- (f) The number of shift days in a year that the employee is scheduled to work is determined by dividing the yearly designated paid holiday hours for the holidays identified in Clause 15.01(a) by the daily shift hours and subtracting the result from the number of shift days calculated in accordance with (e) above. Compensation for work on a designated paid holiday shall be compensated in accordance with Clauses 15.05(a) and (b); and

The following provisions of Article 15 shall not apply to employees covered by Clause 21.02: 15.01(a), 15.02, 15.03, 15.04, 15.05(c).

Overtime rates of pay shall apply to weekend hours worked by an employee on the third consecutive weekend and subsequent consecutive weekends worked thereafter. It is understood that if an employee is required to be on travel status on a weekend, it shall be deemed as a weekend worked for the purpose of this clause. This Clause does not apply to employees who are hired exclusively to work weekends or who request to exchange shifts with other employees to work weekends.

21.04 Provided sufficient advance notice is given, and with the approval of the Employer, employees may exchange shifts if there is no increase in cost to the Employer.

21.07 Flexible Hours

At the request of an employee, the Employer may grant flexible or staggered hours between 07:00 and 20:00. This is subject to operational requirements.

- (f) This arrangement may be terminated at any time, by either the employee or the Employer with at least 14 days notice.

21.09 (a) At the request of an employee, the Employer may allow employees to determine their own hours of work to meet operational requirements that due to the ongoing nature of their work cannot be met by working the standard hours. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

- (b) Where these employees work more than the standard hours of work over a period of 28 calendar days, they shall be entitled to one compensatory hour off with pay for each extra hour worked. These employees must make every reasonable effort to schedule their hours to minimize extra hours worked.

- (d) At the end of the fiscal year, those accumulated compensatory hours which the employee has been unable to use will be liquidated in cash, at the normal hourly rate of pay, up to a maximum of 15 times the standard daily hours of work. If the employee has accumulated more than this, the extra hours will lapse. Under no circumstances will an employee be paid out more than 15 times the standard daily hours of work 7.5 or 8. There shall be no carry over of those hours from one fiscal year to the next.
- (e) It is understood that Clause 21.09 is not intended to be used on an ad hoc basis to meet operational requirements or to avoid the payment of overtime to employees.
- (f) Employees who are required by the Employer to work outside their varied hours shall be paid in accordance with the overtime provisions of this Collective Agreement. Employees who are required by the Employer to work on designated paid holidays shall be compensated in accordance with Article 15.
- (g) This arrangement may be terminated at any time by either the employee or the Employer with a minimum of 14 days notice.

21.10 General Rules

Employees are entitled to one 15 minute paid rest period in every period of 4 or 3.5 consecutive hours worked as appropriate. The scheduling of these rest periods is subject to the approval of the employee's supervisor.

ARTICLE 22 - Overtime

- 22.01 An employee who is required to work overtime shall be paid overtime compensation for each completed fifteen (15) minutes of overtime worked by him/her subject to a minimum payment of one (1) hour at the overtime rate when:

 - (ii) at double time (2) for all hours of overtime worked after the first four (4) consecutive hours of overtime and double time (2) for all hours worked on the second or subsequent day of rest, provided the days of rest are consecutive.
 - (iii) in lieu of (i) and (ii) above, the Employer may agree to grant equivalent leave with pay at the appropriate overtime rate to be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Employer and the employee.
- (c) "First day of rest" is defined as the twenty-four (24) hour period commencing at midnight of the calendar day on which the employee completed his/her last regular shift, and
- (d) When the first and second or subsequent day of rest are consecutive, "second or subsequent day of rest" is defined as the period immediately following expiration of the first day of rest and ending at the time of commencement of the employee's next regular shift.
- 22.05 Notwithstanding anything in this Article, an employee's scheduled hours of work shall not be construed as guaranteeing the employee hours of work.

22.06 Where an employee is required to work three (3) or more hours of overtime immediately following his/her regularly scheduled hours of duty, and, because of the operational requirements of the service, the employee is not permitted to leave his/her place of work, the Employer will either provide the employee with a meal or meal allowance equal to the amount of the Dinner in accordance with the Duty Travel Article (Article 40).

(i) In the event there is a delay in paying new or transferred employees, the Employer will assist those employees by providing advances or by other appropriate means.

(ii) Employees who reside in settlements which have a chartered bank will have their cheques delivered through direct deposit to the bank of their choice in Canada. Employees who have direct deposit will have their pay stubs delivered to them in sealed envelopes.

(b) Employees who reside in settlements which do not have a chartered bank have the choice of having their cheques:

(i) delivered to them in sealed envelopes; or

(ii) deposited through direct deposit to the bank of their choice in Canada.

(c) (i) Where an employee has received more than his or her proper entitlement to wages or benefits or where retroactive membership dues deductions are necessary, no continuing employee shall be subject to such deductions in excess of ten percent (10%) of the employee's gross earnings per pay period except in recoveries for absent without leave.

(ii) When deductions are made, the Employer shall provide an itemized statement of the purpose and amount of each deduction.

