and the Association shall, before rates of pay are applied to new classification levels resulting from the application of the standard, negotiate new rates of pay if applicable and shall also negotiate rules affecting the pay of employees on their movement to the new classification levels.

ARTICLE 45 - TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE AND CONTRACTING OUT

- 45.1 The Council will continue past practice in giving all reasonable consideration to continued service in the Council to employees whose services to the Council would otherwise become redundant because of technological change, or because work is contracted out or because of lack of work or a discontinuance of a function by the Council, in whole or in part.
- 45.2 The need for retraining caused by technological change shall be a topic of joint consultation between the Association and the Council.

ARTICLE 46 - TRAVELLING

- 46.1 Where an employee is required by the Council to travel on Council business outside his/her headquarters area as normally defined by the Council, the method of travel shall be determined by the Council and the employee shall be compensated in the following manner:

 - 46.1.3 On his/her day of rest or on a designated paid holiday on which the employee travels, the employee shall be paid at the applicable overtime rate for hours travelled to a maximum of twelve (12) hours' pay at the straight-time rate.
- 46.2 Clause 46.1 shall not apply to any period in excess of the normal work day during which the employee is resident in any accommodation for which the Council or its agent absorbs the cost. However, travelling time shall include time necessarily spent at each stop-over up to a maximum of three (3) hours at each such stop-over.

- 46.2.1 An employee may, subject to the approval of the Council, make an irrevocable election to receive leave with pay in lieu of the compensation provided under sub-clauses 46.1.2.2 and 46.1.3.