23.03 Employees who have earned overtime compensation or any other extra allowances in addition to their regular pay, shall receive such remuneration in the four (4) weeks following the day the employee submits the appropriate form.

23.04 When an employee is required by the Employer to perform the duties of a higher job evaluation level on an acting basis, he/she shall be paid acting pay calculated from the date on which he/she commenced to act as if he/she had been appointed to that higher job evaluation level for the period in which he/she acts.

In addition, if a performance increment is due not later than six (6) months from the date of promotion and is recommended, an increment will be granted at the time of promotion on the present pay level prior to application of the new pay level. Where this occurs, the employee's salary review date shall be changed to the effective date of the promotion.

(b) (i) if the appointment constitutes a transfer, at the rate nearest to, but not less than his/her former rate of pay; or

(ii) where the employee agrees to accept a transfer to a position, the maximum rate of pay of which is less than his/her present rate of pay, the employee shall be paid at the maximum rate of the new position to which he/she agrees to be transferred.

(c) If the appointment is as a result of the employee's successful application for a position, the maximum rate of pay of which is equal to or less than that of the employee's present position, the employee shall be paid at a level in the appropriate pay range for the new position that is commensurate to the employee's qualifications and experience for the position.

- (b) This Clause applies only to employees who become present incumbents of positions re-evaluated after January 1, 1979. Where an employee is being paid as the present incumbent of a position in a holding range and he/she unreasonably refuses a transfer or training which would put him/her in a position at, or above the level of the position before it was re-evaluated, or which would place him/her in a position nearer to the level established for the position before it was re-evaluated, he/she shall cease to be paid in the holding range. Instead he/she shall be paid in the range of rates applicable to the re-evaluated position which is nearest to the rate he/she was being paid in the holding range.

Such pay increases are dependent on satisfactory performance of the duties of the position by the employee, and shall not be granted to the employee until his/her Deputy Head certifies to the Employer that the employee is so performing the duties of his/her position.
- (b) For the purposes of such pay increases the performance of the employee shall be reviewed annually.
- (c) Pay increments which are recommended by the Deputy Head shall be granted:

If such notice of denial is not given, the pay increment shall be implemented on the due date.
- (e) Where an employee is not granted a pay increment on the day on which a pay increment would otherwise become due to him/her, a pay increment may become due to him/her six (6) months after the month he/she would have been due to have been granted a pay increment, or the Employer may defer the pay increment for a period of twelve (12) months after the month he/she would have been due to have been granted a pay increment, at which time the employee shall be entitled to the withheld pay increment in addition to the current pay increment should performance be deemed to meet the required standard.

- (b) Where a position is assigned a higher pay range as a result of regrading; that is, where there have been no substantial changes in the duties and responsibilities of the position evaluated, the incumbent of the position re-evaluated will be paid at the same step in the new pay range as they were in the old pay range.
- (c) The effective date of a re-evaluation that results in an increase in pay shall be the date upon which the employee began to substantially perform the new or changed duties, but in any event no retroactivity shall be paid for any re-evaluation adjustment that extends beyond sixty (60) days prior to the filing of a grievance or a job evaluation appeal, whichever is earlier.

The mentor will report on the progress of the employee he/she is mentoring on a regular basis. The length of the mentorship shall be set out in advance in a mentorship agreement, and shall be for a minimum period of one week. The mentorship agreement shall set out the roles and responsibilities of the mentor and the process for evaluating the progress during the mentorship period of the employee he/she is mentoring.

PREMIUMS:

This benefit is provided at no cost to employees.

CONDITIONS:

This benefit will apply to injury sustained by an employee anywhere in the world while on the business of the Employer and during the course of any bona fide trip made by the employee including incidental personal travel connected therewith. Such trip shall be deemed to have commenced when the employee leaves his/her residence or place of regular employment for the purpose of going on such trip, whichever last occurs, and shall continue until such time as he/she returns to his/her residence or place of regular employment, whichever first occurs.

If the Insurer accepts the application, the employee's name will be added to the policy for coverage and the employee will be covered for all future flights. However, it will still be necessary on future flights to obtain the Deputy Head's approval before using a privately owned aircraft for duty travel.

The above stated indemnities do not apply to any loss, fatal or non-fatal, caused or contributed to by:

When a loss occurs, claim forms may be obtained from the Compensation and Benefits Division of the Department of Finance and Administration. Completed claim forms will be submitted to the Insurer who will assess the claim.

In paying any claim, the Insurer will issue a cheque directly to the employee or to the employee's estate.

Conversion from the March 31, 1998 pay plans to the new pay plans shall be phased in as follows:

- Employees whose March 31, 1998 salaries are less than or equal to the salaries on the new pay schedule will be placed on the new pay schedule at the steps on the new pay ranges that correspond to the steps on the old pay ranges (e.g. If the employee is currently at step 3, the employee will be placed at step 3 on the appropriate pay range on the new schedule.)
- Employees whose March 31, 1998 salaries are greater than the salaries on the new pay schedules will have their current salary level protected by a “conversion salary”. As employees progress through the steps on the new grid this “conversion salary” will continue to be added to their base salary
